The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint his Grace Harry Duke of Bolton to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Southampton, and of the Town of Southampton and County of the same, his Grace this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th of May, 1782,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 14th of December last, to order, that the Prohibition at that Time subsisting upon the Exportation, or carrying of Copper Coastwise, should be continued for Six Months, to commence from the 22d Day of December last: And whereas it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, on Behalf of the several Companies of Copper Smelters within the Kingdom in Great Britain, that the Prohibition of the Export of Sheet Copper, as directed by the said Order, has been very detrimental to the Petitioners and to the Trade of this Kingdom in general: His Majesty taking the same into Consideration, and being ever desirous to remove all Obstructions upon Trade, so far as may be consistent with sound Policy, is hereby pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to permit and allow Copper in Sheets, weighing less than Twelve and more than Forty Ounces to the Foot superficial, to be carried Coastwise or exported to any Parts beyond the Sea, to which the same may be lawfully exported, upon Condition, that all such Copper be inspected and examined by an Agent or Agents appointed or to be appointed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; and that a Certificate, under the Hand and Seal of the said Agent or Agents shall be first had and obtained, setting forth, that no Part of such Copper consists of Sheets weighing more than Twelve Ounces and less than Forty Ounces inclusive to the Foot superficial; which Certificate from the said Agent shall be delivered to the proper Officers of the Customs at the Port in which the said Copper is intended to be shipped, and shall be their Authority for allowing the Quantity of Copper specified in the said Certificate to be put on Board, in order to be carried Coastwise or exported: And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to permit and allow the Exportation as aforesaid of Copper in Sheets weighing more than Twelve Ounces and less than Forty Ounces inclusive to the Foot superficial; provided that the same shall consist of Pieces not exceeding Four Pounds Weight in any one Piece; and that a Certificate thereof be obtained in Manner above directed, before such Copper be laden or put on Board; and also to permit the carrying Coastwise of Copper in Sheets weighing more than Twelve Ounces and less than Forty Ounces inclusive to the Foot superficial; upon Condition that no more than Five Hundred Weight of such Copper shall be shipped by any one Person or Partnership, and that the Quantity put on Board any one Ship or Vessel shall not exceed Ten Hundred Weight in the Whole, unless Security by Bond hath first been given to the proper Officers of His Majesty's Customs, in Treble the Value of such Copper, to carry the same to the Places proposed, and none other; and to produce and deliver a Certificate or Certificates, within Two Months from the Date of the Bond, from the proper Officers of the Customs at the Ports for which any such Copper shall be entered and cleared out, of the same having been all duly landed at such Ports; which Certificate or Certificates such Officer is hereby required to give; and the same Certificate or Certificates the Commissioners of the Customs are hereby required to transmit to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in order to be laid before this Board. And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

aidence; and to whom we look for the Restoration of the Blessings of Peace and good Government.

We return our unfeigned Thanks for your Majesty's most gracious Disposition to alleviate the Burthens of an extensive War by your paternal Example, and for your Recommendation of an effectual Plan of Economy through all the Branches of publick Expenditure; and we feel the highest Satisfaction in your Majesty's Assurance, that your Majesty has no Reserves with your People. So patriotick a Declaration from our Sovereign cannot fail to establish the most perfect Harmony and Unanimity, to confirm the Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain, and effectually to promote the Interest and Prosperity of all your Majesty's Dominions.

William Middleton, High Sheriff.

One of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Warwick, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMPELLED by the tenderest and warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's illustrious Person and Family, we, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, beg Leave to approach your Throne with all Humility and Reverence, to express our Joy and Gratitude to your Majesty, for having been graciously pleased to call to your Councils those Persons, whose Virtues, Integrity, and Abilities, have rendered them so conspicuously and deservedly eminent, as to restore that mutual Confidence between your Majesty's Ministers and your People, which is essentially necessary to the Security and Welfare of the Nation.

From the patriotic, virtuous, and inflexible Conduct of such Ministers, we doubt not but that Concord, Union, and Harmony will revive in all your Majesty's Dominions, which will cause the Power and Dignity of the British Crown to shine forth again with an admired Lustre in every Part of the Globe.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City, this 1st Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-two.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the City of Norwich, has been presented to the King by Sir Harbord Harbord, Bart. One of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants, of the City of Norwich and County of the same, in Common-Hall assembled, the Second Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-two.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH the warmest Sentiments of undissimulated Loyalty, and the firmest Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the City of Norwich, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne:

The Change which your Majesty has been pleased to make in your Councils, and the Termination of those Measures which we have contemplated with Dread; and laboured under with peculiar Hardship and Distress, are Instances of your Majesty's gracious and paternal Attention to the Wishes and Welfare of your People, which we cannot receive with sufficient Gratitude; or acknowledge in Terms of too much Admiration and Applause.

When we reflect on the Abilities, the Zeal, and the Integrity of those Men whom your Majesty has appointed to the various important Trusts in the Administration of your Government; when we reflect also on the spontaneous Dictates of your Royal Generosity and Benignity, and the great Regard you have shewn to the Ease of your Subjects, in recommending to both Houses of Parliament the Effecting a Reform through every Department of the State;—we cannot too strongly express the Pleasure our Hearts experience in the Hope, that Britain may yet rise superior to her surrounding Difficulties; that her Enemies may be humbled; and her Sons, united by the Ties of Liberty and Loyalty, may secure to themselves and Posterity the Hanoverian Succession, and the transcendent Blessings of a free Constitution, unto the latest Period of Time.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,
Ja. Crowe, Chairman.
