Whitehall, November 6, 1781.

LIEUTENANT-COLONEL Conway, who sailed from New York, the 1st of last Month, in the Duke of Cumberland Packet, arrived at this Office on the Evening of the 3d Instant, with Dispatches from Sir Henry Clinton to the Right Honourable Lord George Germain, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, of which the following are Extracts.

Extract of a Letter from Sir Henry Clinton to Lord George Germain, dated New York, September 7 1781.

IN my Dispatch of the 20th of August, I had the Honor to inform your Lordship, that General Washington had suddenly quitted his Camp at White Plains; I have now That of communicating to you his subsequent Movements.

He passed the Croton on the 19th ultimo, taking a Station within a few Miles of it. On the 23d and 24th he crossed the North River, and, by the Position he took, seemed to threaten Staten Island until the 29th, when he suddenly moved towards the Delaware. At first I judged this to be a Feint; but finding that he passed that River with some of his Avant Guard, and publicly talked of the Count de Grasse's being every Moment expected in the Chesapeake to co-operate with him, I immediately endeavoured, both by Land and Water, to communicate my Suspicions to Lord Cornwallis; at the same Time assuring his Lordship, that I would either reinforce him by every possible Means in my Power, or make the best Diversion I could in his Favor.

As Rear-Admiral Graves sailed from hence with his own and Sir Samuel Hood's Squadron the 31st ultimo, in consequence of the Intelligence received respecting the Rhode Island Fleet, as mentioned to your Lordship in my last Dispatch; and as Lord Cornwallis, in his Letters of the 31st ultimo and 2d instant, which I received on the 4th and Yesterday, informs me, that the Count de Grasse was in the Chesapeake with a considerable Armament, I am in hourly Expectation of hearing that Rear-Admiral Graves has either intercepted Barras, or attacked the Fleet in the Bay, or perhaps both. In the mean Time I have embarked 4000 Troops, with which I shall instantly proceed myself to relieve Lord Cornwallis as soon as I know the Passage to him is open.

Extract of a Letter from Sir Henry Clinton to Lord George Germain, dated New York, September 12, 1781.

IHAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, that the Expedition I had sent against New London is returned, after having destroyed all the Shipping there (except about Sixteen, which made their Escape up the River) and an immense Quantity of Naval Stores, European Manufactures, and East and West India Commodities. It gives me Concern, however, that in doing this important Service the Town was unavoidably burnt, occasioned by the Explosions of great Quantities of Gunpowder, which happened to be in the Storehouses that were set Fire to. Brigadier-General Arnold's Report, with a Return of the Killed and Wounded, are inclosed for your Lordship's Information. And I have the Pleasure to acquaint your Lordship, that the Brigadier speaks to me with the highest Praise of the good Conduct, Discipline and Gallantry of all the Officers and Men who accompanied him on this Service. But as no Words, in my Opinion, can do them full Justice; I shall only observe, that the Assault of Fort Griswold (which is represented to be a Work of very great Strength) and the carrying it by Coup de Main, notwithstanding the very obstinate Resistance of the Garrison; will undoubtedly impress the Enemy with every Apprehension from the Ardor of British Troops, and will be hereafter remembered with the greatest Honor to the 40th and 54th Regiments, and their Leaders; to whose Share that Attack fell; though we at present cannot too much lament the heavy Loss they sustained in the many brave Officers and Men who fell in the Attempt: And I cannot doubt your Lordship will be happy to lay the Merit of their Exertions before the King, for His most gracious Approbation.

Copy of a Letter from Brigadier-General Arnold to Sir Henry Clinton, dated Sound, off Plum Island, September 8, 1781.

S I R,

IHAVE the Honor to inform your Excellency, that the Transports, with the Detachment of Troops under my Orders, anchored on the Long Island Shore on the 5th Instant, at Two o'Clock P. M. about Ten Leagues from New London; and, having made some necessary Arrangements, weighed Anchor at Seven o'Clock P. M. and stood for New London with a fair Wind. At One o'Clock the next Morning we arrived off the Harbour, when the Wind suddenly shifted to the Northward, and it was Nine o'Clock before the Transports could beat in. At Ten o'Clock the Troops in Two Divisions, and in Four Debarkations, were landed, one on each Side the Harbour, about Three Miles from New London; that on the Groton Side, consisting of the 40th and 54th Regiments, and the 3d Battalion of New Jersey Volunteers, with a Detachment of Yagers and Artillery, were under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Byre. The Division on the New London Side consisted of the 38th Regiment, the Loyal Americans, the American Legion, Refugees, and a Detachment of 60 Yagers; who were immediately on their Landing put in Motion; and at Eleven o'Clock, being within half a Mile of Fort Trumbull, which commands New London Harbour, I detached Captain Millett, with Four Companies of the 38th Regiment, to attack the Fort, who was joined on his March by Captain Frink, with One Company of the American Legion. About this Time I advanced, with the Remainder of the Division, West of Fort Trumbull, on the Road to the Town, to attack a Redoubt, which had kept up a brisk Fire upon us for some Time, but which the Enemy evacuated upon our Approach. In this Work we found Six Pieces of Cannon mounted, and Two dismounted: Soon after I had the Pleasure to see Captain Millett march into Fort Trumbull, under a Shower of Grape Shot from a Number of Cannon which the Enemy had turned upon him; and I have the Pleasure to inform your Excellency, that by the sudden Attack, and determined Bravery of the Troops, the Fort was carried with the Loss of only Four or Five Men killed and wounded.

