St. James's, July 17.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Lord Viscount Weymouth, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

ANimated with the warmest Sentiments of Duty and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, we your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council of the City of Exeter, beg Leave, in this Time of public Alarm, to assure your Majesty of our steady and most zealous Support in the Prosecution of the present War, against the United Strength of the House of Bourbon. We are fully sensible of your Majesty's pacific Disposition towards those Powers, who not only unprovoked, but regardless of the repeated Instances of your Majesty's Friendship and Moderation, have voluntarily entered into the Contest subsisting with your Majesty's revolted Subjects in America, in Breach of public Faith, and with a View only of gratifying their own ambitious Designs.

Amidst the Difficulties, which surround us, we cannot, however, but reflect with the highest Satisfaction on the Success which attended the British Arms in former Times, when the Spirit of the Nation was called forth and fully exerted. The same Spirit still exists; and relying on the Justice of our Cause, we trust that, under the Divine Providence, your Majesty will be enabled, by the vigorous Efforts of your Subjects, and the distinguished Valour and Ability of your Majesty's Forces, to humiliate the Pride, and frustrate the unjust Attempts of your Enemies; and to convince them of the Danger of insulting the Honour of your Majesty's Crown, and invading the Rights of Great Britain.

On our Part we shall be always ready to stand forth in the Defence of our Country, and for the Preservation of our happy Constitution; and most earnestly pray, that your Majesty may long continue the Guardian and Protector of a Free, Brave and United People.

Given under our Common Seal the Thirteenth Day of July, 1779.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty, The humble and dutiful Addressees of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Heritors of the County of Stirling.

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Heritors of the County of Stirling, think it our Duty in the present important Crisis of publick Affairs, to express our firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and our Gratitude for the Happiness we have enjoyed since your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors. Convinced that your Majesty's Conduct to Foreign States has been guided by the same Principles of Equity and Moderation that have been so conspicuous in your Government at Home, it is with the highest Indignation and Resentment we have seen those ambitious Powers, who have so often disturbed the Tranquility and menaced the Liberties of Europe, combined in the most hostile Measures against your Majesty's Kingdoms; and justifying these Measures on Pretences the most frivolous and ill-founded. But as the unjust and aspiring Views of the Princes of the House of Bourbon have, on many former Occasions, been checked and defeated by the spirited Exertions of the British Nation, we trust, that through the Divine Blessing on your Councils and Arms, and supported by your own Magnanimity, and the Zeal and Affection of brave and generous Subjects, your Majesty will be enabled to resist and repel, and finally triumph over the united Efforts of France and Spain. Though in this Hour of Danger and Alarm, we cannot but express our Regret, that a national Militia has not been extended to this Part of the united Kingdom; and that your faithful Subjects here have been precluded from that best and most constitutional Defence; we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that in our Sphere we shall contribute with Cheerfulness to every Expence, and co-operate with Ardour in every Measure that may be judged most conducive to the Protection of your Kingdoms, and to the Maintenance of the Honour and Dignity of your Crown.

Subscribed, in the Presence and by Appointment of the Meeting, by the most Honourable the Marquis of Graham their Præses, at Stirling, the Tenth Day of July, 1779.
