Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 13, to Tuesday November 16, 1779.

St. James's, November 6, 1779.

*W*HEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that the Town of Northampton has been lately much alarmed by three several Fires, and that there is not the least Doubt but the two last were wilfully and maliciously contrived to involve the whole Town in the Conflagrations:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in kindling the said Fires, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually kindled the said Fires) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WEYMOUTH.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Magistrates and Principal Inhabitants of the said Town of Northampton do hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons making Discovery of the Incendiary or Incendiaries concerned in either of the two last above-mentioned Acts (except as before excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

John Jeyes, Town Clerk.
