S I R,

FOR many Years I have been constantly troubled, at the Fall, with a bilious Disorder in my Stomach and Bowels, for which I had frequent Advice, and took variety of Medicines, but without Effect; so I sent my Case to a Physician in Town, whom I had before consulted, and desired him to let his Apothecary make up his Prescription, and send it me down, which he did, and I took it accordingly, and found Relief for a little Time, but still my Disorder returned, and I was rather worse than better, which induced me to go to Town, and consult him again; when, after my telling him what little good Effect his former Prescription had, he altered it, and ordered other Medicines to be taken and continued, which I complied with, and found myself at first taking them a little Easier for a short Time, but last Autumn I was worse than ever. I grew thin and lost both my Spirits and Appetite to such a Degree, that I did no Business with Pleasure, and loathed even the Sight of Food. While in this very bad Way, I happened to call in upon a Friend, who perceiving me much out of Order, asked me what was the Matter: I told him the Nature of my Complaint, and that I had Advice for it for some Time, both in London and the Country, and was then taking the Doctor's Prescription, but found only a little temporary Relief; upon which he recommended me to try your Drops: I told him I had never heard they were good for my Disorder; he assured me he had been informed of many who had been long troubled with bilious Complaints, entirely cured by them in a very little Time, which induced me to try them, and accordingly I began taking them immediately, a Table Spoonful at a Time, in a small Wine Glass of cold Water, Night and Morning, and finding myself getting better very fast, I continued them for some Days, and was surprisngly relieved. I then was advised, in order that the Drops might work a more speedy and effectual Cure, to take a dry Puke, which I did, and in about four or five Days after took another, still continuing the Drops, which I have the Pleasure to tell you have set me up, and I am now, I bless God, as well as ever I was in my Life, which I am thus particular in acquainting you of, for the Good of others who may be afflicted with my Complaint, which in all Probability would have been fatal to me, had I not fortunately been prevailed on to take your Drops, which from the extraordinary Cure they have wrought upon me, in so short a Time, I can't help thinking them an almost infallible Remedy for bilious Disorders; and am, Sir,

Your very humble Servant,

St. Ann's-street, Salisbury,
