WHEREAS it hath been represented to Us, that a great Number of Persons, in Consequence of Advertisements or Hand Bills inciting them thereto, did, on Friday last the Second of this Instant June, assemble in a Riotous and Tumultuous Manner in Saint George's Fields, in the County of Surry, from whence they proceeded in several Bodies to Palace-Yard, Westminster, surrounded both Houses of Parliament, and possessed themselves of the Avenues to the same, (the said Houses of Parliament being then sitting) where they continued in a Riotous and Tumultuous Manner, committing great Outrages and Violence against several of Our Subjects, and feloniously taking Money from them; after which, in the Evening of the same Day, they insulted and attacked the Houses of some of the Publick Ministers of Foreign Princes and States, residing at Our Court, and broke into, spoiled, and set Fire to Chapels, which in every civilized Country are allowed to such Publick Ministers for the free Exercise of the Religion of their Country, to the great Scandal and Offence of all truly pious and good Protestants; We therefore, in order that the Reproach of so frantick and atrocious an Outrage against the Precepts of Religion, as well as the Obligations of all Laws, may not remain a Disgrace to Our Kingdom, but may be confined to the Authors, Abettors, and Perpetrators of the said Outrage, and that they may be brought to speedy and condign Punishment, and that such dangerous and wicked Practices may hereafter be prevented, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish and declare Our Resolution to put the Laws in Force against such Offences: And We do hereby enjoin and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all other Our loving Subjects, to be aiding and assisting to the utmost of their Power in suppressing such illegal and tumultuous Assemblies, and in detecting, apprehending, and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in assembling or instigating the same, and guilty of any of the Violences above mentioned: And for the better Detection of the Persons who were concerned in the Outrages committed at the Houses of the said Publick Ministers, We are graciously pleased to promise, that if any Person shall discover any other Person or Persons who, directly or indirectly, were concerned in pulling down, or beginning to pull down, or in setting Fire to the Chapel of any Publick Minister, so as that the Person or Persons discovered may be prosecuted for the same, such Discoverer shall have and receive, as a Reward, upon Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, the Sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and also Our Gracious Pardon for the said Offence, in case the Person making such Discovery shall himself be liable to be prosecuted for the same, except the Person who first broke into, or began to pull down or set Fire to the said Chapels.

And the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Treasurer of Our Exchequer, are hereby required to make Payment of the said Rewards accordingly.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Fifth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and eighty, in the Twentieth Year of Our Reign.

WHEREAS a great Number of disorderly Persons have assembled themselves together in a Riotous and Tumultuous Manner, and have been guilty of many Acts of Treason and Rebellion, having made an Assault on the Gaol of Newgate, set loose the Prisoners confined therein, and set Fire to and destroyed the said Prison: And whereas Houses are now pulling down in several Parts of Our Cities of London and Westminster, and Liberties thereof, and Fires kindled for consuming the Materials and Furniture of the same, whereby it is become absolutely necessary to use the most effectual Means to quiet such Disturbances, to preserve the Lives and Properties of Individuals, and to restore the Peace of the Country: We therefore, taking the same into Our most serious Consideration, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby strictly charging and exhorting all Our loving Subjects to preserve the Peace, and to keep themselves, their Servants and Apprentices, quietly within their respective Dwellings, to the End that all well-disposed Persons may avoid those Mischiefs which the Continuance of such riotous Proceedings may bring upon the Guilty: And as it is necessary, from the Circumstances before-mentioned, to employ the Military Force, with which We are by Law entrusted, for the immediate Suppression of such Rebellious and Traiterous Attempts, now making against the Peace and Dignity of Our Crown, and the Safety of the Lives and Properties of Our Subjects, We have therefore issued the most direct and effectual Orders to all Our Officers, by an immediate Exertion of their utmost Force, to repress the same; of which all Persons are to take Notice.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Seventh Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and eighty, in the Twentieth Year of Our Reign.

Whereas a great Number of disorderly Persons have for several Days past assembled themselves together, in a Riotous and Tumultuous Manner, and have been guilty of many Acts of Treason, Rebellion, and Felony, having formed Designs to break break open and destroy the Gaols and Prisons, and to set loose the Prisoners confined therein, and having actually broke into and set on Fire the Gaol of Newgate, the King's Bench Prison, and the Prison of the Fleet, and released the Prisoners, and made Attempts on other Gaols and Prisons in and about this Metropolis; and having set Fire to and pulled down the Dwelling-houses of divers of Our peaceable Subjects, and also set Fire to, burnt and destroyed the Materials thereof, and the Furniture and other Effects found therein; and also taken Money from divers of Our Subjects: We therefore, taking the same into Our most serious Consideration, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish and declare Our Resolution, That the Authors, Abettors, and Perpetrators of the said Offences be prosecuted as expeditiously as may be, according to the due Course of Law; and we do hereby enjoin and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all other Our loving Subjects, to be aiding and assisting to the utmost of their Power, in detecting, apprehending and bringing to Justice the said Offenders. And We are graciously pleased to promise, that if any Person shall discover any other Person or Persons who are guilty of any of the said Offences, so as that the Person or Persons discovered may be prosecuted for the same, such Discoverer shall have and receive, as a Reward, upon Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, the Sum of FIFTY POUNDS, and also Our Gracious Pardon for the said Offence, in Case the Person making such Discovery shall himself be liable to be prosecuted for the same; and the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Treasurer of Our Exchequer are hereby required to make Payment accordingly of the said Rewards.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Ninth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and eighty, in the Twentieth Year of Our Reign.

