Dublin-Castle, October 14.

THE Houses of Lords and Commons having resolved upon humble Addresses to His Majesty, the same, together with Addresses from both Houses to the Lord Lieutenant, were this Day presented to his Excellency; and, with his Excellency's Answers, are as follow:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most sincere Assurances of our dutiful unshaken Loyalty and steady Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person, Family, and Government at all Times, and particularly at this Time of Tryal, when the united Efforts of your Enemies call for the most vigorous Exertions of all your faithful Subjects.

We return your Majesty our warmest Acknowledgment and most grateful Thanks for the Assurances given to us from the Throne, by your Majesty's Command, that the Cares and Solitudes inseparable from a State of Hostility have not been able to prevent your Majesty from turning your Royal Mind to the Interests and Distresses of this Kingdom with the most affectionate Concern; of which the late Remittance to this Country for it's Defence, when England had every Reason to apprehend a most formidable and immediate Attack, cannot but be considered by us as a most convincing Proof, at the same Time that it affords us the pleasing and satisfactory Manifestation that our Inability and Distress have been truly represented to your Majesty. And with Hearts full of Gratitude we are sensible of your Majesty's great Goodness in affording us also an Assurance, that you will most cheerfully co-operate with your Parliaments in such Measures as may promote the common Interests of all your Majesty's Subjects. We therefore think it our Duty, as the Hereditary Counsellors of the Crown, and Guardians of the Rights of our Fellow-Subjects, humbly to represent to your Majesty that the Distresses of your People are such, that a Free Trade is absolutely necessary to enable this Nation to support your Majesty at this important Period with Exertions suited to it's Zeal and Loyalty, and to preserve it from utter Ruin.

We beg Leave to express to your Majesty our Thankfulness for continuing amongst us a Chief Governor, who, during his Residence with us, hath not only taken unceasing Pains to acquire a thorough Knowledge of the true State and Interest of this Country, but hath afforded us abundant Proof of his sincere good Wishes by his faithful Representations, and by his unwearied Endeavours to promote and restore the Welfare and Prosperity of this Kingdom.

We beseech your Majesty to accept our most cordial Congratulation upon the happy Accession to your Royal Family by the Birth of another Prince, which at the same Time that it increases your Majesty's domestic Felicity, tends also to secure the Happiness of your People, by improving and enlarging the flattering Prospect that they have of a Race of Princes descended from your Majesty to reign over these Kingdoms to the latest Posterity.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that impressed as we are with a deep Sense of the Difficulties which the Trade, Commerce and Manufactures of this Kingdom labour under, that warmed with the Love of our Country, and with a most ardent Zeal for the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown and Government, we will not suffer any Dangers with which we may be threatned from Abroad to draw off our Attention from wise and necessary domestic Regulations; and that, amongst the many Subjects worthy of Consideration, the Protestant Charter Schools and the Linen Manufacture recommended to us will have a just Share of our Attention; and we cannot conclude without assuring your Majesty from our Hearts, that we shall at all Times be ready to exert ourselves to the utmost in rendering to your Majesty our best and most faithful Services against all your Enemies.

W. Watts Gayer, } Cler. Parliament.
Edw. Gayer,

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Will forthwith transmit this dutiful and loyal Address to be laid before His Majesty.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most unfeigned Assurances of our unbounded Duty, Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's most Sacred Person and Government; and to return your Majesty our most grateful Thanks for being graciously pleased to continue in the Government of this Kingdom a Nobleman, whose Conduct, during his Residence amongst us, has been eminent for Integrity, Justice, Moderation, and Wisdom.

We beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty, that we shall not suffer any Interests, however dear to us, to impede our strenuous Efforts, disturb our Unanimity, or slacken our Zeal against the Enemies of your Majesty's Crown and Empire, even at a Time, when we are called upon in a most peculiar

Manner

Manner by the urgent Distresses and pressing Necessities of our Country, to devote our whole Attention to the Advancement of the Trade, Commerce and Manufactures of this Kingdom.

