CAPITULATION of the Island of Tobago, received from Lieutenant-Governor Ferguson.

[TRANSLATION.]

CAPITULATION of the Island of Tobago, between the Count de Grasse, commanding the Naval Forces of his Most Christian Majesty, and the Marquis de Bouille, Commandant-General of the French Windward Islands in America on the one Part, and the Honourable George Ferguson, Esq. Commander in Chief of the Island of Tobago, and the Honourable Major Stanhope, commanding His Britannic Majesty's Forces in the said Island, on the other Part.

Article I.

THE Governor, Staff and other Officers of the Troops, and Soldiers of the Garrison of the Island of Tobago, shall march out of the Redoubt and Forts with the Honors of War, and shall afterwards lay down their Arms, the Officers excepted.

II. The Officers and Troops shall be afterwards sent to France, except such Officers as shall have Permission from the French General to remain in the Windward Islands of America upon their Parole.

The Wives and Children of the Troops shall follow the same Destination.

III. The Inhabitants of the Island shall preserve their Civil Government, Laws, Customs, and Ordinances; and the same Persons who now administer Justice shall be continued in their Functions until the Peace, as long as they conduct themselves properly.

The Court of Chancery shall be held by the Members of the Council, in the Form established by the Laws, Customs and Ordinances, under which the Island is governed, until the Peace; but the Appeals from the said Court shall be made to the Council of his Most Christian Majesty.

IV. The Inhabitants in general of the said Island, and the Clergy, shall be protected in the Enjoyment of their Estates, and of every Thing in their Possession, of whatsoever Nature it may be, as well as of their Privileges, Rights, Honors, and Exemptions. They shall have the free Exercise of their Religion, and the Clergy shall enjoy their Benefices.

The free Negroes and Melattoes shall be maintained in their Liberty, but no Slave shall be franchised in future without Permission from the Governor-General, conformable to the Customs established in the French Colonies.

V. The Inhabitants shall pay no other Taxes to his Most Christian Majesty than they paid to His Britannic Majesty.

The Expences attending the Administration of Justice, the Allowances to the Clergy, and other ordinary Charges, to be defrayed by the Colony.

Merchandizes exported from the Colony shall pay the same Duties to the Revenue as are paid in the French Colonies. The Duties on Entry shall be the same.

The Inhabitants shall enjoy all the Commercial Privileges granted to the Subjects of his Most Christian Majesty in his Windward Islands in America.

VI. The Inhabitants shall not be liable to pay the Contribution of 1200 Half Jeannes required and agreed to by the Provisional Capitulation; but the Colony shall be at the Expence of reconstructing the Buildings which were burnt during the Siege, so that the Inhabitants to whom they belonged will only contribute their Quota of the said Re-construction, so that the whole Amount do not exceed 1200 Half Joes.

VII. The Effects, and particularly the Slaves, belonging to the Inhabitants of this Colony, which may have been taken during the Siege, and which can be recovered, shall be restored. Those which have been carried on board any of the Ships belonging to the French Squadron shall be landed and delivered into the Hands of the Provost Marshal.

N. B. The Vessels and Effects on board of them, which were taken before the Island surrendered, or after, not comprehended in this Article.

VIII. The Ships, Vessels, and Drogues belonging to the Inhabitants of this Island, shall remain their private Property; but English Vessels, owned by Persons in Europe, or in the English Islands, shall be faithfully given up, and surrendered to the French Governor.

IX. The Inhabitants who are absent, even those in the Service of His Britannic Majesty, shall be maintained in the Possession and Enjoyment of their Property, which may be managed by their Attornies.

X. The Inhabitants shall be obliged to provide Lodgings for the Troops, only in Cases of indispensable Necessity, as is the Custom in the French Islands, the King lodging them in general at his own Expence, or in Buildings that belong to him.

XI. They shall be obliged to furnish Negroes to work upon the Fortifications, or in any other Work relative to the King's Service, to the Amount of 400; and the said Negroes shall be maintained at the King's Expence, while they are so employed.