By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION.
GEORGE R.

WHEREAS Information has been received, that the late Riots and Tumults in and about this Metropolis were encouraged and abetted by Money, or other Rewards, given, or promised to be given, to the Persons concerned therein; and also Bells, Flags, and other Signals and Devices, were used during the said Riots and Tumults, to direct the Rioters in their Criminal Acts and Proceedings, and to give Notice of Attempts or Preparations to suppress, resist, or interrupt the same: We therefore, taking the same into Our most serious Consideration, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, in order to detect and bring to Justice the Persons guilty of any of the Criminal Acts above mentioned, are graciously pleased to promise, That if any Person shall discover any other Person or Persons, who by themselves, or their Agents, gave or offered, or promised to give, any Money, or other Reward, to any Person or Persons, to engage or continue in the said Riots or Tumults, or to do or assist in any of the Criminal Acts committed during the Continuance of the said Riots and Tumults, or who made use of any Bells, Flags, or other Signals or Devices, to direct the Rioters in any of their Criminal Acts and Proceedings, or to give Notice of Attempts or Preparations to suppress, resist, or interrupt the same, so as that the Person or Persons discovered may be prosecuted, such Discoverer shall have and receive as a Reward, upon Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, the Sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS; and the Commissioners for executing the Office of Treasurer of Our Exchequer are hereby required to make Payment thereof accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st of June, 1780,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 25th Day of October, 1776, to promise and declare, That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st of December then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 8th Day of November, 1776, to promise and declare, That a Reward of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might secrete themselves, that so such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the 31st Day of December, 1776: And whereas His Majesty was likewise pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 15th Day of August, 1777, to promise and declare, That every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should voluntarily enter himself to serve on Board any of His Majesty's Ships, on or before the 31st Day of October then next, should receive, as of His Majesty's Royal Bounty, the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, to be paid in Manner thereby directed: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations, for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, hath been prolonged and extended to the 30th Day of this instant June; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Rewards should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy-Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards be prolonged and extended from the said 30th Day of this instant June to the 30th Day of September next, inclusive.—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

St. James's, July 1.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, has been presented to His Majesty by John Buller, Esq;

Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Borough of Launceston, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter,
in Chamber assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, presume to approach the Throne, to express our Concern and Indignation at the late enormous Outrages and Acts of Violence, which have been committed in the Metropolis by a lawless and tumultuous Mob; and to render our Tribute of Thanks to your Majesty, for the Vigilance and Attention your Majesty has graciously shewn in suppressing those Disturbances, which threatened Anarchy and Confusion throughout the Kingdom.

We beg Leave, at this Time, to assure your Majesty of our most sincere and steady Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government; and that we will faithfully exert our utmost Endeavours, both as Magistrates and private Members of Society, to preserve that Peace and good Order which have hitherto prevailed in this City, and to resist every Attempt against the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the happy Constitution of our Country.

May it please your Majesty to accept our warmest Congratulations on the great Success with which it has pleased Divine Providence to bless your Majesty's Arms, by the Reduction of Charles Town, and the Capture of the Provincial Army assembled for its Defence. May this great and important Event, wherein the superior Skill and Bravery of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land have been eminently distinguished, incline your Majesty's deluded Subjects in America to give up the present unhappy Contest, and at last convince them, that their Security, Prosperity, and Happiness, must ultimately depend on a permanent Reconciliation with this Country.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said City, this 20th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1780.

The following Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum has been presented to His Majesty by Edward Easton, Esq; Mayor of the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person and congratulate your Majesty upon the signal Success which it has pleased God to afford your Arms, in the Reduction of the important Fortress of Charles Town; most humbly hoping that the Event will be the Means of reconciling the unhappy and rebellious Provinces in America to their ancient and original Obedience, and of once more uniting, in the pleasing Bonds of Harmony and Peace, two Countries, both of which have too long severely experienced the Miseries and Misfortunes of domestic War, and also of establishing the Enjoyment of Trade and Tranquility with those distant Parts of your Majesty's Dominions.

