By the KING,
A P R O C L A M A T I O N.
G E O R G E R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the Eighteenth Day of this instant October; We, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, That the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said Eighteenth Day of this instant October, to Tuesday the Twenty-seventh Day of November next; and We have given Order to Our Chancellor of Great Britain to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do hereby further declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That the said Parliament shall, on the said Twenty-seventh Day of November next, be held for the Dispatch of divers weighty and important Affairs. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burghesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are hereby required to give Attendance accordingly at Westminster, on the said Twenty-seventh Day of November next. Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twelfth Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, in the Twenty-first Year of Our Reign.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th of October, 1781,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honorable John Earl of Waldegrave to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Essex, his Lordship this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Whitehall, October 9, 1781.

THE original Letter from Major-General Campbell, Commander of His Majesty's Forces in West Florida, to Lord George Germain, dated at Pensacola the 12th of May last, not having come to Hand, the following is Extract of the Duplicate of the said Letter which has lately been received.

WHEN I wrote your Lordship on the 7th Instant, although I then foresaw the probable Fate of Pensacola, yet I did not apprehend that the Decision of the Contest was quite so near at Hand as it has since proved to have been: An unfortunate Shell from the Enemy, on the Morning of the 8th, precipitated it's Destiny, and occasioned it's falling under the Dominion of Spain at least some Days sooner than it otherwise would have happened. On the Morning of the 8th a Shell, that accidentally burst by the Door of the Magazine of the Advanced Redoubt, set Fire to the Powder within, and in an Instant the Body of the Redoubt was a Heap of Rubbish, depriving no less than 48 Military, 27 Seamen, and one Negro of Life by the Explosion, besides 24 Men wounded, most of them dangerously. Two Flank Works, that had been added to the Redoubt since the Commencement of the Siege, still remained entire, the Fire from which (owing to the intrepid Coolness of the Artillery, particularly of Captain Johnstone, who commanded them) repulsed the Enemy in their first Attempt to advance to the Storm, and gave Time to carry off the Wounded, two Five and half Inch Howitzers, and three Field Pieces; but the Enemy having by this Time brought up their whole Army, there was a Necessity of abandoning these Works, after first spiking up the Pieces of Artillery in the Flank Works, viz. 2 Ten and 2 Eight-Inch Mortars, 3 Eight and 1 Five and half Inch Howitzers, and 1 Field Piece, a Three Pounder, and 1 Twenty-four-Pounder; 6 Twelve-Pounders, and 1 Nine-Pounder, were lost in the Redoubt. The Enemy at this Time assumed a Countenance as if they would storm our remaining Works; however, on finding us prepared for their Attack and ready to receive them, they dropt their Design, but kept up so heavy and incessant a Fire from their Small Arms, under Cover of the remaining Works of the Advanced Redoubt, that the Seamen could not stand to the Guns in the Middle Redoubt, and several (both Soldiers and Seamen) were wounded in that Redoubt. In this Situation, not having the smallest Hope of Relief, having little or no Shot left (except what the Enemy had furnished us with for our 4 Twenty-four-Pounders) sensible that I could only hold out a few Days longer, and that many Lives, that may hereafter be more usefully employed in the Service of their King and Country, would be lost in prolonging the Defence, without any visible Advantage in Return; I judged this the Time to endeavour procuring an honourable and advantageous Capitulation; I accordingly, a little before Three o'Clock in the Afternoon of the 8th, displayed a Flag of Truce on Fort George, and proposed, by Letter, a Suspension of Hostilities, in order to afford Time to draw up Articles of Capitulation, which being verbally granted, Articles were accordingly prepared between his Excellency Governor Chester and me, and sent out by Seven o'Clock that Evening; but, before we could send them out, General Galvez sent in a List of Terms and Conditions that he could not dispense with in the proposed Capitulation; however, they were not at this Time taken Notice of. In about two Hours after, Answers to our original Proposals were returned, which, among other Things, plainly indicated that we must become Prisoners of War, otherwise there could be no Capitulation: I therefore immediately drew up the 1st and 17th Articles of the present Capitulation in the Words in which they now stand, which I sent out to General Galvez, with a Message, that, unless these were assented to as principal and preliminary Articles, the Cessation was at an End, and Hostilities might begin as soon as he thought proper per; but in case these were agreed to, it appeared to me probable that there would be no Difficulty in adjusting the other Articles the ensuing Day: whereupon they were returned conditionally ratified, but which Conditions have since been withdrawn. The Cessation being thereby continued, I early next Morning prepared a new Draft of Articles of Capitulation, in which the Stipulations of the preceding Day were attended to, and some new Clauses, that occurred to be necessary, in Addition to those of the preceding Day, inserted; to which Governor Chester consenting, they were, on the Morning of the 9th of May, sent out to General Galvez by Brigade-Major Campbell, who being fully informed of my Sentiments upon them collectively and separately, was empowered to clear up and discuss them with his Excellency. Accordingly General Galvez upon an Investigation and Discussion of them, Article by Article, agreed to them verbally, with some insignificant Reservations; whereupon he was permitted to take Possession of the Garrison of Pensacola that Evening, with a Guard for his Person, (he being indisposed) and Major Campbell left in his Camp, with General Espeleta and General Galvez's Secretary, to put down the Answers in Writing; but they (notwithstanding General Galvez's verbal Ratification) started Objections to the 14th, 17th, and 24th Articles, which however were next Day removed by General Galvez himself; and two additional Articles, the 27th and 28th, being likewise agreed upon and inserted; the Whole, as it now stands, was ratified and exchanged, and Possession given that same Evening, to the Arms of Spain, of Fort George and its adjoining Works, and of the Royal Navy Redoubt the ensuing Day.

