St. James's, May 21.

THE following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Norfolk, has been presented to the King by Sir Edward Ashley, Bart. and Thomas William Coke, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk, at a Meeting held in the Shire-House, on the Sixth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, pursuant to Notice for that Purpose given by the High Sheriff of the said County.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, with the most humble Assurances of Attachment to your Royal Family and Government, and at the same Time to intreat your Majesty to accept our unfeigned Thanks for having graciously complied with the Wishes, and relieved the Apprehensions of your People, by that Change which your Majesty, in your Wisdom, has thought proper to make in your Majesty's Councils.

We acknowledge, with the warmest Gratitude, your Majesty's benevolent Intentions to relieve your Subjects from the Calamities incident to a lingering and disastrous War, by intrusting the Administration of Public Affairs to Men possessed of the Confidence of the People, and who have ever considered a Reconciliation with the revolted Colonies of America as essential to the Welfare and Prosperity of Great Britain.

We cannot but feel truly sensible of the late gracious Instance of your Majesty's benign Attention to the present Distresses of the Nation, in recommending Economy through the several Branches of the Public Expenditure, a most valuable Testimony of your Majesty's Favor, and a Confidence reposed in your faithful Subjects, by which your Majesty must ever reign in the Hearts of your most grateful People.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,
Henry Hobart, Chairman.

The following Address of the Citizens of Peterborough, has been presented to the King by Richard Benyon, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Citizens of Peterborough, in their Town Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Citizens of Peterborough, beg Leave to express our warmest Thanks to your Majesty for having graciously complied with the Wishes of you People.

[Price Seven-Pence.]

We do also thank your Majesty, for recommending to your Parliament, a Plan of Economy through all the Branches of public Expenditure; and for taking into your Royal Consideration, a Reform and Regulation of your Civil List.

Warmed with Gratitude for these your gracious Intentions, we are ready to stand to, maintain and defend, your Royal Person and Family, your Crown and Dignity, to the utmost of our Power; not doubting but the distinguished Abilities of your Majesty's Ministers, will restore Dignity to your Crown, Unity to your People, and promote the Interest and Prosperity of all your Dominions.

[Signed by 295 Names.]

The following Address of the Electors of the Ancient Town and Borough of Southwark, has been presented to the King by Nathaniel Polhill, Esq; and Sir Richard Hotham, Knt. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Electors of the Ancient Town and Borough of Southwark, assembled at a General Meeting in the Town Hall.

S I R E,

WE your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Electors of the Ancient Town and Borough of Southwark, beg Leave to address your Majesty on the present important Occasion, to testify our most sincere and zealous Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government, and humbly to express our warmest Thanks to your Majesty for having complied with the Wishes of your People, in making a Change in your Majesty's Councils, and taking those Persons into your Confidence who are respected by their Country for their Constitutional Principles and distinguished Abilities, and whose Endeavours, we trust, with the Blessings of Providence, will restore Peace to the Empire, Dignity to your Majesty's Crown, Union among your People, and promote the Interest and Prosperity of all your Dominions.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,
Nath. Polhill, Chairman.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Derby, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord John Cavendish, One of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Derby in

in the County of Derby, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Derby, in Common-Council assembled, humbly presume to approach your Throne with Sentiments of the most sincere Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person and Family.

Your Majesty's Generosity and Greatness of Mind, in expressing a Desire to both Houses of Parliament, that the Burthens of the Subject may be alleviated, by reducing, within just and due Bounds, the Public Expenditure, and the noble Example your Majesty wishes to set to your Subjects, by adopting a Plan of Economy in a Reform of the Civil Establishment, calls for our warmest Acknowledgements, and gives us the fullest Assurance of your Majesty's paternal Care.

We also beg Leave to express our deep Sense of your Majesty's gracious Attention to the Interests of your People, in calling to your Councils, at this important Crisis, those Persons on whose constitutional Principles and distinguished Abilities we place the most perfect Reliance.

From our Confidence in the Integrity of such Men, we found a reasonable Hope of a favorable Change of Measures; and we now flatter ourselves, that the late Success of your Fleet (of which we sincerely congratulate your Majesty) is a Presage of the happy Consequences that will accrue from the Wisdom of your Majesty's Arrangements, and the vigorous Conduct of upright Ministers, supported by the unanimous Voice of the People.

Such powerful Exertions cannot fail, under the Auspices of Heaven, to restore Superiority and Lustre to your Majesty's Arms, promote the real Dignity of the Crown, and the Happiness of all your faithful Subjects.

