St. James's, August 12.

THE following Address of the Liverymen, Freeman, and others, Inhabitants of the City of London, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Wellings, Gabriel Leekey, Thomas Moore, Thomas Browne, William Gill, Thomas Itherwood, William Watlington, George Friend, John Clements, Robert Sowerby, William White, and John Jones, Esqrs. being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously; and they had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Liverymen, Freeman, and Others, Inhabitants of the City of London, whose Names are hereunto subscribed, with sentiments full of Duty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Family, humbly beg Leave to express our most grateful Thanks for that Protection, which, by the Wisdom, Vigilance, and Activity of your Majesty in Council, was so seasonably given to us, at a Time when our Lives, Property, and every Thing dear to us, were in such imminent Danger, from the Violence of the most outrageous Banditti that ever existed.

We are sensible, from your Majesty's tender and paternal Regard for your People, that it has ever been your fixed Determination to make the Law of the Land the Rule of your Government; and have the most lively Sense of your Majesty's Tenderness and Compassion, which have been exercised with such Temper and Moderation, in the Execution of those Laws, at a Time when the Heinousness of the Offences, which had been committed, might have justified the greatest Rigour.

Convinced of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that the strictest Attention shall be paid by us to the Laws of our Country; and that we will exert ourselves, on every Occasion, in guarding the Peace of this City against future Disturbances.
