Preston, February 12, 1782.

THIS is to give Notice, that the Guild-Merchant for the Borough of Preston in the County Palatine of Lancaster, will be opened with the usual Solemnity, at the Town Hall in Preston aforesaid, on Monday the 2d Day of September next ensuing, being the first Monday after the Feast of the Decollation of St. John the Baptist; when and where all Persons having or claiming to have any Right to Freedom or other Franchises of the same Borough, whether by Ancestry, Prescription, or Purchase, are to appear by themselves, or their Proxies sufficiently authorized, to claim and make out their several Rights thereto, otherwise they will, according to ancient and immemorial Usage, forfeit the same, and be barred thereof. And it is further required, that at the Time and Place aforesaid all and every Person and Persons that have been born since the said Guild-Merchant, (and claim a Right to Freedom of the said Borough by being Sons of Freeman of the said preceding Guild) do and shall produce, by themselves or their Proxies, true and authentic Certificates of their Names, Ages, and Places of Abode, the better to make out and ascertain their said Right.

RICHARD ATHERTON, Mayor.

WHEREAS Mr. Joseph Cooke, late of Hampstead in the County of Middlesex, departed this Life the 27th Day of November, 1781, and by his last Will (after various other Bequests) devised in the following Words:

"I will and direct, that all the Rest and Residue of my Estate and Effects whatsoever and wheresoever, which I shall not otherwise dispose of by any Codicil or Codicils to be by me hereafter made, shall be equally divided between or amongst all my Cousins German once removed by my Father's Side, (if any) and Second Cousins on the same Side, living at the Time of my Decease, (I believe they are now living in or about Northamptonshire or Leicestershire) who shall prove themselves so to be to the Satisfaction of my Executors, within One Year next after my Decease; and in case there shall be but One, then the Whole to go and be paid to such only One. And I request my Executors to make the most diligent Enquiry in their Power, for the Discovery of such of my Kindred by my Father's Side. And I do hereby declare my Will to be, that my Executors shall be fully justified in paying and dividing the aforesaid Residue to, between, or amongst such of my said Cousins German once removed, and Second Cousins, by my Father's Side, as shall apply to them within One Year after my Decease as aforesaid, to the entire Exclusion of all those who shall neglect or omit so to do."

The Executors of the said Mr. Joseph Cooke do therefore hereby give Notice to all Persons who are related to the said Mr. Cooke in the Degrees mentioned in the Clause of his Will above-recited, to send forthwith a State of their respective Claims (in Writing) to John Bowdler, Esq; in Fitzpurs-street, Red-lion-square, London; or to Mr. Pares, Attorney at Law, at Leicester. And all Persons who are indebted to the said Mr. Cooke's Estate, or have any Demand thereon, are desired to apply as above.