wounded. Captain Millett had Orders to leave One Company in Fort Trumbull, to detach One to the Redoubt we had taken, and to join the with the other Two Companies. No Time, on my Part, was lost in gaining the Town of New London. We were opposed by a small Body of the Enemy, with One Field Piece, who were so hard pressed, that they were obliged to leave the Piece, which, being Iron, was spiked and left.

As soon as the Enemy were alarmed in the Morning, we could perceive they were busily employed in bending Sails, and endeavouring to get their Privateers and other Ships up Norwich River, out of our Reach; but the Wind being small, and the Tide against them, they were obliged to anchor again. From Information I received, before and after my Landing, I had Reason to believe that Fort Griswold, on Groton Side, was very incomplete; and I was assured, by Friends to Government, after my Landing, that there were only 20 or 30 Men in the Fort, the Inhabitants in general being on Board their Ships, and busy in saving their Property. On taking Possession of Fort Trumbull, I found the Enemy's Ships would escape unless we could possess ourselves of Fort Griswold: I therefore dispatched an Officer to Lieutenant Colonel Eyre, with the Intelligence I had received, and requested him to make an Attack upon the Fort as soon as possible, at which Time I expected the Howitzer was up, and would have been made Use of. On my gaining a Height of Ground in the Rear of New London, from which I had a good Prospect of Fort Griswold, I found it much more formidable than I expected, or than I had formed an Idea from the Information I had before received. I observed, at the same Time, that the Men who had escaped from Fort Trumbull had crossed in Boats, and thrown themselves into Fort Griswold, and a favorable Wind springing up at the same Time, the Enemy's Ships were escaping up the River, notwithstanding the Fire from Fort Trumbull, and a Six-Pounder which I had with me. I immediately dispatched a Boat with an Officer to Lieutenant Colonel Eyre, to countermand my first Order to attack the Fort; but the Officer arrived a few Minutes too late.

Lieutenant Colonel Eyre had sent Captain Beckwith with a Flag to demand a Surrender of the Fort, which was peremptorily refused, and the Attack had commenced. After a most obstinate Defence of near Forty Minutes the Fort was carried by the superior Bravery and Perseverance of the Assaultants. The Attack was judicious and spirited, and reflects the highest Honor on the Officers and Troops engaged, who seemed to vie with each other in being first in Danger. The Troops approached on three Sides of the Work, which was a Square with Flanks, made a Lodgement in the Ditch, and under a heavy Fire, which they kept upon the Works, effected a second Lodgement upon the Fraizing, which was attended with great Difficulty, as only a few Pickets could be forced out or broke in a Place, and was so high that the Soldiers could not ascend without assisting each other. Here the Coolness and Bravery of the Troops were very conspicuous, as the First who ascended the Fraize were obliged to silence a Nine-pounder, which enfiladed the Place on which they stood, until a sufficient Body had collected to enter the Works, which was done with fixed Bayonets through the Embrasures, where they were opposed with great Obstinacy by the Garrison with long Spears. On this Occasion I have to regret the Loss of Major Montgomery, who was killed by a Spear in entering the Enemy's Works; also of Ensign Whillock of the 40th Regiment, who was killed in the Attack. Three other Officers of the same Regiment were wounded: Lieutenant Colonel Eyre, and Three other Officers of the 54th Regiment were also wounded; but I have the Satisfaction to inform your Excellency, that they are all in a fair Way to recover.

Lieutenant Colonel Eyre, who behaved with great Gallantry, having received his Wound near the Works, and Major Montgomery being killed immediately after, the Command devolved on Major Bromfield, whose Behaviour on this Occasion does him great Honor. Lieutenant Colonel Baskirk, with the New Jersey Volunteers and Artillery, being the second Debarkation, came up soon after the Work was carried, having been retarded by the Roughness of the Country; I am much obliged to this Gentleman for his Exertions, although the Artillery did not arrive in Time.