It has been my Misfortune, my Lord, to be employed in an ill-fated Corner of His Majesty's Dominions; but I trust that the Calamities that have befallen West Florida will not be imputed to me: My Endeavours have unremittingly been exerted for its Preservation to the British Empire; since I took upon me the Military Command; and if my Labours and Exertions to that End shall but find Favor with my Sovereign, I shall forget the Frowns of Fortune, and be happy in the Royal Approbation.

Since the Capitulation we have learnt, from the best Authority, that the Combined Regular Land Troops of the Enemy on Shore did not consist of fewer than 7800 Men, besides seamen and Marines; to which being added the Consideration of 15 Ships of the Line and 6 Frigates, King's Ships, Sloops, &c. &c. being so long employed on this Service, and the Confession of many of their Officers, of their having an Artillery sufficient to have carried before Gibraltar (their own Expression.)

Permit me now, my Lord, to remark the Obligations I am under to the Officers and Seamen of the Royal Navy, who, after they were landed, cheerfully and readily co-operated in the Defence on Shore, and performed every Thing that could be expected from the well-known Character of British Seamen for undaunted Zeal and Intrepidity in their Country's Service. Captains Deans and Kelly did every Thing I could expect from their Rank and Station. But I take the Liberty more especially of recommending Lieutenants Miller, of the Mentor, and Hargood, of the Port Royal, to your Lordship's Patronage and Protection, for their brave and spirited Conduct and unremitting Attention to the Good of the King's Service, the former as Commanding Officer of the Seamen in the Advanced Redoubt, and the latter in the Royal Navy Redoubt at the Red Cliffs, that were considered the Posts of Danger and Honor.

The Royal Artillery, both Officers and Men, (to whom were joined Twelve Artillery Men of the Regiment of Waldeck) were indefatigable in their Exertions, and, from the Time the Enemy's Batteries were opened, were incessantly on Duty; notwithstanding which, they only appeared the more animated by Danger, and the more zealous to acquire Honor and merit Applause. I assure your Lordship, that I was perfectly well supported by the Field Officers and Commanding Officers of Corps under my Command, in their Maintenance of Order, Discipline, and Alertness on Duty among the Troops: Lieutenant-Colonel De Horn, of the Waldeck Regiment, and Major McDonald, of the Maryland Provincial Corps, the only Field Officers in the Garrison of Fort George, went through a great Deal of Fatigue in the Execution of their Duty with Zeal, Promptness and Alacrity; and in Justice to them I must observe, that the Sally of the 4th Instant was led on by them, when upwards of 400 Men, actually on Duty in the Part of the Trenches attacked, were routed by only a Handful of Men, their Cannon spiked, Works destroyed, &c. Major McDonald headed the Provincials, who attacked and stormed the Trenches, and Lieutenant-Colonel De Horn was at the Head of the Reserve.

Major Penzell, of the 3d Regiment of Waldeck, in his Command of the Royal Navy Redoubt, did every Thing that an experienced Officer could perform in his Circumstances and Situation; and in general, my Lord, notwithstanding the Mixture of Corps, and the consequent Incohesion and Disunity of Action that might have thence been apprehended, yet I have the Pleasure to say, that the Handful of Troops, both Officers and Soldiers, under my Command, seemed animated with Vigour and Spirit to the last, and eager to distinguish themselves; even the dispiriting Circumstance of frequent Desertions appeared not to affect or discourage those who remained, but to excite to Vengeance and Repentment. Captain-Lieutenant-Heldring, of the 3d Regiment of Waldeck, acting and sole Engineer, did all that a zealous young Man, and ambitious of Honour, could perform during the Siege, in attending to his Line of Duty, and acquitted himself with Honor and Applause.

Captain Addenbrooke, of the 54th Regiment, my Aid de Camp, and Lieutenant Hugh Mackay Gordon, of the 16th Regiment. Extra Aid de Camp, discharged their Duty much to my Ease and Satisfaction, with Clearness, Judgment and Precision. But the infinite Obligations I am under to Brigade-Major Campbell, for his good Conduct, indefatigable Zeal, and strict Attention to his Duty, on this last, as well as on every other Occasion, under my Command, I cannot sufficiently express; I therefore, most earnestly recommend him, through your Lordship, to His Majesty's Notice, as an Officer, whose Merit, faithful Services, and Abilities, justly claim any Mark of Royal Favor that can be conferred upon him.
