Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 19, to Saturday June 23, 1781.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d of June, 1781,

P R E S E N T,
The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation, and to restrain the carrying Coastwise, of Copper in Bars or Copper in Sheets, for a limited Time;" His Majesty is empowered, by Proclamation or Order in Council, when he shall see Cause, and for such Time as shall be therein expressed, to prohibit the Exporting, or attempting to Export, out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise in this Kingdom, any Sort of Copper in Sheets, or Copper in Bars, therein to be described, in such Manner and under such Restraints, as His Majesty shall think fit; and His Majesty judging it necessary for the Publick Good, at this Crucial Conjunction, to prohibit the Exporting of Copper out of this Kingdom; or carrying Coastwise the same; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, That no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, or their Officers or Agents, for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Three Months from the Date hereof, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise in this Kingdom any Sort of Copper in Sheets or Copper in Bars, on Board any Ship or Vessel in, order to transporting the same beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by the Act of Parliament herein before recited.—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkener.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d of June, 1781,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased; by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 25th Day of October, 1776, to promise and declare, That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st of December then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 8th Day of November, 1776, to promise and declare, That a Reward of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might secrete themselves, that so such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the 31st Day of December, 1776: And whereas His Majesty was likewise pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 15th Day of August, 1777, to promise and declare, That every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should voluntarily enter himself to serve on Board any of His Majesty's Ships, on or before the 31st Day of October then next, should receive, as of His Majesty's Royal Bounty, the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, to be paid in Manner thereby directed: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations, for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, hath been prolonged and extended to the 30th Day of this instant June; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Rewards should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy-Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards be prolonged and extended from the said 30th Day of this instant June to the 30th Day of September next, inclusive.—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Wm. Fawkener.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d of June, 1781,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this Day read at the Board the humble Petition of the Proprietors and Merchants interested in the Island of Dominica, residing in London, setting forth, that the Ships Venus, Van T. Hoen Master, and the Resolute, Lambert Wartenburg Master, Two of the Vessels specified in His Majesty's Order in Council of the 23d of March last, have been detained in their Voyage from Dominica by Cruizers, and have received much Damage at Sea; and humbly praying, that the Term allowed by the said Order for the Return of the said Two Vessels to Holland may be enlarged: His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration,

[Price Seven-Pence.]

Consideration, doth hereby declare, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, that the Term granted by His Majesty's said former Order in Council shall be, in Respect to the said Two Ships, and the same is hereby prolonged and extended for the Space of Four Months, to commence from the 29th Day of this instant June, being the Day on which the Term granted for their Return to Holland will expire. And His Majesty doth hereby order, that the said Two Ships the Venus and Resolute, together with their respective Cargoes, shall, during the further Term of Four Months, be considered in all Respects as Neutral Vessels going to Neutral Ports, within the Meaning and Spirit of an Act of the last Session of Parliament, intitled, "An Act to protect Goods or Merchandize of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of the Islands of Grenada and the Grenadines, on Board Neutral Vessels bound to Neutral Ports during the present Hostilities," and of the Articles of Capitulation for the Islands of St. Vincent and Dominica; and that the said Ships shall not, during the said further Term of Four Months, be liable to be detained or molested by any of His Majesty's Ships of War or Merchant Ships having Letters of Marque and General Reprizals; provided nevertheless, that the said Two Ships Venus and Resolute shall appear to have been cleared out from the said Island of Dominica on or before the 1st Day of April last, and that they have no Goods or Merchandize on Board, other than Goods of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the said Island of Dominica.

W. Fawkenet.

St. James's, June 22.

The King was this Day pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Wadsworth Bulk, Esq; His Majesty's Attorney-General in the Isle of Man; and also on George Moore, Esq; late Speaker of the House of Keys in the said Island: And they had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand on the Occasion.

Whitehall, June 23, 1781.

EXTRACT of a Letter from Sir Henry Clinton, K. B. to Lord George Germain, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, received by Colonel Leland, who arrived in the Thynne Packet, which left Sandy Hook the 27th of May.

New York, May 18, 1781.

MY LORD,

I AM happy in being able to congratulate your Lordship on the very important Success which the King's Troops in Virginia have had on their late Expedition to Petersburg, &c. (as described in Brigadier-General Arnold's Letter) which must ultimately be productive of the very best Consequences to His Majesty's Service; as it is credibly reported that the greatest Part of the Tobacco collected there was French Property, and almost their entire Annual Remittance.

Extract of Brigadier-General Arnold's Letter to Sir Henry Clinton.

Petersburgh, May 16, 1781.

