St. James's, November 18.

THE following Address of the Archbishop, Bishops, and Clergy, of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation assembled, has been presented to His Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbishop, Bishops, and Clergy, of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, and, with the deepest Sense of Gratitude for the Protection we continue to enjoy under your Majesty's Reign, to offer our unfeigned Congratulations on the further Security of your Majesty's illustrious House by the Birth of another Prince, and on the happy Recovery of our gracious Queen, the Patroness of Religion and Virtue.

We are, on this Occasion, particularly obliged to acknowledge and admire a late Instance of your Majesty's Attention to the Interests of Christianity, in your Royal Munificence to the pious Designs of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, erected by a Charter from your glorious Predecessor King William, and now restored to its former Activity by the liberal Contributions of your Subjects, encouraged by your Majesty's Example.

Amidst all the Protection and Favour we derive from the Goodness of your Majesty's Heart, we lament the Necessity of confessing, that the Licentiousness of the Times continues to counteract your Paternal Care for the State of National Religion. Bad Men and bad Books are the Produce of all Times; but we observe, with particular Regret, that the Wickedness of the Age hath of late been directly pointed at the Fences of Piety and Virtue, established by God himself, and apparently secured by Law.

The open Violation of the Lord's Day, and the Invitations of Men to desert the religious Duties of that Day for Amusements, frivolous at best, appears to call for the Aid of the Civil Magistrate, to check the Progress of an Evil so dangerous both to Church and State, by suppressing on the Lord's-Day Places of Resort for Pleasure, where the Interposition of the Ministers of Religion is impracticable. We humbly assure your Majesty, that, so far as any Exertion of ours can reach, we shall not fail to admonish and rebuke, both by Word and Example.

We have the comfortable Hope, Sir, that it will appear to your Majesty, that Popery is less prevalent than it has been in this Part of your Dominions. We are too zealously attached to Protestantism not to oppose the Errors of the Church of Rome, as well in controversial Attacks, as in the more successful Way of teaching the Doctrines of our Apostolical Church; adhering, at the same Time, invariably to the Principles of the Reformation, which direct us to oppose Error of every Kind by Argument and Persuasion, and to disavow all Violence in the Cause of Religion.

May Almighty God, who, for our Sins, hath permitted your Majesty to be involved in a War, just, indeed, and necessary, but in its own Nature productive of much Calamity, bless your Majesty's Efforts with decisive Success.

It becomes us, as Ministers of the Gospel, to praise God for every Victory which has a Tendency to the Blessings of Peace; and whenever it shall please His infinite Wisdom to restore them to this Nation, we shall further beseech Him to grant to your Majesty the full Enjoyment of those Blessings for many Years, in the Prosperity and unanimous Loyalty of your Subjects.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most Gracious Answer:

My-Lords, and the Rest of the Clergy,

I Thank you for your Congratulations on the Increase of My Family, and the happy Recovery of the Queen.

I bear with Pleasure the Zeal you express for the Interests of Our Holy Religion; and I shall continue to make it My constant Endeavour to support them, upon the Principles of the Reformation, against the Incroachments of Licentiousness or Superstition.

Trusting to the Justice of My Cause, I rely on the Continuance of the Blessings of Providence on My Endeavours to restore to My People a safe and honorable Peace.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 15th of November, 1780,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 18th of August last, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire on the 23d of this instant November: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, except in those Cases where (for the Benefit and Advantage of Trade, and for the Use and Defence of Ships trading to Foreign Parts,

AT the Court at St. James's the 27th Day of September, 1780.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 25th Day of October, 1776, to promise and declare, That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st of December then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 8th Day of November, 1776, to promise and declare, That a Reward of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might secrete themselves, that so such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the 31st Day of December, 1776: And whereas His Majesty was likewise pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 15th Day of August, 1777, to promise and declare, That every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should voluntarily enter himself to serve on Board any of His Majesty's Ships, on or before the 31st Day of October then next, should receive, as of His Majesty's Royal Bounty, the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, to be paid in Manner thereby directed: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations, for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, hath been prolonged and extended to the 30th Day of this instant September; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Rewards should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards be prolonged and extended from the said 30th Day of this instant September to the 31st Day of December next, inclusive.—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Admiralty-Office, November 16, 1780.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That on the 6th of this Month the Brigantine Recovery, of Lynn, of which John Howard was Master, bound from Dublin to London, laden with Butter, Beef, and Suet, was wrecked on Hayle Sands, in the Parish of Uny Lelant.

Pb. Stephens.

St. James's, November 18, 1780.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Sunday the 15th Day of October last, the Dwelling-house of Mr. Thomas Dickins, Innholder, at Rainham in the County of Norfolk, was forcibly entered by about Fourteen Men, supposed to be Smugglers, who broke open every Door therein which they found locked, and swore they would take whatever Money they could find in the House, and that they would murder the said Mr. Dickins, whom they searched for with that Intent, but not meeting with him, they departed, swearing that they would murder him the first Opportunity:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in entering the said House, breaking open the Doors, and the other during and outrageous Proceedings above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any one of them, who will discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a farther Encouragement, His Majesty is hereby pleased to offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, any one or more of the Persons concerned in the Offences above-mentioned, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury upon the Conviction of any one or more of the said Offenders.

HILLSBOROUGH.
