St. James's, June 2. HE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, having been transmitted to the Lord Viscount Stormont, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the Earl of Dalhousie, His Majesty's High Commissioner, has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty;

E, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful
Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in the National Assembly of the Church of Scotland, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, to express our firm Attachment to your Person and Government; and to affure you, that the Sentiments which we entertain are the Sentiments of the People committed by Providence to our Charge.

With the most lively Joy and Heart-felt Satis-faction we have beheld the Increase of your Majesty's Family in your Royal Offspring; an Event, which, while it contributes to your Majesty's domestic Felicity, must, on that Account, give Plea-fure to all your loyal Subjects, but which, in a particular Manner, must be felt as of the utmost National Importance, by encouraging us to hope for a long Continuance of those Civil and Religious Bleffings, which, as British Subjects and Protestants, we have hitherto enjoyed under the Government of your Illustrious House.

The tumultuous Outrages which, under the Mask of Religious Zeal, have disturbed the Peace of your Majesty's Subjects, filled us with the deepest Concern; and we heard with Abhorrence the Name of our Holy Faith prostituted to encourage Acts of Violence, which were adverse to its Principles, and forbidden by the Precepts of our Blessed Redeemer.

forbidden by the Precepts of our Blessed Redeemer.

While your Majesty was engaged in a necessary though expensive War against the ancient Enemies of these Realms, and against your own Rebellious Subjects, in Support of the Honor, Dignity, and just Prerogatives of your Crown, we have seen with Indignation your ancient Allies, who ought to have been united to your Majesty by the closest Ties of Religion, Civil Interest, and Gratitude, not only resulting to supply your Majesty with such Succours as by Treaty they were bound to give, but even affording their Assistance to your Enemies, to enable fording their Affistance to your Enemies, to enable them the more effectually to pursue hostile Measures against your Majesty. We rejoice in the Success which it hath already pleased the Almighty to bestow upon your Arms in chastifing their Perfidy; we indulge the Hope that this Success may be a Mean of opening their Eyes, and of renewing the Friend. ship which, to the mutual Advantage of both Nations, so long subsisted between Great Britain and the States of Holland: And we conside in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, under the Divine Providence, for bringing the present bloody and destructive War to a happy Issue.

[Price Seven Pence.]

In the mean Time, we consider it to be our peculiar Duty, at this Juncture, to cherish the Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty, and the Zeal for the Success of your Arms, which prevails among all Ranks in this Part of your Domininions; and to impress those over whom we have Influence with a due Sense of the Blessings they enjoy under your Majesty's Government, and of those Duties of Charity and Brotherly Love which they owe to each other, and to their Fellow Christians.

That the Lord of Hosts may go forth with your Fleets and Armies; that He may crown your Arms with Victory; and that your Majesty may long reign over a free, happy, and united People, is the sincere and ardent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedients and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by William Dalrymple, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 26, 1781.

A N ESSAY on the VIRTUES of Dr. NORRIS'S DROPS for FEVERS, with the Particulars of 130 Cures, selected from a great Number of Cases, voluntarily addressed to Dr. Norris, with a View to benefit the Afflicted, given gratis at the Doctor's House, New Bridgesseret, Black-friars, and by all other Venders of the Drops.

Experience has established this Medicine as the safest and most efficacious Remedy in every Kind of Fever, whether inflammatory, putrid, malignant, bilious, nervous, miliary, or hectic. They also relieve gouty and rheumatic Pains, and are a most incomparable Remedy in the Scurvy. In Lowness or Depression of Spirits, Complaints of the Stomach and Bowels, particularly the bilious and windy Cholic, they give almost immediate Relief; and, with a little Perseverance, never sail to work a Cure; and in Instrinities of advanced Life, its cordial and good Effects are singularly salutary. The above Essay will convince the most incredulous.

 It is to be observed, that they are so gentle and mild in their Operation, they may be taken at any Time, and require no Consinement, except in desperate Cases, or Disorders that will not admit of going abroad.

Mr. Sawier, a Gentleman of Bristol, in a Letter to the Printer, published in the Gazette, in Recommendation of these Drops, after several Years Experience of their surprising Efficacy, and before he even knew Dr. Norris, declares them "The greatest Medical Blessiage the World ever received."

The same Gentleman, in a Letter to Dr. Norris, on the Virtues and Efficacy of these Drops for Fevers, says, that in the Course of more than Seven Years, not one Instance came to his Krawladae of a Patient doing otherwise than well, who to his Knowledge of a Patient doing otherwise than well, who made a fair Trial of them.

And in another Letter on the Virtues of these Drops, he writes the Doctor thus: "I must not omit to mention, that, "never-failing as your Drops have proved in Fevers, they are found equally sovereign in Complaints of the Bowels. The many Instances I have met with of Persons deplorably bad "in the Bilious Cholic, relieved almost instantly, and cured in a few Hours, by this Medicine, induce me to make its Efficacy known as much as possible, for the Sake of Numbers who drag on a miserable Life, merely for Want of a proper Medicine."

As the making these Drops universally known may be of infinite Service to the Public, by saving the Lives of many Thousands annually, it is earnestly desired (as Example goes beyond Precept) that all who are cured by them, or have received great Benesit in old inveterate Complaints, will be so obliging, for the Good of others, as to send the Particulars of their Case and Cure, as Numbers have already done, to Dr. Norris, at his House in Bridge-street, Black-friars, London; or to any of the Persons appointed to sell these Drops in Town or Country.