I have inclosed a Return of the Killed and Wounded, by which your Excellency will observe that our Loss, though very considerable, is very short of the Enemy's, who lost most of their Officers, among whom was their Commander Colonel Ledyard. Eighty-five Men were found dead in Fort Griswold, and Sixty wounded, most of them mortally; their Loss on the opposite Side must have been considerable, but cannot be ascertained. I believe we have about Seventy Prisoners, besides the wounded, who were left paroled.

Ten or Twelve of the Enemy's Ships were burned, among them three or four armed Vessels, and one loaded with Naval Stores; an immense Quantity of European and West-India Goods were found in the Stores, among the former the Cargo of the Hannah, Captain Watson, from London, lately captured by the Enemy; the Whole of which was burnt with the Stores, which proved to contain a large Quantity of Powder unknown to us: The Explosion of the Powder and Change of Wind, soon after the Stores were fired, communicated the Flames to Part of the Town, which was, notwithstanding every Effort to prevent it, unfortunately destroyed.

Upwards of Fifty Pieces of Iron Cannon were destroyed in the different Works, (exclusive of the Guns of the Ships); a particular Return of which I cannot do myself the Honor to transmit to your Excellency at this Time.

A very considerable Magazine of Powder, and Barracks to contain 300 Men, were found in Fort Griswold, which Captain Lemoine of the Royal Artillery had my positive Directions to destroy; an Attempt was made by him, but unfortunately failed; he had my Orders to make a second Attempt; the Reasons why it was not done, Captain Lemoine will have the Honor to explain to your Excellency.

I should be wanting in Justice to the Gentlemen of the Navy, did I omit to acknowledge, that upon this Expedition I have received every possible Aid from them. Captain Bazely has made every Exertion to assist our Operations, and not only gave up his Cabin to the sick and wounded Officers, but furnished them with every Assistance and Refreshment that his Ship afforded.

Lord Dalrymple will have the Honour to deliver my Dispatches. I beg Leave to refer your Excellency to his Lordship for the Particulars of our Operations on the New London Side; I feel myself under great Obligations to him for his Exertions upon the Occasion.

Captain Beckwith, who was extremely serviceable to me, returns with his Lordship; his spirited Conduct in the Attack of Fort Griswold does him great Honor, being one of the first Officers who entered the Works. I beg Leave to refer your Excellency to him for the Particulars of our Operations on that Side, and to say I have the highest Opinion of his Abilities as an Officer.

I am greatly indebted to Captain Stapleton, (who acted as Major of Brigade) for his spirited Conduct and Assistance; in particular on the Attack upon Fort Trumbull, and his Endeavours to prevent plundering, (when the public Stores were burnt) and the Destruction of private Buildings.

The Officers and Troops in general behaved with the greatest Intrepidity and Firmness.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

On Board the Shuldam, September 8, 1781.

Extract of a Letter from Sir Henry Clinton to Lord George Germain, dated New York, September 26, 1781.

THE Day after I had closed my Dispatch of the 12th of September, I received a Letter from the Admiral, dated the 9th Instant, to inform me, that the Enemy being absolute Masters of the Navigation of the Chesapeak, there was little Probability of any Thing getting into York River but by Night, and an infinite Risk to any Supplies sent by Water; at the same Time acquainting me, that he had on the 5th a partial Action with the French Fleet of 24 Sail of the Line, and that the two Fleets had been in Sight of each other ever since; which making it inexpedient to send off the Reinforcement immediately, under such dangerous Circumstances, I thought it right to call a Council of the General Officers on the Subject, who unanimously concurred with me in Opinion, that it was most advisable to wait until more favourable Accounts from Rear-Admiral Graves, or the Arrival of Admiral Digby, rendered the Sailing of the Reinforcement less hazardous; but our Fleet having arrived at the Hook on the 19th, a Council of War, composed of the Flag and General Officers, was assembled as soon as possible, the Minutes of which will inform your Lordship, that the Exertions of both Fleet and Army shall be made to form a Junction with the Squadron and Army in Virginia. Rear-Admiral Digby arrived off the Hook the 24th Instant.

