AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th Day of August, 1780,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 25th Day of October, 1776, an Embargo was laid on all Ships and Vessels laden or to be laden in any Ports of the Kingdom of Ireland with Black Cattle and Hogs, Beef, Pork, Butter, and Cheese, or any Sort of Provisions, (except Fish, Corn or Grain of any Kind, or Pulse) which Embargo hath in many Respects been taken off under certain Restrictions: And whereas it is thought proper that the said recited Order of the 25th Day of October 1776, be no longer continued; but nevertheless it is requisite for the Public Safety, in the present Critical Conjunction of Affairs, to prevent the Exportation of Provisions from the said Kingdom of Ireland: It is therefore hereby ordered by His Majesty in Council, that an Embargo be forthwith laid upon all Ships and Vessels laden or to be laden in the Ports of the Kingdom of Ireland with Black Cattle and Hogs, Beef, Pork, Butter, and Cheese, or any Sort of Provisions, (except Fish, Corn or Grain of any Kind, or Pulse) and that the said Embargo do continue and remain upon such Ships and Vessels till further Order; But it is His Majesty's Pleasure that the said Embargo shall not extend to any Ships or Vessels bringing Cattle of any Kind, Salted Beef, Pork, Bacon, and Butter from Ireland into this Kingdom, pursuant to a Liberty granted for that Purpose by an Act passed in the Sixteenth Year of His Majesty's Reign; nor to any Ships or Vessels carrying Provisions to any Town, Port, or Place within the Colonies of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, the Three Lower Counties on Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia, in pursuance of an Act made in the last Sessions of Parliament, intitled, "An Act to allow the Exportation of Provisions, Goods, Wares and Merchandize from Great Britain to certain Towns, Ports or Places in North America, which are or may be under the Protection of His Majesty's Arms, and from such Towns, Ports or Places to Great Britain and other Parts of His Majesty's Dominions." And it is also His Majesty's Pleasure, that the said Embargo shall not extend to any Ships or Vessels carrying Provisions to any other of His Majesty's Colonies in North America, or to any of His Majesty's West-India Islands, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or the Island of St. Helena; provided that the Owners of such Ships or Vessels, or, in Case they shall not be personally present, the Owners or Shippers of the Provisions, do make Oath on the Entry thereof of the due Destination of the same to the Port for which they shall be so entered and cleared out as aforesaid; and do give Security, by Bond, to the proper Officers of the Customs, at the Port at which such Vessel shall enter and clear out, with Two able and sufficient Sureties, to be approved of by the Principal Officers of His Majesty's Customs there, in Treble the Value of such Provisions, for such Ship or Vessel proceeding to and delivering such Provisions at such Port for which such Provisions shall be entered and cleared out, and to produce within Eighteen Months from the Date of such Bond, from the proper Officers of the Customs of such Port, Certificates of such Provisions having been there delivered. And it is also His Majesty's Pleasure, that the said Embargo shall not extend to any Ships or Vessels carrying Provisions to any of the Ports of Europe, (except the Ports belonging to France or Spain) or Coastwise to any Port of the Kingdom of Ireland; provided that the Owners of such Ships or Vessels, or, in Case they shall not be personally present, the Owners or Shippers of such Provisions, do make Oath on the Entry thereof, of the due Destination of the same, to the Port for which they shall be entered and cleared out, and do give Security, by Bond, to the proper Officers of the Customs, at the Port at which such Vessel shall enter and clear out, with Two able and sufficient Sureties, to be approved of by the principal Officers of His Majesty's Customs there, in Treble the Value of such Provisions, that the same shall be landed at the Port for which such Provisions shall be entered and cleared out; and to produce, within Twelve Months from the Date of the Bonds, Certificates from the proper Officers of the Customs at such Port, of such Provisions having been there delivered: And His Majesty is further pleased to order, that the said Embargo shall not extend to any Ship or Vessel actually retained in His Majesty's Service, nor to any Ship or Vessel which shall be laden by the especial Order and under the Directions of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, with any Kind of Provisions for the Use of His Majesty's Fleets or Armies. And the Officers of the Customs are hereby required to transmit to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue, the Certificates hereby directed, who are to examine into the due Delivery of the said Provisions, at the Port for which the same were entered and cleared out, before the Bonds or Securities be delivered up: And on Failure of such Certificates being produced within the respective Times hereinbefore limited, the said Commissioners are to transmit exact Accounts thereof to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in order to be laid before this Board.—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, are to give the necessary Directions for carrying this Order into Execution, as far as to them shall respectively appertain.
