To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Monaghan, assembled at an Assizes held the 29th Day of March, 1780.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Monaghan, take this publick Opportunity of returning our most unfeigned Thanks for your Majesty's paternal Care in alleviating the Distresses of this Kingdom, so graciously manifested by the full Participation of the British Colony Trade, to which this Kingdom has lately been admitted by the liberal Policy of the British Parliament. This, we doubt not, will prove an adequate Remedy to the Poverty of this Country; and we consider it as the strongest Testimony of that cordial Affection which we shall ever expect from Great-Britain, and which it shall be our constant Study to cultivate, as far as our Influence extends, into the most perfect mutual Confidence.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Family, of which we shall at all Times be ready, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to give your Majesty the most effectual Proofs.
