P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Lord Viscount Bulkeley, of the Kingdom of Ireland, to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Carnarvon, his Lordship this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Whitehall, February 2, 1782.

Extract of a Letter from Sir Henry Clinton to the Right Honourable Lord George Germain, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, dated New York, December 11, 1781.

I Have the Honor to inclose the Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant Colonel Stewart to Earl Cornwallis, with its Inclosures, dated September 9th, the Day after the Action at Eutaw Springs.

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant Colonel Stewart to Earl Cornwallis, dated Eutaw. Sept. 9, 1781.

M Y L O R D,

WITH particular Satisfaction I have the Honour to inform your Lordship, that on the 8th Instant I was attacked by the Rebel General Greene with all the Force he could collect in this Province and North Carolina; and, after an obdurate Engagement which lasted near two Hours, I totally defeated him and took 2 Six-Pounders.

SOON

[ Price Seven-Pence. ]

Soon after I had the Honor of writing your Lordship from Thomson's, I received Information of Greene's having moved with the Rebel Army towards Camden, and crossed the Wateree near that Place; and, from the best Intelligence I could collect, was on his March to Friday's Ferry on the Congaree.

The Army under my Command being much in Want of Necessaries, and there being at the same Time a Convoy with Provisions on the March from Charles-Town, which would have necessarily obliged me to make a Detachment of at least 400 Men (which at that Time I could ill afford, the Army being much weakened by Sicknefs) to meet the Convoy at Martin's, 56 Miles from my Camp; the Distance being so great, a smaller Escort was liable to fall by the Enemy's Cavalry, which are very numerous.

I therefore thought it advicable to retire by slow Marches to the Eutaws, where I might have an Opportunity of receiving my Supplies, and disencumber myself of the Sick, without risking my Escorts, or suffer myself to be attacked at a Disadvantage, should the Enemy have crossed the Congaree.

Notwithstanding every Exertion being made to gain Intelligence of the Enemy's Situation, they rendered it impossible, by way-laying the By-Paths and Passes through the different Swamps; and even detained different Flags of Truce which I had sent on public Business on both Sides.

About Six o'Clock in the Morning I received Intelligence by two Deserters, who left General Greene's Camp the preceding Evening about 7 Miles from this Place; and, from their Report, the Rebel Army consisted of near 4000 Men, with a numerous Body of Cavalry, and 4 Pieces of Cannon.

In the mean Time I received Information by Major Coffin, whom I had previously detached with 140 Infantry and 50 Cavalry, in Order to gain Intelligence of the Enemy, that they appeared in Force in his Front, then about Four Miles from my Camp.

Finding the Enemy in Force so near me, I determined to fight them, as from their numerous Cavalry, a Retreat seemed to me to be attended with dangerous Consequences: I immediately formed the Line of Battle, with the Right of the Army to the Eutaw Branch, and its Left crossing the Road leading to Roache's Plantation, leaving a Corps on a commanding Situation to cover the Charles-Town Road, and to act occasionally as a Reserve.

About Nine o'Clock the Action began on the Right, and soon after became general.

Knowing that the Enemy were much superior in Numbers, and at the same Time finding that they attacked with their Militia in Front, induced me not to alter my Position, unless I saw a certain Advantage to be gained by it: For by moving forwards, I exposed both Flanks of the Army to the Enemy's Cavalry, which I saw ready formed to take that Advantage, particularly on the Left, which obliged me to move the Reserve to support it.

By some unknown Mistake, the Left of the Line advanced, and drove their Militia and North Carolinians before them; but unexpectedly finding the Virginian and Maryland Lines ready formed, and at the same Time receiving a heavy Fire, occasioned some Confusion. It was therefore necessary to retire a little Distance, to an open Field, in order to form, which was instantly done, under Cover of a heavy and well-directed Fire, from a Detachment of New York Volunteers under the Command of Major Sheridan, whom I had previously ordered to take Post in the House, to check the Enemy should they attempt to pass it.

The Action was renewed with great Spirit; but I was sorry to find that a Three-pounder, posted on the Road leading to Roache's, had been disabled, and could not be brought off when the Left of the Line retired.

The Right Wing of the Army being composed of the Flank Battalion, under the Command of Major Marjoribanks, having repulsed and drove every Thing that attacked them, made a rapid Move to their Left, and attacked the Enemy in Flank; upon which they gave Way in all Quarters, leaving behind them 2 Brafs Six-pounders, and upwards of 200 killed on the Field of Action, and 60 taken Prisoners, amongst which is Colonel Washington; and, from every Information, about 800 wounded, although they contrived to carry them off during the Action. The Enemy retired with great Precipitation to a strong Situation, about Seven Miles from the Field of Action, leaving their Cavalry to cover their Retreat. The Glory of the Day would have been more compleat, had not the Want of Cavalry prevented me from taking the Advantage which the Gallantry of my Infantry threw in my Way.

I omitted to inform your Lordship, in its proper Place, of the Army's having for some Time been much in Want of Bread, there being no old Corn or Mills near me. I was therefore under the Necessity of sending out Rooting Parties from each Corps, under an Officer, to collect Potatoes every Morning at Day-Break; and unfortunately that of the Flank Battalion and Boffs, having gone too far in Front, fell into the Enemy's Hands before the Action began, which not only weakened my Line, but increased their Number of Prisoners.

Since the Action our Time has been employed in taking Care of the Wounded; and finding that the Enemy have no Intention to make a Second Attack, I have determined to cover the Wounded as far as Monk's corner with the Army.

My particular Thanks are due to Lieutenant-Colonel Cruger, who commanded the Front Line, for his Conduct and Gallantry during the Action; and to Lieutenant Colonel Allen, Majors Dawlson, Stewart, Sheridan, and Coffin, and to Captains Kelly and Campbell, commanding the different Corps and Detachments; and every other Officer and Soldier fulfilled the separate Duties of their Stations with great Gallantry: But to Major Marjoribanks, and the Flank Battalion under his Command, I think the Honor of the Day is greatly due. My warmest Praise is due to Captain Barry, Deputy-Adjutant-General, Major-Brigade Coxon, Lieutenant Ranken, Assistant Quarter Master General, and to Acting Major of Brigade Roorback, for the great Assistance they rendered me during the Day.

I hope, my Lord, when it is considered such a Handful of Men, attacked by the united Force of Generals Greene, Sumpter, Marion, Sumner, and Pickens, and the Legions of Colonels Lee and Washington, driving them from the Field of Battle, and taking the only 2 Six-pounders they had, deserve some Merit.

Inclosed is the Returns of the killed, wounded, and missing, of His Majesty's Troops.

From the Number of Corps and Detachments which appears to have been engaged, it may be supposed our Force great; but your Lordship will please to observe, that the Army was much reduced by Sicknefs, and otherwise. I hope your Lordship will excuse any Inaccuracy that may be in this Letter, as I have been a good deal indisposed by a Wound which I received in my Left Elbow, which, though slight, from its Situation is troublesome. It will give me most singular Pleasure if my Conduct meets with the Approbation of His Majesty, that of your Lordship, and my Country.
