Whitehall, February 20, 1781.

Extract of a Letter from Sir Henry Clinton to Lord George Germain, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, received this Morning by Lieutenant Sir William Tawfden, who arrived in the Grantham Packet, which sailed from Sandy-Hook the 29th of last Month.

ON the 3d Instant it was reported to me, that on the 1st the Pennsylvania Line had revolted. The Particulars, as far as I have been able to ascertain them, and the Steps I took in consequence, are contained in the Journal, which I have the Honour to inclose. My Offers reached them on the 6th, together with a Declaration of the Admiral's and mine, as Commissioners. They admitted Two of their Generals to a Conference on the 7th: Their Demands were Pay, Arrears of Pay, the Depreciation of Money made up to them according to the different Periods, and their Discharges from further Service. I had no Reason to suppose they intended joining us; nor was it possible to say what Measures they meant to pursue, until they removed at a Distance from us, and delivered over Two of our Messengers to Congress. On the 5th, notwithstanding the Season was so far advanced, I made a Movement with the Elite of the Army to Staten Island, in which Situation, with the Assistance given me by the Vice-Admiral of a Ship of War, and a Number of Boats, to co-operate with the Army, I was ready to act as Circumstances might make necessary; but until I had some certain Information respecting their Intentions or Wishes, it would have been very imprudent for me to have done any thing more than favor the Revolt, and offer Asylum, for one Step further might have re-united them to their Oppressors. On the 17th I received, by the Return of Two of my Messengers, the inclosed printed Papers, by which I plainly saw that there was an Appearance of Accommodation. I therefore returned from Staten Island; and the General Officer I left in the Command there reporting to me that the Troops suffered much from the Inclemency of the Weather, and that their State in Fact might be termed a continual Picquet, I ordered them to return to their Huts on Long Island.

It is impossible at present to say in what Manner, or how soon, this Business will be settled; 'tis generally thought that Congress cannot satisfy the Demands of the Revolters, and it is probable, therefore, they may attempt to force them; if they do, those People can still fall back upon us, as there is no Force in Jersey to prevent them, nor any Rivers to pass but that at South Amboy, which our Ships can command.

General Washington has not moved a Man from his Army as yet; and as it is probable their Demands are nearly the same with the Pennsylvania Line, 'tis not thought likely that he will. I am, however, in a Situation to avail myself of favorable Events, but to stir before they offer might mar all.

I have received no certain Intelligence from the Southward since my last, but I make no Doubt that General Leslie has joined Lord Cornwallis, and I expect every Hour to hear that the Rebels have quitted the Carolinas: More especially as Brigadier-General Arnold arrived in the Chesapeake on the 2d. Rebel Reports say he has reached Richmond, the Capital of Virginia.

There is every Reason to suppose that Ethan Allen has quitted the Rebel Cause.

Lieutenant Sir William Tawfden, of the Royal Fusileers, who has requested my Permission to return to Europe on his own private Affairs, will have the Honor of delivering my Dispatches. I beg Leave to refer your Lordship to him for further Particulars, particularly with Regard to the Operations to the Southward.

No. 1. JOURNAL.

On the 1st of January, 1781, the Pennsylvania Troops huddled at Morris Town, having been for some Time much dissatisfied, turned out, in Number about 1300, declaring they would serve no longer unless their Grievances were redressed, as they had not received either Pay, Cloathing or Provisions: A Riot ensued, in which an Officer was killed, and Four wounded; the Insurgents had Five or Six wounded.

They then collected the Artillery, Stores, Provisions, Waggon, &c. marched out of Camp, and passed by General Wayne's Quarters, who sent a Message to them, requesting them to desist, or the Consequences would prove fatal; they refused, and proceeded on their March till Evening, when they took Post on an advantageous Piece of Ground, and elected Officers from among themselves, appointing a Serjeant-Major, who was a British Deserter, to command them, with the Rank of Major-General.

On the 2d they marched to Middlebrook, and on the 3d to Prince Town.

On the 2d a Message was sent them, by the Officers from Camp, desiring to know their Intentions, which they refused to receive. A Flag of Truce was then sent; to which some answered, that they had served Three Years against their Inclinations, and would serve no longer; others said, they would not return, unless their Grievances were redressed.

The first Information the Commander in Chief received of this was on the Morning of the 3d of January, in consequence of which a large Corps was ordered to hold themselves in Readiness to move on the shortest Notice.

On the 4th, Three Persons were sent out from hence to them, with Proposals to the following Purport: "To be taken under the Protection of the British Government, to have a Free Pardon for all former Offences, and the Pay due to them from Congress faithfully paid to them, without any Expectation of Military Service, (except it might be voluntary) upon Condition of laying down their Arms, and returning to their Allegiance." It was also recommended to them to move behind the South River; and they were assured a Body of British Troops should be ready to protect them whenever they desired it. The Inability of Congress to satisfy their just Demands, as well as the Severity with which they would be treated, should they return to their former Servitude, was pointed out to them. They were desired to send Persons to Amboy, to meet others from us, in order to treat further.

The Corps ordered to be in Readiness passed over to Staten Island the 5th, where they were cantoned in Readiness to move.

