Dantzick, July 10.

THE King and Queen of Poland are at present at Marienbourg not far from hence, and on Thursday next their Majesties are expected here, for whose reception very great preparations are making. From Moscow we have advice, that there still continued great disorders at that Court; that he who was not long since the great Favourite, was banished, his Goods and Estate seized, and all his Friends and Relations put out of the employments they had obtained by his means; that at Mosco the great apprehensions were of a War with the Ottomans.

Ditto, July 17. Great preparations are making here for the reception of the King of Poland, who is expected the 22 instant, and from hence it is said he intends to pass to Paulski. The Diet in Prussia is ended with the satisfaction of all Parties. This day the Dutch Merchantmen, under the Convoy of the Sieur Bastiaenz, arrive safe here from Holland, and will, to morrow, sail again towards Denmark.

Naples, July 6. Our Viceroy, the Marquis de los Velez, has remitted 10000 Ducats to Porto-Longone, to be distributed among the Soldiers assigned for Sicily, and has sent 8 Tartans with 700 Soldiers, Provisions, and Materials for shipping, to repair the ships at Melazzo, where 7 Men of War are arrived with 3000 Soldiers. The Marschal de Vivonne having left his Army in the Neighborhood of Taormina, is returned to Messina, to take a review of the Troops sent by the last ships from France. The 25 past 12 ships were seen off of the Island of Ischia, being, as is said, appointed to go and convoy the Gallies that have continued so long at Civita Vecchia.

Legorn, July 12. Yesterday we received Letters from Palermo of the 2d instant, which bring advice of the arrival there of the Duke of Bourbonville, and 7 ships, viz. 3 Spanish Gallions, carrying between 70 and 80 Guns, a ship of Biscay, 2 Dutch Men of War called the St. Philip and Golden Lyon, and a Hamburger, with these ships arrived likewise 2000 Land Soldiers, and more are in a short time expected from Milan. The French have in the Port of Messina 24 Ships, and 14 Gallies and Gallieses, 7 of which are to return suddenly to France, to bring more Provisions from thence, of which they are in great want, by the waste and Spoils committed near that place. Yesterday two of the French Men of War, that have been for some time Cruising in the Gulf of Lyons, with design to intercept the Spanish Succors from Barcelona, put in here. Two dayes ago all the French Gallies, except two, failed from Civita Vecchia; they have lost 250 Men in the Gally that hapned to be accidentally burnt the day before in that Port.

From the Camp before Stetin, July 19. On the 17 instant the Besieged manned out several small Boats with 500 men, commanded by Captain Vander Noor, with which he attacked and took Dam, which was defended by a Brandenburg Captain and 140 men, but advancing too far, and meeting with a Party, was forced to retire into the Town with some loss. The same day in the afternoon the Suedes quitted the Block-huys, and the next morning the Tol-schans, which places they set fire to, and removed the Bridge of Boats, to oblige us to build another, to which purpose several Materials are already prepared, to render the communication between our Camp and the Garison of Dam more easie.

Ditto. His Electoral Highness having caused a Bridge to be laid over the Oder, and a passage to be made through the Wood on the Moras as far as the Tol-schans, the Besieged sent a strong Party out of the Town, who early the next morning attacked Dam, which they were forced to leave, after having been some hours in possession of it. In this Action were killed about 25 common Soldiers, beside one Captain, a Major, and several that are dangerously wounded, who, according to the report of our Prisoners, were carried in four Boats into the Town. After which, Major General Swerin attacked Block-huys, and took it, and after having removed the Guns in the place, set fire to it. The next day the said Major attacked the Tol-schans, which the Suedish Commander finding himself not able to defend, removed all the great Guns out of the place, and in his retreat set fire to the Bridge, which was presently quenched, and the Post taken in by the Major.

Copenhagen, July 24. From Norw. they write, that the Sieur Guldenlicu is busie in fortifying Bedewalt, the greatest part of his Army being in the mean time encamped near Maestran in the Island of Kore. From Schonen we hear, that his Majesty, after having left some Troops to block up Malmoe, marched with the rest of his Army towards Renneburg, which the Suedes observing, marched likewise, and encamped over against his Majesty, between Tunrop and Nybolke, so that the Armies being now above half a League from each other, several Skirmishes are said to have passed between them, and the Danes Baggage is sent to Landskroon.

Postscript. At the closing of this Letter arrives a Courier from our Army, with the News of the two Armies having begun to march against each other, and that to morrow we may expect to hear of a Battel having been fought between them. The same Courier brings advice likewise, that the Sieur Guldenlicu was posted with his Army between Gottenburg and Maestran, having blocked up the first place, and actually besieged the latter. The Suedish Fleet is put to sea again, and Admiral Tromps use all diligence for the speedy setting of ours, which will be reinforced with 8 new ships, not yet finished, and the Squadron arrived from Holland, after which they will lose no time to go and find out the Enemy.

Eskeour July 24. All last night and this day we have heard great shooting in Schonen, which makes us believe the two Armies are engaged, and this morning we discerned two great Fires, which yet are thought to be no more than two Villages, which may have been burnt by Parties. Lieutenant Admiral Tromp and the Sieur Bastiaens are come to Copenhagen. Here are at present 60 ships in Port bound for several Parts, expecting a Convoy home; and this day is arrived a ship from Stock-