Given under Our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in the Borough aforesaid, this Fourth Day of May, in the Twenty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Nottingham has been presented to the King by Robert Smith and Daniel Parker Coke, Esquires, Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Nottingham, in Common Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of your ancient and loyal Corporation of Nottingham, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person at this Time of general Satisfaction, which has spread itself in your Majesty's Dominions, and to join with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects in presenting our sincere and grateful Thanks to your Majesty for the Testimony of paternal Regard for your People, which your Majesty has lately shewn in condescending to meet their Wishes, by the Appointment of Ministers, so much distinguished for their Abilities and Integrity, to surround your Throne and aid your Councils, at so critical and important a juncture. So distinguished a Mark of your Majesty's Wisdom and Affection for your People in such a Choice, and at the same Time signifying your gracious Desire that a Reformation may be made in your Civil Establishment, cannot but make a grateful and lasting Impression on the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, and is to them a happy Presage of a general National Economy and Reform, and must tend to inspire them with the strongest Confidence, that your Majesty has at Heart the true Happiness and Prosperity of your

People, and that your Councils will be always directed by the most prudent Means to those Ends, and make them zealously and cheerfully contribute, to the utmost of their Power, to the strengthening your Majesty's Government, and to support all those wise Measures that may be adopted for the bringing about a safe and honourable Peace, and unite all your Majesty's Subjects in a perfect Bond of Affection towards your Majesty, your Illustrious House, and to each other, and be the Means of fixing those Blessings on a permanent and solid Foundation.

That your Majesty's Councils may be always aided by able and faithful Ministers; and that your Majesty may long reign over a free and loyal People, and continually behold your own Happiness and that of all your Subjects daily increasing and adding fresh Satisfaction to your Royal Mind, and Honour and Glory to your Reign, is the sincere and earnest Desire of us your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the Town of Nottingham, this Tenth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-two.

Robert Seagrave, Town Clerk.

The following Address of the President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Court of Assistants, and Body, of the Artillery Company of the City of London, has been presented to the King by Colonel Sir Watkin Lewes, Knt. Lieutenant-Colonel Alderman Newnham, Major Alderman Turner, and Captain Henry Smith, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Court of Assistants, and Body of your Majesty's Artillery Company of the City of London, in General Court assembled, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the truest Zeal for the Honor of the Crown, and warmest Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family.

We lament the Necessity of a longer Continuance of the present War; we abhor the ambitious and hostile Designs of the inveterate Enemies of our Country; we feel ourselves called upon at this awful Period, as loyal and Dutiful Subjects, to declare to your Majesty our Readiness to assist in the Defence of the Person of our August Sovereign, our Liberties, and Laws.

Our Zeal and Attachment to our King and Constitution, would induce us to make the most unlimited Offers of Service, if we were not compelled to represent to your Majesty, that our various Avocations in civil Life require a constant Residence in and near this City; and therefore we humbly hope your Majesty will be pleased to accept of our most strenuous and active Exertions, as a military Body without Pay, in such Manner as your Majesty shall be graciously pleased to command, for the Defence of the Metropolis and its Environs.

Signed by Order of Court,

Armoury-House,

Peter Longes, Clerk.

St. James's, May 21.

The King has been pleased to grant to William Smith, Esq; the Office of Treasurer and Pay-Master of His Majesty's Ordnance.

By the KING,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,

For apprehending Thomas Lewin, Esquire.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS, on the First Day of this Instant May, Complaint being made to the House of Commons, that Lewin, Esquire, (late Secretary secretary to the Council at Madras, at the Time John Whitehill, Esquire, was Governor of that Presidency) having been ordered by the Committee of Secrecy, appointed to enquire into the Causes of the War that now subsists in the Carnatic, and of the present Condition of the British Possessions in those Parts, to attend the said Committee on the preceding Day, and also on the First Day of this Instant May, had neglected so to do; it was thereupon ordered by the said House of Commons, that Thomas Lewin, Esquire, should be taken into Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending the said House of Commons: And whereas the said Serjeant at Arms having been called upon to give an Account of what had been done in relation to the taking the said Thomas Lewin, Esquire, and the Messenger who was sent in Search of him being called in and examined; and having acquainted the House that he had withdrawn himself and was not taken, an humble Address has been presented to Us by the Knights, Citizens, and Burghesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, in Parliament assembled, that We would be graciously pleased to issue Our Royal Proclamation for apprehending the said Thomas Lewin, with a Promise of a Reward for the same; We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby requiring and commanding all Our loving-Subjects whatsoever, to discover and apprehend, or cause the said Thomas Lewin to be discovered and apprehended, and to carry him before some of Our Justices of the Peace, or Chief Magistrates of the County, Town, or Place, where he shall be apprehended, who are respectively required to secure the said Thomas Lewin, and thereof give speedy Notice to One of Our Principal Secretaries of State, to the End he may be forthcoming to be dealt withal and proceeded against according to Law.—And for the Prevention of an Escape of the said Thomas Lewin into Parts beyond Seas, We do require and command all Our Officers of the Customs, and other Our Officers and Subjects of and in Our respective Ports, and Maritime Towns and Places within Our Kingdom of Great Britain, that they and every of them, in their respective Places and Stations, be careful and diligent in the Examination of all Persons that shall pass or endeavour to pass beyond the Seas, and if they shall discover the said Thomas Lewin, then to cause him to be apprehended and secured, and to give Notice thereof as aforesaid: And We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving-Subjects, as they will answer the contrary at their Perils, that they do not any ways conceal, but do discover him the said Thomas Lewin, to the End he may be secured: And for the Encouragement of all Persons to be diligent and careful, in endeavouring to discover and apprehend the said Thomas Lewin, We do hereby further declare, that whosoever shall discover and apprehend the said Thomas Lewin, and shall bring him the said Thomas Lewin before some Justice of the Peace, or Chief Magistrate as aforesaid, shall have and receive, as a Reward for the discovering, apprehending, and bringing the said Thomas Lewin before such Justice of the Peace, or Chief Magistrate as aforesaid, the Sum of Five Hundred Pounds, which Our Commissioners of Our Treasury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Seventeenth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, in the Twenty-second Year of Our Reign.

