S I R, Salisbury, December 12, 1781.

FOR the Benefit of Others, and the Good of Mankind in general, I send you the Particulars of my Case, for you to publish them or not, as you think proper. In the Month of May last I was seized with a Vomiting, attended with cold Chills and a Fever, and soon after lost the Use of all my Limbs, and lay in a most deplorable Condition tion near Seven Week; in which Time I had Recourse to the Advice of an eminent Physician, and took Variety of Medicines; that were prescribed for me from Time to Time, but all to no Purpose, and was at length so exceedingly bad, that I many Times was thought to be dying. In this seemingly irrecoverable State, I was advised to take Dr. Norris's Drops, which I did, and by the Blessing of God they gave me surprizing Relief; for in Two or Three Days I could move my Limbs, and in a Fortnight was able to walk my Room with Crutches, and am now, and have been for some Time, to the Astonishment of all who knew the dismal Situation I was in; quite recovered, and as well as ever; which I am ready to satisfy any one of, whom you may think proper to recommend to me, that shall in the least doubt the Truth of it.

I am your humble Servant,
SARAH SPAGGS.