Permit us, Sire! at this Time, in the most dutiful Manner, to express our Abhorrence and Detestation of the wicked and rebellious Actions of such of your Majesty's deluded and insatuated Subjects, who have lately disturbed the Peace and Quiet of your Majesty's Cities of London and Westminster, and in those and other Places committed the most daring and outrageous Offences, in Contempt of your Majesty's Authority, and in Defiance of the just and salutary Laws of your Kingdom.

As your Majesty has taken the wisest and most effectual Measures for discovering these great Offenders, we hope and trust that they, together with the Authors, Contrivers and Abettors of such horrible Mischief, will soon be brought to condign Punishment; hereby assuring your Majesty, that we, on our Parts, shall cheerfully do our utmost to suppress and discountenance all Riots and tumultuous Assemblies, and whatever else tends to the Annoyance of your Majesty's Subjects; and, with true Loyalty, do our utmost Endeavours to make your Majesty's Reign happy, glorious, and easy to yourself.

Done, under our Common Seal, at the Council Chamber of the said City, the Twenty-sixth Day of June, in the Twentieth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir George Robinson, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

AT a Time when this Kingdom has been so dreadfully alarmed with the unprecedented and dangerous Riots which have prevailed in the Metropolis, permit, most gracious Sovereign, your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, humbly to approach your Throne with Hearts full of Gratitude, Affection, and Loyalty. Conscious of the Blessings we enjoy under the present happy Constitution in Church and State, we rejoice in the speedy Termination of Disorders, which threatened the total Subversion of every Thing that was most dear to us; and we beg Leave to offer, gracious Sovereign, our unfeigned Acknowledgments for the wise Measures which have been pursued by your Majesty for putting a Stop to those alarming Insurrections, and for the Steps which are now taking to bring to condign Punishment the infamous Authors and Abettors of them.

We cannot leave your Royal Presence, without expressing, in the strongest Terms, the high Satisfaction we feel on the late important Advantages which have been obtained by your Majesty's Arms both by Sea and Land; heartily wishing and ardently praying, that they may be productive of the happiest Effects, and speedily procure to these Kingdoms the inestimable Blessing of a safe, an honourable, and a lasting Peace.

EXTRACT of a Letter from Admiral Sir George Brydges Rodney, Bart. to John Laforey, Esq; Commissioner of His Majesty's Navy at Antigua, dated on Board the Sandwich, at Sea, St. Lucia W. by N. about Ten Leagues, May 16, 1780, and transmitted by the Commissioner to Mr. Stephens, in a Letter dated the 19th.

S I R,

I HAVE been this Instant favoured with your Two Letters of the 9th of this Month, which found me about Ten Leagues to Windward of St. Lucia, turning after the Enemy's Fleet, in order to bring them to Battle. I sailed from Gros Islet in Quest of it so long ago as Saturday was Se'nnight, and have been in Sight of them for this Week past. We have been several Times so near that an Engagement seemed inevitable; but they have, by the Advantage of their Windward Station, and the Superiority of the Sailing of their Ships, been able to avoid it till last Night, when the Van of our and the Rear of their Fleet came to an Action, as they passed on different Tacks.

Had not the Wind fallen off several Points after I tacked, the last Manœuvre I made had given me the Wind of them, without which I find it will be impossible to effect it.

The Albion, (the leading Ship) from having several Ships upon her, has had a good many Men killed and wounded, but is not otherwise materially hurt; no more than Admiral Rowley, nor the Three or Four Ships of his Division which were engaged. Several of the Enemy's Ships were so roughly handled, that they have taken themselves considerably to Windward, and are now at a Distance on our Weather Bow.

St. James's, July 1.

The King has been pleased to approve and confirm the Election of Richard Stanley, of the Inner Temple, London, Esq; to be Recorder of the Borough of Hertford, in the Room of Paul Fielder, Esq; who has resigned.

Naples, June 6. By Accounts from Sicily we learn, that, on the 19th of last Month, Mount Aetna began to discharge a Lava from a new Mouth within three or four Miles from it's Crater. The Lava had divided into three Branches, the largest of which was about a Quarter of a Mile in Breadth, and had run about fourteen Miles, and destroyed a fine Wood and two Villages. As it's Direction was towards Catania, (from which it is only about twelve Miles distant,) and as it advanced a Mile in 24 Hours, the Inhabitants of that City, so often destroyed by Eruptions of Aetna, begin to be alarmed. The Earthquakes had not ceased, which makes it probable that the Eruption of Mount Aetna will be still more considerable. The Inhabitants of Messina have been forced to quit the Town, and encamp in its Neighbourhood.

