St. James's, April 15.

THE following Address having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Buckinghamshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Earl of Hillsborough, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Tyrone, with Hearts truly sensible of your Majesty's affectionate and paternal Attention to the Welfare and Prosperity of your faithful Subjects of Ireland, think ourselves called upon by every Motive of Gratitude to express our most sincere Thanks to your Majesty, for the great and happy Commercial Advantages which the Wisdom of your Councils, the liberal Sentiments of the British Parliament, and the generous Concurrence of the British Nation, have completed for our Relief: They must cement and strengthen that mutual Confidence with Great Britain, which it is our Wish to cultivate, and which we are convinced is inseparable from the Prosperity of both Kingdoms.

We beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty, that the Extension of Commerce, which we have lately received, conveys to us the more sensible Gratification, as it will enable us more effectually to support the Honour, maintain the Dignity, and extend the Glory of the British Empire.

Signed by James Alexander, High Sheriff,
