

and able Landmen, for the Service of Our Navy, to be approved and registered as aforesaid.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Third Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, in the Twenty-second Year of Our Reign.

G O D Save the K I N G.

War-Office, April 29, 1782.

HIS Majesty has been pleased to order, that over and above the usual Bounty Money of THREE GUINEAS allowed to Recruits at the Time of Inlisting, every Man who, on or after the 13th Day of May next, shall enlist with any Regular Corps of Infantry, shall receive, on his Arrival at the Quarters of the Regiment, and on being approved by the Commanding Officer thereof, the further Sum of THREE GUINEAS: And each Soldier, so hereafter inlisted and approved, shall receive another GUINEA at the End of Twelve Months from the Time of his being approved; and One more GUINEA at the End of the Second Twelve Months, if he continue so long in the Service without deserting.

The Men who shall enlist with the Recruiting Parties of Regiments on Foreign Stations, or with any of the Independent Companies, are to be entitled to receive the First additional Bounty of THREE GUINEAS on their Arrival at Chatham, or such other Place in Great Britain as they shall be ordered to; and on their being approved there by the Inspector-General of the Recruiting Service, or such other Officer as may be appointed for that Purpose.

By His Majesty's Command,
THO. TOWNSHEND.

War-Office, May 4, 1782.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the King, That there are at this Time many DESERTERS from the Regular Corps in His Majesty's Land Service, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of His Majesty's Gracious PARDON; and that such an Instance of His Royal Clemency would have a due Influence on their future Behaviour: His Majesty is pleased to grant His Free PARDON to all DESERTERS from His Regular Land Forces, who shall surrender themselves before the 17th Day of June next, either to the Regiments to which they belong, or to some other Regular Corps in His Majesty's Land Service, or to any Additional Company or Recruiting Party thereof in Great-Britain or Ireland.

Such Deserters, if able-bodied Men and fit for Service, shall be attested in the Corps to which they surrender; and not be liable to be claimed by any other Corps to which they may formerly have belonged.

And whereas many of the said Deserters have enlisted in other Corps, and are now serving therein; His Majesty is graciously pleased to extend to such Deserters the Benefit of this Pardon, and to direct that they shall continue to serve in the Corps wherein they now are, not being Militia; and they shall not be liable to be claimed by that in which they formerly served.

And whereas several of the said Deserters have been apprehended, and are now in Goal, or in Regimental Custody; His Majesty is likewise pleased to grant them His Free Pardon, of which they are to have the Benefit upon their Arrival at their respective Regiments, or upon their being attested in some other Regular Corps or Recruiting Party.

Any Soldier who may desert, after these His Majesty's most Gracious Intentions are made Public, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost Severity.

By His Majesty's Command,
THO. TOWNSHEND.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 24, 1782.