S I R,

I AM extremely sorry to inform your Excellency, that Major-General Phillips is reduced so low by a Fever, which seized him on the 2d Instant, that he is incapable of Business, and the Physicians are not without Fears for his Safety. In this Situation I think it my Duty to transmit to your Excellency, by Express, a Detail of the Proceedings of the Army under the Orders of Major-General

Phillips since they left Portsmouth, (which his indisposition prevented him from doing as he intended.)

On the 18th of April the Light Infantry, Part of the 76th and 80th Regiments, the Queen's Rangers, Yagers, and American Legion, embarked at Portsmouth, and fell down to Hampton Road; on the 19th proceeded up James River to Burwell's Ferry; on the 20th Lieutenant-Colonel Abercrombie, with the Light Infantry, proceeded up the Chickahomany in Boats; Lieutenant-Colonel Simcoe, with a Detachment, to York; Lieutenant-Colonel Dundas, with another Detachment, landed at the Mouth of the Chickahomany; and Major-General Phillips and myself landed with Part of the Army at Williamsburg, where about 500 Militia were posted, who retired upon our Approach. The Militia at York crossed the River before the Arrival of Lieutenant-Colonel Simcoe, who made a few Prisoners, spiked and destroyed some Cannon, and next Day returned to Williamsburg.

On the 22d the Troops marched to Chickahomany. We were met on the Road, Five Miles from the Mouth of the River, by Lieutenant-Colonel Dundas, with his Detachment: This Evening the Troops, Cavalry, Artillery, &c. were reembarked. The next Morning we were joined by Lieutenant-Colonel Abercrombie, with the Light Infantry, who had been Ten or Twelve Miles up the Chickahomany, and destroyed several Armed Ships, the State Ship-Yards, Warehouses, &c. &c.

At Ten o'Clock the Fleet weighed and proceeded up the James River, within Four Miles of Westover.

The 24th weighed Anchor at Eleven o'Clock, and run up to City Point, where the Troops, &c. were all landed at Six o'Clock in the Evening.

The 25th marched at Ten o'Clock for Petersburg, where we arrived about Five o'Clock P. M. We were opposed about One Mile from Town by a Body of Militia under the Orders of Brigadier-General Muhlenberg, supposed to be about One Thousand Men, who were soon obliged to retire over the Bridge with the Loss of near One Hundred Men killed and wounded, as we have since been informed; our Loss only One Man killed and Ten wounded. The Enemy took up the Bridge which prevented our pursuing them.

26th. Destroyed at Petersburg Four Thousand Hogheads of Tobacco, One Ship and a Number of small Vessels on the Stocks and in the River.

27th. Major-General Phillips, with the Light Infantry, Part of the Cavalry of the Queen's Rangers, and Part of the Yagers, marched to Chesterfield Court-House, where they burnt a Range of Barracks for Two Thousand Men, and Three Hundred Barrels of Flour, &c.

The same Day I marched to Osborn's, with the 76th and 80th Regiments, Queen's Rangers, Part of the Yagers, and American Legion, where we arrived about Noon. Finding the Enemy had a very considerable Force of Ships Four Miles above Osborn's, drawn up in a Line to oppose us, I sent a Flag to the Commodore, proposing to treat with him for the Surrender of his Fleet, which he refused, with this Answer, "That he was determined to defend it to the last Extremity." I immediately ordered down Two Six and Two Three Pounders, Brass Field Pieces, to a Bank of the River, nearly level with the Water, and within One Hundred Yards of the Tempest, a Twenty Gun State Ship, which began immediately to fire upon us, as did the Renown of Twenty-six Guns, the Jefferson, a State Brigantine of Fourteen Guns, and several other Armed Ships and Brigantines; about Two or Three Hundred Militia on the opposite Shore, at the same Time kept up a heavy Fire of Mufquetry upon us. Notwithstanding which the Fire of the Artillery, under the Direction of Captain Fage and Lieutenant Rogers, took such Place, that the Ships were soon obliged to strike their Colours, and the Militia drove from the opposite Shore. Want of Boats, and the Wind blowing hard, prevented our capturing many of the Seamen, who took to their Boats, and escaped on Shore; but not without first scuttling and setting Fire to some of their Ships, which could not be saved.

Two Ships, Three Brigantines, Five Sloops, and Two Schooners, loaded with Tobacco, Cordage, Flour, &c. &c. fell into our Hands.

Four Ships, Five Brigantines, and a Number of small Vessels, were sunk and burnt. On board the whole Fleet, (none of which escaped) were taken and destroyed about Two Thousand Hogheads of Tobacco, &c. &c. &c. and very fortunately we had not a Man killed or wounded this Day; but have Reason to believe the Enemy suffered considerably. About Five o'Clock P. M. we were joined by Major-General Phillips, with the Light Infantry.

