The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 18, to Tuesday November 21, 1780.

At the Court at St. James's, the 15th of November, 1780.

P R E S E N T.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council
WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 18th of August last, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire on the 23d of this instant November: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, except in those Cases where (for the Benefit and Advantage of Trade, and for the Use and Defence of Ships trading to Foreign Parts, and of the Transports and Victualling Vessels employed in His Majesty's Service) His Majesty, by His several Orders in Council of the 13th and 27th of October, and of the 6th and 22d of November, 1775, of the 5th and 19th of February, and the 23d of August and 25th of September, 1776; of the 16th of April, the 13th of August, and the 3d and 10th of October, 1777, of the 19th of June, the 7th, and 26th of August, and the 10th of September, 1778, and of the 17th of May last, has thought proper to permit and allow the Exportation of, and carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Saltpetre, Arms and Ammunition, under certain Conditions and Restrictions mentioned in the said Orders: His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master-General, Lieutenant-General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance, for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Three Months, to commence from the said 23d Day of this instant November, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, except in the Cases comprized within the aforementioned Orders in Council, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the 19th Year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Saltpetre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Saltpetre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." — And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Commission signed by His Majesty for the Army in Ireland.

66th Regiment of Foot, Captain Henry Roper, of the 30th, to be Major, vice Theodore Hultaine. Dated October 16, 1780.

St. James's, November 18, 1780.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Sunday the 15th Day of October last, the Dwelling-house of Mr. Thomas Dickins, Innholder, at Rainham in the County of Norfolk, was forcibly entered by about Fourteen Men, supposed to be Smugglers, who broke open every Door therein which they found locked, and swore they would take whatever Money they could find in the House, and that they would murder the said Mr. Dickins, whom they searched for with that Intent; but not meeting with him, they departed, swearing that they would murder him the first Opportunity:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in entering the said House, breaking open the Doors, and the other daring and outrageous Proceedings above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any one of them, who will discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a farther Encouragement, His Majesty is hereby pleased to offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, any one or more of the Persons concerned in the Offences above-mentioned, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury upon the Conviction of any one or more of the said Offenders.

HILLSBOROUGH.

St. James's, November 18, 1780.