Vienna, June 14. By a Courier from Mohilow we learn, that his Imperial Majesty arrived there in perfect Health several Days sooner than he had calculated; and that the Empress of Russia had likewise arrived at Mohilow on the 4th Instant.

St. James's, June 27, 1780.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that Four Promissory Notes for Five Pounds each, purporting to be the Notes of the Sunderland Bank, have lately been presented for Payment at the said Bank, which Notes appear to have been forged by some Person or Persons unknown:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the said Forgery, or offering the said Notes in Payment, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (the actual Forger or Forgers excepted) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

St. James's, June 27, 1780.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That in the Morning of Tuesday the 20th Instant an anonymous Threatening Letter was found upon a Bench in the Market-Place adjoining to the House of John Everitt, Esq; at Hitchin in Hertfordshire, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

Mr. Everitt

This is to inform you, that if you intend (as I have heard you do) to prosecute any one for breakeing your Windows that not only your Windows but your House shall be totally Demolished within a few Days of the Prosecution.

S T O R M O N T.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the said John Everitt, Esq; doth hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted) to be paid by him, at his House in Hitchin aforesaid, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

General Post-Office, June 27, 1780.

THE Post-Boy bringing the Mail from Stevenage to Welwyn Yesterday Evening, the 26th Instant, was robbed of the Mail, containing the Bags with the Letters from Biggleswade, Hitchin, and Stevenage, for London, by a Footpad, about a Mile from Welwyn.

He is described to be about Five Feet Six Inches high, dressed in a brown-coloured Coat, light coloured Waistcoat, Breeches and Stockings, wore his own dark coloured Hair straight, and a round Hat, and is supposed to have come to London immediately.

Whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be entitled to a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending Highwaymen; or if any Person, whether an Accomplice in the Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person who committed the same may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of the Party, be entitled to the same Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, and will also receive His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

Dr. ANDERSON's, or The Famous SCOTS PILLS;

ARE faithfully prepared only by JAMES INGLISH, Son of DAVID INGLISH, deceased, at the Unicorn, over-against the New Church in the Strand, London; and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland, as well as in and about London, you are desired to take Notice, That the true Pills have their Boxes sealed on the Top (in Black Wax) with a Lyon Rampant, and Three Mulletts Argent, Dr. Anderson's Head betwixt I. I. with his Name round it, and Isabella Inghish underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Use in all Cases where Purging is necessary, and may be taken with Epfom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

THE Trustees of the Estate and Effects of Bartholomew Noot, late of the Town and County of Haverfordwest, Shopkeeper, deceased, intend making a Final Dividend of the Effects of said Bartholomew Noot, at the House of Mess. Were and Bush, High-street, Bristol, on Tuesday the 1st. of August next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon; when and where such Creditors, who have not already executed the Deed of Trust, are desired to send an Account to said Were and Bush of their respective Demands, with due Proof of the same by Affidavit or Affirmation, before the above Day, or they will be excluded the Benefit of such Dividend.

AT a Time when FEVERS and COLDS, attended with ASORE THROATS, particularly of the Putrid or Malignant Kind, are so very frequent, and prove fatal to such Numbers, it is much to be lamented that

Dr. NORRIS'S DROPS, an almost infallible Remedy for these reigning Disorders in particular, and Fevers in general, should ever be neglected to be given. They are innocent as Milk, and operate in the most gentle, easy Manner, and with a little Perseverance in taking them, will restore Health almost imperceptibly; which is well known to many of the Faculty in the first Practice, as well as the great Numbers who have happily experienced their Efficacy, and found Relief, after all other Means had been tried without Success, as may be seen in the Essay on their Virtues.

With Letters and Certificates of the many extraordinary Cures they have done;

Which is given gratis where the Drops are sold, and earnestly recommended to the Perusal of the Public in general, but more especially to every one who may be inclined to take these Drops, and have the least Doubt of their Sovereign Efficacy.

Mr. Sawier, a Gentleman of Bristol, in a Letter to the Printer, published in the Gazette, in Recommendation of these Drops, after several Years Experience of their surprising Efficacy, and before he even knew Dr. Norris; declares them "The greatest Medical Blessing the World ever received."

The same Gentleman, in a Letter to Dr. Norris, on the Virtues and Efficacy of these Drops for Fevers, says, that in the Course of more than Seven Years, not one Instance came to his Knowledge of a Patient doing otherwise than well, who made a fair Trial of them.

They are sold at Dr. Norris's, in New Bridge-street, Blackfriars; and, by his Appointment, by Messrs. Fielding and Walker, Pater-noster-row; Mr. Ker, at the Carolina Coffee-house, Birch-in-lane; Mr. Davenhill, No. 13, Cornhill; Mr. Kearsly, No. 46, Fleet-street; Messrs.