Lieutenant-Colonel Conway, of His Majesty's Foot Guards, after having served the Campaign in Virginia, came here lately, upon all active Operations ceasing in that Quarter; but, on hearing that the French were in the Chesapeak, was desirous, (though I had granted him Leave to go to Europe on his private Affairs) to return thither again, and wished to attend me on this Expedition: However, judging that he would be more useful by going Home, from his Knowledge of the Situation in which which he had left Lord Cornwallis, I have prevailed upon him to be the Bearer of my Dispatches to your Lordship; and I beg Leave to refer you to him.

Admiralty-Office, November 6, 1781.

Extract of a Letter from Rear Admiral Graves, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in North America, to Mr. Stephens, dated on Board the London, at Sandy Hook, the 26th of September, 1781.

WHEN my last Dispatch was made up, and sent away by the Medea, I had not received the several Accounts from the Chesapeake, which shew, that the French Fleet arrived off Cape Henry the same Day that Rear Admiral Sir Samuel Hood, with the Leeward Island Squadron, arrived off Sandy Hook. The Prudent, and several Frigates of the West India Squadron, with Dispatches for Rear Admiral Sir Samuel Hood, joined the Fleet as it was returning to the Hook.

The Inclosed from Captain Bazely, of the Amphion, will shew the Effect of the Descent upon New London.

The last Letters from Captain Biggs, of the Amphitrite, in Boston Bay, dated the 10th of September, mention his having taken, in Company with the General Monk, Four Prizes; and of his having, on the 4th, fallen in with Two French Ships off Cape Ann, one a Ship of the Line, the other a large Frigate, and was chased by them. Captain Biggs likewise acquaints me, that the Magicienne French Frigate had been taken by the Chatham, Captain Douglas, on the 2d Instant, off Cape Ann, and carried away for Halifax. In the Action the French lost 60 Men killed and 40 wounded; in the Chatham, 1 killed, 1 wounded.

Upon my Return to Sandy Hook with the Fleet, on the 20th, I was agreeably surprized to find that Three of the Pegasus's Convoy of Victuallers had arrived at New York.

The Arrival of Rear-Admiral Digby, on the Evening of the 24th, in the Prince George, with the Canada and Lion, gave the greatest Satisfaction.

The whole Fleet are as busy as they can be: Every Exertion of mine, and of every other Officer in the Fleet, I may venture to affirm, will not be wanting.

Extract of Captain Bazely's Letter, dated Amphion, off New London, September 8, 1781.

IHAVE the Satisfaction to inform you, that I arrived off this Port at Two A. M. on the 6th Instant, at which Time an unfortunate Change of Wind took Place directly out of the Harbour, which prevented my anchoring till Half past Six. I then disposed of the Armed Vessels and Transports agreeable to Brigadier-General Arnold's Wishes, in order to effect a Covering and Landing of the Troops, which was completed by Nine o'Clock. The Armed Vessels and Boats I immediately afterwards ordered, to be put in Preparation, under the Direction of Captain Shepherd of the Recovery, to proceed up the River, and act in Conjunction with the Army, at any Moment their Assistance was required, to aid in effecting the Destruction of the Port of New London, &c. agreeable to your Orders, which would have finally taken Place but for the Alarm-Guns, which were fired from the Forts at Day-Break; by this Means I was deprived of getting Hold of their Shipping at Anchor in the Stream, which, with most of those at the Wharfs, proceeded some Miles up the River, so far as to prevent, by any possible Means, my taking or destroying of them: Those remaining at the Wharfs were burned by the Army. The Ardour and determined Conduct shewn by the Troops in storming of the Forts deserves (in my Opinion) the highest Encomiums.

I am now proceeding, with all possible Dispatch, with the Armed Vessels and Transports, to New York: The Lurcher Armed Brig I have dispatched with General Arnold's Aid de Camp and Lieutenant Bunce of the Amphion, who will present you the Letter, to whom I beg Leave to refer you for any further Particulars.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Digby, to Mr. Stephens, dated Prince George, off Sandy Hook, September 25, 1781.

S I R,

YOU will receive herewith a Journal of the Proceedings of the Ships under my Command since I left England, by which, I hope their Lordships will be convinced, that there has not been a Moment's Loss of Time in endeavouring to get here, though I find the Lively Brig, who sailed after us, has been here some considerable Time.—I am now waiting with the Canada and Lyon to get over New-York Bar, but am afraid the Wind will not serve us To-day. However, as we are extremely healthy, and shall want very little, I make no Doubt we shall be ready as soon as great Part of the Fleet. The Perseverance, who separated from us some Days ago, I find is here.

I should have deferred Writing till I had got in, but understand there is some Vessel going immediately to England, and I am unwilling to miss the Opportunity of acquainting their Lordships of my safe Arrival. I am, &c.

ROBERT DIGBY.