XII. The Inhabitants shall take the Oath of Fidelity to His Most Christian Majesty, before the French Governor of the Island, of Tobago, within the Space of Two Days, under the Penalty of forfeiting their Property.

But those Inhabitants, and particularly Widows, who, on Account of Sickness, Absence, or any other Impediment, cannot do so within the Time limited, shall have a Delay allowed them, which shall be signified to them.

XIII. The Inhabitants shall observe a strict Neutrality, and shall not be forced to take up Arms against His Britannic Majesty, nor against any other Power.

In consequence of which, they shall carry all their Arms to the chief Residence, where they shall be deposited in the King's Magazines, except such as the Justices of the Peace shall think necessary on each Estate to preserve Order among the Negroes; but the Justices of the Peace shall answer in Person for any improper Use that may be made of them, contrary contrary to the Tenor of this Capitulation; and they shall transmit to the French Governor within a certain Time which shall be prescribed to them, a List, under their own Signatures, of the Arms which shall have been left with the Inhabitants in their respective Districts.

XIV. The Inhabitants of the Island which were not actually, by their Employments, in the Service of His Britannic Majesty, shall not be regarded as Prisoners of War.

XV. Merchant ships coming from England, or from any other State whatsoever, belonging to the Inhabitants or Merchants of the Island of Tobago, shall be received into the Ports of the said Colony, during the Space of Six Months, without being confiscated, and shall be reputed the Property of the said Inhabitants or Merchants.

Referring after that Time to the French Governor the Right of judging of the Property of the said Vessels, in Consideration of the distant Places from whence they shall have come. But the said Inhabitants or Merchants shall make a Declaration to the Director of the Revenue of the Vessels which may be or are consigned to them, either singly or in Partnership, within the Space of One Month.

N. B. Extended to Two Months.

XVI. The Inhabitants in general shall be allowed to dispose freely of their Estates Personal or Real, in the Enjoyment of which they are maintained, and consequently to sell or alienate them, as they shall think fit.

They may dispose equally of their Revenues, and may send their Children to England, or elsewhere, to be educated, and receive them back again.

XVII. All the Artillery, the Implements, and Things thereto belonging, all the Arms in general, Gunpowder, Provisions, and generally all Effects whatsoever, Buildings, Moveables, and Immoveables, belonging to the King of England, shall be given up to the General of the Troops of his Most Christian Majesty: Inventories shall be taken thereof, and the Delivery shall be made with as little Delay as possible.

Individuals, who shall withhold any of the Effects above-mentioned, or any Part thereof, or who shall not give in an Account of them within the Space of Fifteen Days, shall be proceeded against with Severity.

XVIII. The Inhabitants who shall have any English Soldiers or Sailors in their Houses, shall be obliged to give Information of them in the Space of Four Days, under the Penalty of One Hundred Half Joannes; and those who shall favour their Escape shall be proceeded against with Severity.

At Tobago the Second of June, 1781.

St. James's, August 28.

AS several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have from Time to Time gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms; The following Abstracts of Two Acts of Parliament of George the First and George the Second, to prevent such Practices, are published for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them.—And it will be observed, that they extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, and in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries, out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof upon Indictment or Information, in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter-Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted, shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorized by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from thenceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Person shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, and of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise or Purchase; and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaints made upon Oath before any Justice of Peace that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted, or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid; such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of one Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Goal till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted upon Indictment of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas for the Purposes aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King: not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary, or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland, into any Foreign Country, not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and shall be convicted upon Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Justiciary, or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with, or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Goal of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in Case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol or the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be taken, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

If any Person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on Board any Ship or Boat not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such Tools or Utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the Preparing, Working up or Finishing of the Woollen or Silk Manufactures, or any Part of such Tools; he shall for every Offence forfeit all such Tools, or Parts thereof, put on Board; and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no Essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on Board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on Board his Vessel, he shall for every such Offence forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocker or Duffrance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.