The Insurgents having taken Post at Prince Town, frequent Messages and Proposals to the same Effect were sent out; but the Militia of Jersey having been assembled soon after the Meeting, they kept so strict Watch on the Coast, and on the Roads leading to Prince Prince Town, that the utmost Difficulty attended communicating with them, or receiving Intelligence.

The Insurgents remained at Prince Town until the 9th, during which Time Proposals, N^o 2. were printed and distributed among them, and a Committee of Congress sent to treat with them, of which General Sullivan, Mr. Mathews, Mr. Atlee, and Dr. Witherspoon were Members.

On the 9th they moved to Trenton, and on the 10th gave the Answer, N^o 3. from their Board, composed of Serjeants, By the last Account they still remain at Trenton; and, although Congress have discharged some of them, they still refuse to quit the Town until the Whole are settled with for all their Demands.

The Name of the Insurgent who commands them is Williams.

N^o 2. Proposals made to the Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers of the Pennsylvania Line at Princeton, January 7, 1781.

HIS Excellency Jos. Read, Esq; President, and the Honourable Brigadier-General Potter, of the Council of Pennsylvania, having heard the Complaints of the Soldiers, as represented by the Serjeants, inform them, that they are fully authorized to redress reasonable Grievances, and they have the fullest Disposition to make them as easy as possible; for which End they propose,

1. That no Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier shall be detained beyond the Time for which he freely and voluntarily engaged; but where they appear to have been in any respect compelled to enter or sign, such Enlistment to be deemed void, and the Soldier discharged.

2. To settle who are and who are not bound to stay, Three Persons to be appointed by the President and the Council, who are to examine into the Terms of Enlistment; where the original Enlistments cannot be found, the Soldier's Oath to be admitted to prove the Time and Terms of Enlistment, and the Soldier to be discharged upon his Oath of the Condition of the Enlistment.

3. Where ever any Soldier has enlisted for Three Years, or during the War, he is to be discharged, unless he shall appear afterwards to have re enlisted voluntarily and freely. The Gratuity of 100 Dollars given by Congress not to be reckoned as a Bounty, or any Men detained in Consequence of that Gratuity. The Commissioners to be appointed by the President and Council to adjust any Difficulties which may arise on this Article also.

4. The Auditors to attend as soon as possible to settle the Depreciation with the Soldiers, and give them Certificates. Their Arrearages of Pay to be made up as soon as Circumstances will admit.

5. A Pair of Shoes, Overalls, and Shirt, will be delivered to each Soldier in a few Days, as they are already purchased and ready to be sent forward whenever the Line shall be settled. Those who are discharged to receive the above Articles at Trenton, producing the General's Discharge.

The Governor hopes that no Soldier of the Pennsylvania Line, will break his Bargain, or go from the Contract made with the Public, and they may depend upon it, that the utmost Care will be taken to furnish them with every Necessary fitting for a Soldier. The Governor will recommend to the State to take some favourable Notice of those who engaged for the War.

The Commissioners will attend at Trenton, where the Clothing and the Stores will be immediately brought, and the Regiments to be settled with in their Order. A Field Officer of each Regiment to attend during the Settlement of his Regiment.

Pursuant to General Wayne's Orders of the 2d Instant, no Man to be brought to any Trial or Censure for what has happened on or since New Year's Day, but all Matters to buried in Oblivion.

Jos. Read.
Ja. Potter.

N^o 3. Trenton, January 10, 1781.

HIS Excellency's Proposals being communicated to the different Regiments at Troop Beating this Morning, January 8, 1781.

They do voluntarily agree in Conjunction, that all the Soldiers that were enlisted for the Term of Three Years, or during the War, excepting those whose Terms of Enlistment are not expired, ought to be discharged immediately, with as little Delay as Circumstances will allow, except such Soldiers who have voluntarily re-enlisted. In Case that any Soldier should dispute his Enlistment is to be settled by a Committee and the Soldier's Oath. The Remainder of his Excellency's and the Honorable Board of Committee's Proposals is founded upon Honor and Justice; but in Regard to the Honorable the Board setting forth, that there will be appointed Three Persons to sit as a Committee to redress our Grievances; it is therefore the general Demand of the Line and the Board of Serjeants, that we shall appoint as many Members as of the Opposite, to sit as a Committee to determine jointly upon our unhappy Affairs. As the Path we tread is Justice, and our Footsteps founded upon Honor, therefore we unanimously do agree, that there would be something done towards a speedy Redress of our present Circumstances.

Signed by Order of the Board,
WM. BOWZER, Sec.

Pursuant to your Excellency's Demand concerning the Two Emisaries from the British, the Board of Committee resolved, that those Men should be delivered up to the supreme Authority, in order to shew that we should remove every Doubt of Suspicion and Jealousy.

Also that the Men may disperse upon being discharged, the delivering up their Arms, &c.

Signed by the Board in the President's Absence,

DANIEL CONNELL, Member.

Trenton, Jan. 10, 1781.

Sir William Twicken, who did not sail from Sandy Hook till the 29th, was informed before his Departure by Sir Henry Clinton, that the revolted Troops still remained at Trenton, and were intrenching themselves there; and that the New Jersey Brigade had also revolted for the same Reasons as the others, and were marching towards Elizabeth Town; and Major General Robertson was ordered to Staten Island upon that Occasion.
