WE, Anthon Dietrich Wilchen and Mathaeus Rodde, Senators, and at this present Time Judges of this Imperial and the Holy Roman-Empire Free City of Lubeck, make known to all Men, especially to those whom it may concern, That before us in the Lower Court of Judicature personally appeared Andreas Christoph Ahrens, for Johann Michael Croll and Son, and humbly represented, that in the Month of October, in the Year 1778, the Petitioners received a Bill of Lading of Caspar Felix and Son, in London, of a Cargo of 73 Chaldrons of Coals, and 24 Fodders of Lead, sent from Newcastle to Lubeck, the Insurance upon which they ordered immediately to be made here; this last Order for Insurance was accompanied by a Draft of 1041. Sterling, at Two and Half Usances, Order Daniel VonderHyde, and one for 571. 9 s. Sterling English to the same Order, at Two Usances, which two Bills the Petitioners (suspecting no Fraud, and on Account of many Circumstances too tedious to mention here could not expect) did without Hesitation accept, addressing them to Hamburg to C. A. Lorent and Am Ende; before the coming due of said Bills it was plainly proved, that neither a Firm of Caspar Felix and Son in London, nor Daniel von der Hyde, were existing, thus all had been contrived for a villainous Fraud, therefore the before-mentioned Lorent and Am Ende were prevailed upon not to pay the said Bills of 1041. and 571. 9 s. Sterling, but refuse them: The Petitioners have hitherto taken all imaginable Pains to discover these villainous Cheats, and bring them to condign Punishment, to effect which they have often had Hopes and Prospects; but as at last, notwithstanding all their Pains, that said iniquitous Affair seems as if it would never come to Light. Your Petitioners, although no one since has either demanded Payment, nor could under these Circumstances demand the same, would for their better Securities Sake and Peace of Mind, most humbly pray, by a Valien Curia here, as also in London and Hamburg affixed, and in the Foreign Papers inserted, a public Proclamation to cite and summons all such as think themselves intitled to any Right or Claim upon the Petitioners Johann Michael Croll and Son for the Bills of 1041. Sterling and 571. 9 s. Sterling, English, at Two and Half and Two Usances, Order Daniel VonderHyde, issued by Caspar Felix and Son, within a double Saxon Term to appear here in the Lower Court, plead and prosecute their Right with the Infuination; That by not appearing, after the Expiration of said affixed Period, the said Bills will be declared null and void, and all and every Person or Persons are to be perpetually silent thereafter.

After your Lordship will have granted the prayed-for public Proclamation cum Termino of a double Saxon Period, we do cite, call upon, and summon all and every who dare venture to make any Demand on the Petitioners for the Bills issued by Caspar Felix and Son of London, for 1041. Sterling and 571. 9 s. Sterling, English, at Two and Half and Two Usances, to the Order of Daniel VonderHyde, accepted by the Petitioners, and addressed for Payment to C. A. Lorent and Am Ende, by these Presents, once, twice, three Times, also peremptory, that they at furthest on the 4th Day of March in the next following Year 1780, do appear here in the Lower Court, either personally or by Power of Attorney, and their pretended Right or Demand produce and exemplify; but, in case of Non-appearance, to expect that they, after the Expiration of the Time fixed, are not to be heard, but to be silent for ever; likewise the said Bills to be declared null and void. Thus done, under our Judicial Seal, this 29th of November, 1779.
