

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 18, to Saturday April 22, 1780.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th of April, 1780.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS since the Commencement of the War in which Great-Britain is engaged by the unprovoked Aggression of France and Spain, repeated Memorials have been presented by His Majesty's Ambassador to the States General of the United Provinces, demanding the Succours stipulated by Treaty; to which Requisition, though strongly called upon in the last Memorial of the 21st of March, Their High Mightinesses have given no Answer, nor signified any Intention of complying therewith: And whereas by the Non-Performance of the clearest Engagements, they desert the Alliance that has so long subsisted between the Crown of Great-Britain and the Republick, and place themselves in the Condition of a Neutral Power, bound to this Kingdom by no Treaty, every Principle of Wisdom and Justice requires, that His Majesty should consider them henceforward as standing only in that distant Relation in which they have placed themselves: His Majesty therefore having taken this Matter into His Royal Consideration, doth, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, judge it expedient to carry into immediate Execution those Intentions which were formally notified in the Memorial presented by His Ambassador on the 21st of March last, and previously signified in an Official Verbal Declaration, made by Lord Viscount Stormont, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to Count Welderen, Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the Republick, nearly Two Months before the Delivery of the aforesaid Memorial: For these Causes, His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth declare, That the Subjects of the United Provinces are henceforward to be considered upon the same Footing with those of other Neutral States not privileged by Treaty; and His Majesty doth hereby suspend, provisionally, and 'till further Order, all the particular Stipulations respecting the Freedom of Navigation and Commerce, in Time of War, of the Subjects of the States General, contained in the several Treaties now subsisting between His Majesty and the Republick, and more particularly those contained in the Marine Treaty between Great-Britain and the United Provinces, concluded at London, December 17, 1674.

From a humane Regard to the Interests of Individuals, and a Desire to prevent their suffering by any Surprise, His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth declare, that the Effect of this His Majesty's Order shall take Place at the following Terms, viz.

In the Channel and the North Seas, Twelve Days after the Date hereof.

From the Channel, the British Seas, and the North Seas, as far as the Canary Islands inclusively, either in the Ocean or Mediterranean, the Term shall be Six Weeks from the aforesaid Date.

Three Months from the said Canary Islands as far as the Equinoctial Line or Equator.

And lastly, Six Months beyond the said Line or Equator, and in all other Parts of the World, without any Exception or other more particular Description of Time and Place.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, April 22.

The following Addressees having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Buckinghamshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Earl of Hillsborough, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to His Majesty: Which Addressees His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty.

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Corke, at Spring Assizes, 1780, with all Humility beg Leave to express the Sentiments of a loyal and grateful Body; and at the Time when every Irish Mind looks forward to the Tide of expected commercial Benefits, let it be our Happiness to look up to the Fountain from whence those Benefits shall take their Rise, and approach the Throne with the warmest and most unfeigned Thanks.

Though our Ports were capable for all the Purposes of Trade; though our Flocks crop the rich Pasture of a Thousand Hills, and our Vales could give an Hundred Fold to the diligent Husbandman, yet, in the Midst of Nature's Bounty, the joyless and inactive Possessors felt the Iron Hand of restrictive Law, that limited the Effects of Industry to a Home-consumption, and shut out the Redundancies of the World, by an almost Prohibition from their necessary Use.

Perfectly sensible of their Situation, though your loyal Subjects could feel it without Murmuring, they cannot without an Exultation of Joy, which Words can poorly express, pour forth the Happiness of being emancipated from that State by your Royal Benevolence, which is so particularly manifested by making this Kingdom worthy of your Royal Attention, in the Midst of Troubles that have broken the Peace of so great a Part both of the New and Old World.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that, with an unabating Zeal, we are ready to risk our Lives and Fortunes for the Service of our King and Country, hoping that our most perfect filial Duty and Reverence rence will be in the same Measure acceptable as we know it is due to the Father of His People.

[Signed by Hayes Sentleger, High Sheriff; the Foreman, and rest of the Grand Jury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Grand Jury of the County of the City of Cork, assembled at Spring Assizes, 1780.

May it please your Majesty,

IN the general Joy and Gratitude expressed by all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects in this Kingdom for the great commercial Benefits which they have obtained by your Majesty's gracious Favour and Influence, we the Grand Jury of the County of the City of Cork are particularly called upon to offer our humble but warmest Acknowledgments to your Majesty for the Blessings which you have bestowed upon your People of this Kingdom, by opening to them every Source of Industry and Wealth, which their own Country, or the whole Extent of the British Empire, can supply.

Of those Blessings this City must partake in an eminent Degree; and its Citizens can never fail to look up with Reverence and Affection to that beneficent Sovereign, by whose powerful Protection they are possessed of all the Means of Abundance and Happiness.

May the common Father of his People see them all united in general Prosperity, Harmony, and Contentment.

[Signed by R. H. Hutchinson, Foreman, and the rest of the Grand Jury.]

