CLAUSE in an Act passed in the 22d Year of His Majesty's Reign for a Lottery in Ireland: "Be it further enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, that every such Contributor or Adventurer, or other Person who shall become intitled to any Prize or Prizes in said Lottery, shall receive from the proper Officer or Officers of your Majesty's Treasury the Amount of the Sum contained in his Prize, in Ready Money, without any Deduction, Defalcation, or Abatement whatsoever; the same to be paid on Demand at any Time from and after the First Day of January, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty-three."

H. T. Clements, Dep. Vice-Treasurer.

THE Partnership between Francis Standford and James Goding, of Knightsbridge, Middlesex, Coopers, Hoop-benders, and Brandy-merchants, was, by mutual Consent, dissolved on the 24th of December last. All Persons who have any Claim or Demand on the said Partnership are desired forthwith to send in the same, and all Persons indebted thereto are desired to pay their Debts, to Mr. James Goding, of Knightsbridge aforesaid; who most respectfully acquaints his Friends and Customers, that he carries on the said respective Trades at the same Place, and hopes for the Continuance of Favours.

*Francis Standford.
Ja. Goding.*

THE Copartnership between John Roper and John Standfast, No. 113, Borough High-street, Southwark, Grocers, carried on under the Firm of Roper and Standfast, being on the 26th Day of March last dissolved by mutual Consent; Notice is hereby given, that all Debts due to and from the said Copartnership are, by the Consent of the said Parties, to be received and discharged by the above-mentioned John Roper. Witness our Hands, this 5th Day of April, 1782.

*John Roper.
John Standfast.*

Southwark, April 5, 1782.

JOHN Roper, Grocer, No. 113, Borough High-street, Southwark, takes the Liberty of returning his most sincere Thanks to his Friends and the Public in General for their past Favours, and begs Leave to inform them, that (as the Partnership between him and Mr. Standfast is dissolved) he continues to carry on the Business on his own Account; where their future Favours will be duly attended to, and gratefully acknowledged.

JOHN Standfast begs Leave to return his sincere Thanks to his Friends for past Favours, and to inform them and the Public in General, that he has opened a Shop at No. 15, Borough High-street; where their future Commands will be thankfully acknowledged.