We receive, with Hearts overflowing with Gratitude, your Majesty's most gracious Declaration, that the Cares and Sollicitudes, inseparable from a State of Hostility, have not prevented your turning your Royal Mind towards the Interests and Distresses of this Kingdom with the most affectionate Concern; of which we acknowledge the Money lately remitted to this Kingdom for its Defence, when England had Reason to apprehend a most formidable and immediate Attack, affords a convincing Proof. We beg Leave however, humbly to represent to your Majesty, that it is not by Temporary Expedients, but by a Free Trade alone, that this Nation is now to be saved from impending Ruin. And from your Majesty's gracious Declaration, a Declaration imprinted on our Hearts in Characters of indelible Gratitude, that "anxious for the Happiness of all your People, you will most cheerfully co-operate with your Parliaments in such Measures as may promote the common Interests of all your Subjects;" we draw the happiest Presages in Favor of a Measure essential to the Existence of this Kingdom, and which appears to us to be highly conducive to the Interests of Great Britain.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Accession to your Royal House, and to the Security of these Realms, by the Birth of another Prince. Whatever contributes to the Happiness of our most Gracious Sovereign, must deeply affect the Minds of a grateful and affectionate People. We cannot but lament, that, on account of the extraordinary Decline of the Revenues, the very liberal Supplies of the last Session have proved inadequate to the public Exigencies; and that, notwithstanding the most laudable and earnest Endeavours of our Excellent Chief Governor; there is a considerable Arrear now to be provided for.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that we have every Disposition to go as far as the National Abilities will admit, in making a Provision for the honorable Support of your Majesty's Government. But with Hearts glowing with the warmest Wishes for the Prosperity and Glory of the British Empire, and full of Zeal against the Common Enemy, we have the Mortification to find, that the limited State of our Trade and Commerce must, by narrowing our Resources, set Bounds to our Liberality very far short of our earnest Inclinations.

In the present distressed Circumstances of this Nation, we have heard with the utmost Satisfaction the Declaration made from the Throne by your Majesty's Gracious Order, that the greatest Oeconomy should in every Instance be exerted, as far as may be consistent with the Honour of your Crown and the real Interests of the Nation. And we have good Reason to believe, that the Conduct of our present Chief Governor will correspond with this your Majesty's gracious Purpose for the Good of your People.

S. Carew, }

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Answer:

I WILL take the first Opportunity of transmitting this dutiful and loyal Address to be laid before His Majesty.

To his Excellency John Earl of Buckinghamshire, Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland,

The Humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, return your Excellency our sincere Thanks for your most excellent Speech from the Throne.

We feel ourselves happy in being again assembled in Parliament under your Excellency's Administration, of which we have had such Experience as fills us with the best grounded Hopes and Confidence, that, assisted by your Excellency's Knowledge of, and earnest Desire to promote, the true Interest of this Country, such Things may be accomplished as may eminently distinguish the present Session of Parliament, by the wise Provisions and useful Regulations which shall be made in it, for restoring and establishing the National Prosperity.

We cannot doubt of your Excellency's faithful Representations of this Country, when we hear from the Throne, as we have done, that His Majesty hath graciously condescended to assure us, that the Cares and Sollicitudes inseparable from a State of Hostility, have not been able to prevent Him from turning His Thoughts to the Interests and Distresses of this Kingdom; and to afford us such a Proof, as He has done, of His affectionate Concern, by the Remittance lately made to this Country for its Defence.

We rejoice with your Excellency on the happy Accession to His Majesty's Royal Family, by the Birth of another Prince, an Event which we cannot but look upon as affording an Addition to the Security we have, that our Religion, Laws and Liberties, will be inviolably transmitted to the most distant Ages.

We congratulate with your Excellency, that, notwithstanding the united Efforts of His Majesty's Enemies, there is that Display of Courage, and that Manifestation of Zeal for the Support of His Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, through all Orders and Ranks of the People in this Kingdom, as shews that His Majesty's loyal Subjects here, are so far from being cast down and dismayed by any hostile Efforts or Threats whatsoever, that they are animated to a Degree that rouses the brave and military Spirit of this Country, that hath so eminently distinguished itself at all Times.

We beg Leave to assure your Excellency, that we will not suffer any Dangers, with which we may be threatened from Abroad, to draw off our Attention from wise and domestic Regulations; and that, among the great Objects worthy of our Consideration, the Protestant Charter-Schools and Linen Manufacture will continue to have a just Share of our Attention.

We cannot but offer to your Excellency our most grateful Thanks for the kind Assurance that you have given us, of your co-operating with us in promoting such Measures as may tend to increase the Prosperity, or improve the true Interests of this Kingdom; and relying upon the Proofs which your Excellency hath given us in your past Conduct of your good Wishes, we trust that your Excellency's best Endeavours will never be wanting to forward and promote the Welfare of Ireland.

To

To which Address his Excellency has been pleased to give this most gracious Answer:

My Lords,

THE same indulgent Partiality which dictated the Terms of your Lordships Address, will, I flatter myself, excuse my not finding Words sufficiently forcible to express my Thanks. It shall be my Study to persevere in that Line of Conduct which has been deemed deserving of your Approbation.