The humble Address of the Sheriffs and Grand Jury of the City and County of Londonderry,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriffs and Grand Jury of the City and County of Londonderry, impressed with the most lively Sense of your Majesty's Paternal Regard and Attention to the Interest and Happiness of your faithful Subjects of Ireland, beg Leave to offer our most sincere and unfeigned Thanks for the unlimited Extension of Trade lately granted to this Kingdom.

The Participation of the Colony Trade we receive with Gratitude as a free Gift, equally marking the Wisdom of your Majesty and the Liberality of the British Parliament.

Experience convinces us, that our gracious Sovereign wants only to be made acquainted with the Distresses of His loyal People of Ireland, to insure their being relieved.

We rejoice with our Fellow Subjects, and with Pleasure look forward to that happy Period, when the flourishing State of this Kingdom will give such additional Strength to your Majesty's Arms, as will make Great Britain the Terror of her Enemies, and prove to them, that the Prince who reigns in the Hearts of His Subjects must ever be invincible.

We humbly trust, that we shall ever persevere in our Duty and filial Obedience to your Majesty, and therefore cannot doubt of being blessed with an uninterrupted Continuance of your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention.

Done at an Assizes held for the City and County of Londonderry, at Londonderry, the Thirtieth of March; One thousand seven hundred and eighty.

[Signed by Eneas Murray and Mossom Boyd, Sheriffs, the Foreman, and Rest of the Grand Jury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Burgesses, and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Belfast, beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

To relieve the Distresses of His Subjects is the true Glory of the Father of His People; and when Justice and Generosity are conspicuous, Gratitude cannot be silent.

Permit us, therefore, most gracious Sovereign, to express our most unfeigned Thanks, and heart-felt Satisfaction, for your Majesty's Goodness, manifested by your Concurrence with the British Parliament, in abolishing several of the principal Restrictions on our Trade, and liberally opening to us new Sources of Commerce, by admitting us to a Participation of the Trade of Great Britain.

The Adoption of these wise and salutary Measures, the Benefits of which we trust will be for ever secured to us, fills us with the most pleasing Hopes that your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland will be thereby raised from a State of Poverty and Wretchedness to a prosperous and flourishing Condition; and that Experience will convince our British Fellow-Subjects, who have given us the most unequivocal Proof of their Affection, that the true Interest of the whole British Empire will be eminently promoted by the Extension of our Commerce.

These happy Effects must powerfully tend to increase that reciprocal Confidence and Harmony, which should ever subsist unimpaired between your Majesty's Subjects of both Kingdoms, and indelibly fix in their Minds this indisputable truth, that Britain and Ireland must rise or fall together.

We trust that we shall ever persevere in demeaning ourselves to your Majesty with Duty and filial Obedience, and consequently be blessed with an uninterrupted Continuance of your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention.

Belfast, March 13, 1780.

[Signed by Samuel Black, Sovereign; the Burgesses; and Principal Inhabitants; in the Whole, 260.]

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Quarterly General Court of the Governors of this Corporation is adjourned till Thursday next, the 27th Instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon; when the said Governors are requested to attend.

Hand in Hand Fire-Office,
April 19, 1780.

THE Directors give Notice, that a General Meeting of the Members of this Society will be held at their Office in Angel-court on Snow-hill, on Thursday the 11th Day of May next, at One o'Clock at Noon.

By virtue of His MAJESTY's Royal LETTERS PATENT,

The famous Cordial CEPHALIC SNUFF,

WHICH by long Experience has been found an effectual Remedy for most Disorders of the Head, especially the common Head-ach, to which it hardly ever fails giving immediate Ease, and by frequent Use prevents its Return.

It admirably opens and purges the Head, strengthens the Nerves, revives the Spirits, and has a most grateful aromatic Smell, free from Perfume.

It also removes Drowfiness, Sleepiness, Giddiness, and Vapours, relieves Dimness of the Eyes, is excellent in curing recent Deafness, and has been of great Service in hysterick and paralytick Complaints, and in restoring the Memory when impaired by Disorders of the Head.

It is also very proper for all Persons who visit the Sick, or go into unwholesome Rooms, or unhealthy Places, and hot Climates, as it fortifies the Head against noxious Exhalations, pernicious Fumes, or infectious Air.

Those who so far comply with that Idol Fashion as to take much of the Common Snuffs, (and thereby injure both Head and Stomach) are desired to mix some of this Cephalic with what they take in common, and their bad Effects will in a great Measure be prevented.

As the great Demand for this Cephalic Snuff has occasioned some to counterfeit it, all Persons are particularly desired to take Notice, that the genuine Sort is sealed with the same Impression as on the Bill given with the Bottle, with these Words round the Seal, viz. "By the King's Patent," and on the Side of the Bottle, in the Glass, are these Words, "True Cephalic Snuff, by the King's Patent."

It is sold in London only by F. Newbery, jun. No. 45, St. Paul's Church-yard, and by Mess. Dicey, Beynon, and Co. No. 10, Bow Church-yard, London, and by Collins and Johnson, Booksellers in Salisbury, and at most of the Principal Cities and Towns in England.
