

The following Address of the Roman Catholics of the Town and County of Wexford, having been presented to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by his Excellency been transmitted to the Lord Viscount Weymouth, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To his Excellency John Hobart, Earl of Buckinghamshire, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's Roman Catholic Subjects of the Town and County of Wexford, at this alarming Crisis, when the Rumour of an hostile Invasion renders the Union of every Denomination of People more particularly necessary, beg Leave to renew to your Excellency the Assurances of our inviolable Fidelity and Attachment to His Majesty's Person and Government, and of our Readiness to risk our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of His Majesty's Crown, and the Safety of this Kingdom.

28th June, 1779.

[ Signed with 147 Names. ]

The following Address of the Guild or Brotherhood of Masters and Pilots, Seamen of the Trinity-House of Kingston upon Hull, has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Sandwich: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Guild or Brotherhood of Masters and Pilots, Seamen of the Trinity-House of Kingston upon Hull.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Guild or Brotherhood of Masters and Pilots, Seamen of the Trinity-House of Kingston upon Hull, animated with the same Sentiments of Gratitude and Fidelity to your Majesty, which this antient Corporation hath ever shewn in Seasons of Difficulty and Danger, beg Leave to approach your Throne, to repeat our sincere Attachment to your Person and Government.

Penetrated, as every loyal Subject must be, with Indignation and Abhorrence at this recent Instance of the perfidious and unjust Conduct of the House of Bourbon, we hereby offer, with the most fervent Zeal, to support your Majesty to the utmost Extent of our Power against every hostile Attempt of your Enemies; and we trust, alarming as the present Juncture of Affairs may appear, that, with the Blessing of God, your Majesty's Arms, actuated by British Unanimity and Valour, will ere long teach our inveterate Foes, that however they may reckon on the Disaffection of some of your Majesty's Subjects, or the mistaken Patriotism of others, there is still enough of real Strength and true Courage in the Nation to defeat all their united Efforts, to continue to us the Blessings of Peace and Commerce; and to transmit to Posterity, undiminished in its Consequences, and unfulfilled in its Splendor, the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal, the 19th Day of July, in the Year of our Lord, 1779.

John Woolf, }
Tho. Brown, } Wardens.

The following Address of the Lieutenant-Governor, Bailiff and Jurats, Dean and Clergy, and other principal Inhabitants of the Island of Guernsey has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Amherst: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Bailiff and Jurats, Dean and Clergy, and other principal Inhabitants of this Island, beg Leave to approach the Foot of your Royal Throne, in this Moment (so important to your Majesty's Kingdoms) of the unjust and unprovoked hostile Declaration of the Court of Spain, when the Heart of every good Subject must beat equally with Indignation and Resentment, as with Zeal and Ardor to strengthen your Majesty's Hands, to add Force and Vigour to the Wisdom of your Councils, and to concur powerfully in every Exertion capable of securing Success to every auspicious Measure planned under your Majesty's propitious Direction, to assure your Majesty, that our Lives and Fortunes shall readily and cheerfully be employed, as well in contributing to resist and repel every hostile Attack, as to fall upon the Foe, and carry that Distress and Desolation in the midst of them, which they have insidiously and perfidiously concerted to bring on your People.

Situated as we are, in Sight of the invidious Enemies of your Crown, we were almost Eye Witnesses to the Triumph with which the French Merchants in the Maritime Ports received the Account of the treacherous and base Declaration of that Crown's Resolution to abet your Majesty's rebellious Subjects: In that Day of their Insolence they shut up their Exchanges to consecrate it as a Day of Festivity; but the Great God of Battles, who loveth Justice and hateth Iniquity, has turned their Exultations into Sorrow, and their Schemes of Rapine and Wealth into Disappointment and Bankruptcy.

They little thought to see, in less than a Twelvemonth, by the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Measures, their Prince and his Councils forced to skulk under the Spanish Throne for Protection, and themselves a ruined People. May the same Omnipotent Hand, the great Avenger of Injustice, Treachery, and Perfidy, continue His Blessings upon your Majesty's righteous Endeavors to confound and bring to Naught this wanton and unjust Confederacy; this farther wicked Accession to a mean, undignified Alliance with the Demagogues of Rebellion! And may your Majesty's deluded Subjects, from a Sense, on the one Hand, of being ultimately involved and their Liberties and Commerce secretly devoted in the insidious Designs of those Confederates; and, on the other, of the invaluable Blessings enjoyed under your Majesty's auspicious Government, return to their Duty and Allegiance to your Majesty, their only true and legal Sovereign.

These are the sincere and affectionate Sentiments and Wishes of,

May it please your Sacred Majesty,

Your Majesty's most loyal and ever faithful Subjects.

Guernsey, the 2d of July, 1779.

The above Address was signed by the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff and Jurats, the Dean and Clergy, and the principal Inhabitants of the said Island.

The following Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heretors,