

Creditors of Fairbeard Swinburn, late of Devonshire-street, Apothecary;

Whereas Mrs. Ann Staines, deceased, did, by her Will, give to Henry Fothergill, of Bedford-row in the Parish of St. Andrew Holborn, a small Sum of Money upon Trust, to pay or apply the same towards discharging the Debts that should or might be justly due and owing from her Cousin Fairbeard Swinburn, at the Time of her Decease. And, in Case there should happen to be any Overplus after the Payment of such Debts, then to pay such Overplus to him the said Fairbeard Swinburn; in case he should then be living; and not otherwise. And whereas the said Ann Staines died the 3d Day of July 1748, and the said Henry Fothergill hath since received the said Money together with some Interest for the same, and being desirous to pay and apply the same agreeably to the said Will, but not being apprised of any other Debts being due and owing from the said Fairbeard Swinburn, besides those of which he hath already had an Account. Therefore Notice is hereby given to all such Persons now living, who were Creditors of the said Fairbeard Swinburn at the Death of the said Ann Staines, and to the legal Representatives of such of them as are dead; that, by sending to the said Henry Fothergill an Account in Writing of their respective Debts, together with due Proof thereof, on or before the First Day of March next, they will receive from the said Henry Fothergill a Dividend of the said Money and Interest, in Proportion to such their Debts; and, in Default of their sending such Account and Proof on or before the said First Day of March, the said Henry Fothergill intends to apply the Money in his Hands agreeably to the said Will.

Lincolnshire, January 7, 1780.