28th. The Troops remained at Osborn's, waiting for Boats from the Fleet; Part of them were employed in securing the Prizes, and carrying them to Osborn's as a Place of Safety.

29th. The Boats having arrived, the Troops were put in Motion. Major-General Phillips marched with the main Body; at the same Time I proceeded up the River, with a Detachment in Boats, and met him between Cary's Mills and Warwick.

30th. The Troops marched to Manchester; and destroyed Twelve Hundred Hogheads of Tobacco. The Marquis de Fayette having arrived with his Army at Richmond, opposite to Manchester, the Day before, and being joined by the Militia drove from Petersburg and Williamsburg, they were Spectators of the Conflagration, without attempting to molest us. The same Evening we returned to Warwick, where we destroyed a Magazine of 500 Barrels of Flour, and Colonel Cary's fine Mills were destroyed in burning the Magazine of Flour. We also burnt several Warehouses, with One Hundred and Fifty Hogheads of Tobacco, a large Ship and a Brigantine afloat, and Three Vessels on the Stocks, a large Range of Public Rope-walks and Storehouses, and some Tan and Bark Houses full of Hides and Bark.

May 1st. Marched to Osborn's, and dispatched our Prizes and Boats down the River; and in the Evening marched to Bermuda Hundreds, opposite City Point.

May 2d. Embarked the Troops, &c. &c.

May 3d. Fell down the River to Westover.

May 4th. Proceeded down to Tappahannock.

5th and 6th. Part of the Fleet fell down to Hog Island.

7th. Major-General Phillips having received a Letter from Lord Cornwallis, Orders were given for the Fleet to return up the River again. We arrived at Brandon about Five o'Clock, and most of the Troops, Cavalry, &c. were landed this Evening, though it blew a Gale of Wind.

May 8th. Remained at Brandon. Major-General Phillips being very ill, and unable to travel on Horseback, a Post Chaise was procured for him.

May 9th. The Light Infantry, and Part of the Queen's Rangers, in Boats, were ordered, with the Formidable and Spitfire, to proceed to City Point, and land there. The Rest of the Army were put in Motion for Petersburg, where they arrived late in the Night, having marched near Thirty Miles this Day.

On our leaving Bermuda Hundred, and going down the River, the Marquis de Fayette with his Army moved towards Williamsburg, and by forced Marches had crossed the Chickahomany at Long Bridge, when our Fleet returned to Brandon, which retrograde Motion of ours occasioned him to return as rapidly by forced Marches to Osborn's, where he arrived the 8th, and was preparing to cross the River to Petersburg when we arrived there, which was so unexpected, that we surprised and took Two Majors, (one of them Aid de Camp to Baron Stubens's, the other to General Smallwood's); One Captain and Three Lieutenants of Dragoons; Two Lieutenants of Foot, a Commissary, and a Surgeon: Some of these Gentlemen arrived only two Hours before us, with an Intention of collecting the Boats for the Marquis to cross his Army.

On the 10th the Marquis made his Appearance on the opposite Side of the River with a strong Escort, and having staid some Time to reconnoitre our Army, returned to his Camp at Osborn's; and we are this Day informed he is marched to Richmond, where it is said Wayne with the Pennsylvania Line has arrived; this is however uncertain, but he is certainly expected there.

An Express passed through this Place the Day before our Arrival here, who left Halifax on the 7th, and informed, that the Advance of Lord Cornwallis's Army arrived there that Morning: This Report we have from several Quartets, and I am inclined to believe it is true.—Several Expresses have been sent to his Lordship, informing him of our being here ready to co-operate with his Lordship.—We are in anxious Expectation of having particular Intelligence from him every Minute.

As soon as it is reduced to a Certainty that Lord Cornwallis has crossed the Roanoke, and is on his March for this Place, the Army will advance one or two Days March from hence to meet his Lordship, and carry a Supply of Provisions for his Army.

A considerable Magazine of Flour and Bread has fallen into our Hands near this Place, and the Country abounds with Cattle.

Major-General Phillips is so weak and low, that it will be some considerable Time before he can go through the Fatigue of Business. In this critical Situation I am happy to have the Assistance of so many good and experienced Officers with me, commanding Corps. If joined by Lord Cornwallis, or the Reinforcement said to be coming from New-York, we shall be in Force to operate as we please in Virginia or Maryland.

I have the Honor to be, &c.
Signed, B. A R N O L D.