To his Excellency John Earl of Buckinghamshire, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament assembled, return your Excellency our sincere Thanks for your most excellent Speech from the Throne.

We cannot forbear expressing our entire Satisfaction at being again assembled under the just and prudent Government of a Viceroy, whose Conduct has been so eminently distinguished for Integrity, Wisdom, and Moderation, and through whose faithful Representations our most gracious Sovereign has been enabled to view the Distresses of this Kingdom; to which, and to its Interests, (amidst the Cares and Solitudes inseparable from a State of Hostility) He has turned His Royal Mind, with a most affectionate Concern.

We lament with your Excellency, that, on Account of the extraordinary Decline of the Revenues, the very liberal Supplies of the last Session have proved inadequate to the Expences of Government. We are persuaded that your Excellency's most laudable and earnest Endeavours have not been wanting to prevent the Arrear now to be provided for, and make no Doubt but that your Excellency will in every Instance exert that strict Oeconomy which is so essential to the Preservation of this Kingdom, and of which His Majesty has condescended to give us so gracious an Assurance.

We will take into Consideration the Public Accounts, and will go as far as the Circumstances of this Kingdom will permit, in making a Provision suitable to the Exigency of the Times, and the honourable Support of His Majesty's Government.

We congratulate with your Excellency, upon that Zeal and Courage which have manifested themselves throughout this Kingdom, and earnestly hope, that it may be found practicable to give the Exertions of our brave Countrymen the most extensive and Constitutional Operation, by establishing and calling forth an effectual Militia.

We beg Leave to assure your Excellency, that we shall not suffer any Danger that may be threatened from Abroad to draw off our Attention from wife and necessary domestic Regulations; and that at all Times, and in every Change of Circumstances, the Protestant Charter Schools and Linen Manufacture shall be Objects of our most serious Attention, and most vigilant Protection.

We return your Excellency our most sincere and grateful Acknowledgements, for that Disposition which you express to co-operate with us in all Measures, that may tend to increase the Prosperity or improve the true Interests of this Kingdom; a disposition, of which we have received the most convincing Proofs in every Part of your Excellency's Conduct.

H. Alcock, } Cler. Dom. Com.
S. Carew, }

His Excellency's Answer.

Gentlemen,

THIS honourable Testimony of your Approbation of my Conduct, affords me very great Satisfaction, and I shall hope to merit the Continuance of it, by making my Duty to His Majesty, and my Endeavours to be of Service to this Kingdom, the constant Objects of my Administration.

St. James's, October 23.

The King has been pleased to order Letters Patent to be issued and passed under the Great Seal of the Kingdom of Ireland, for the Translation of the Right Reverend Father in God Dr. William Newcome, Bishop of Ossory, to the United Bishopricks of Waterford and Lismore in the said Kingdom, void by the Death of the Right Reverend Father in God Dr. Richard Chénevis, late Bishop thereof.

The King has been pleased to order like Letters Patent, for the Promotion of John Hotham, Doctor in Divinity, to the Bishoprick of Ossory, void by the Translation of the Right Reverend Father in God Dr. William Newcome, late Bishop thereof, to the United Bishopricks of Waterford and Lismore.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, October 19, 1779.

NOTICE is hereby given, that there will not be a Drawing-Room at St. James's on the Anniversary of His Majesty's Accession to the Throne, Monday next the 25th Instant.

St. James's, October 16, 1779.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that for some Time past several Houses and Buildings of different Persons in Knutsford, Rostherne, High Legh, Lymm, Budworth, and Mere, in the County of Chester, have been set on Fire, chiefly in the Night-time, nearly at the same Hour, at different Places at the same Time, and often near to, or in Sight of each other; and that the last Fires were on Wednesday the 8th Day of September last past, when Two Out-buildings were on Fire at Two o'Clock in the Morning, (the usual Hour) in the Middle of the Town of Knutsford; and that there is great Reason to believe the said Houses and Buildings were wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil-disposed Person or Persons at present unknown:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons therein concerned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually set Fire to the said Houses and Buildings) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Offences, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Magistrates of the said County of Chester do hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS, to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted) to be paid, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by Mr. Wright, Attorney at Law, in Knutsford.

Viſtualling-Office, October 16, 1779.

THE Commissioners for Viſtualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that there is Money and Exchequer Bills in the Hands of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy to pay Interest and Non-Interest Bills, registered on the Course of the Viſtualling, in the Months of February, March, and April, 1778, in order that the Persons possessed of the said Bills may bring them to this Office, to be assigned for Payment.