G. O. D. save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th of May, 1782,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 15th of February last, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire on the 23d Day of this Instant May: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, except in those Cases where (for the Benefit and Advantage of Trade, and for the Use and Defence of Ships trading to Foreign Parts, and of the Transports and Victualling Vessels employed in His Majesty's Service) His Majesty, by His several Orders in Council of the 13th and 27th of October, and of the 6th and 22d of November, 1775, of the 5th and 19th of February, and the 23d of August and 25th of September, 1776, of the 16th of April, the 13th of August, and the 3d and 10th of October, 1777, of the 19th of June, the 7th and 26th of August, and the 10th of September, 1778, and of the 17th of May, 1780, has thought proper to permit and allow the Exportation of, and carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Saltpetre, Arms and Ammunition, under certain Conditions and Restrictions mentioned in the said Orders: His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master-General, Lieutenant-General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance, for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Three Months, to commence from the said 23d Day of this Instant May, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, except in the Cases comprized within the aforementioned Orders in Council, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the 29th Year of His late Majesty's Reign, entituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Saltpetre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Saltpetre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition."—And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Faulkner.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 24, 1782.

WHEREAS it is supposed that several Persons, who have heretofore been appointed Gentlemen of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Chamber in Ordinary, may, since the last Return in June, 1777, be dead or removed from their Places of Residence; That it may appear to the Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, who of them are remaining alive, his Grace is pleased to direct, that all such do, on or before the 31st Day of July, 1782, transmit to Charles Herbert, Esq; Secretary, at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's, an Account of their present Places of Residence.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 21, 1782.

SUCH Ladies as desire to dance Minuets at the Ball which is to be at St. James's on Tuesday the 4th of June next, are requested to send their Names and Rank, in Writing, to this Office;

Office, on or before Saturday the 1st of June, and to send for their Tickets the Monday following, between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon.

N. B. No Attendance will be given at this Office on the Day of the Ball, after Two o'Clock.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 21, 1782.

TO prevent the Inconveniencies which have arisen from the Space before Their Majesties, which is allotted for Minuet Dancing, being exceedingly crowded, it is requested that those Ladies only who mean to dance will send for Dancers Tickets, and sit in those Places, as the Seats have been found too few to accommodate the Dancers.

Admiralty-Office, May 14, 1782.

WHEREAS many Seamen have, from Time to Time, inconsiderately deserted His Majesty's Service, by leaving the Ships they belonged to, as they could find Opportunity for so doing, or, having been put on Shore Sick from His Majesty's Ships, either into Hospitals or Sick Quarters, have made so ill a Return to the Care taken for their Healths as to desert from His Majesty's Service, when so far recovered as to be able to withdraw themselves from the said Hospitals or Sick Quarters; for which Crimes they have incurred the Loss of their Wages, and are punishable with Death by a Court Martial: But my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty being willing to impute such Desertion into a Rashness which most of them soon repent of, and believing that they would return to their Ships, were it not from Apprehensions of Punishment; in order therefore to remove such Apprehensions, and encourage them to return to their Duty, there Lordships do hereby declare, That if any Persons who have deserted as aforesaid shall, on or before the Thirtieth Day of June next, return to the Ships to which they did belong, or, in case those Ships are gone Abroad, enter themselves on Board some other of His Majesty's Ships, they shall not be punished in any Manner whatsoever, on Account of the Crimes they have committed in withdrawing themselves from His Majesty's Service as aforesaid, excepting such as have been guilty of Mutiny, or any other notorious Crimes: And, as a further Encouragement, their Lordships are pleased to declare, that such as shall so return shall have their R's taken off, and be paid their Wages for the Ships from which they respectively deserted; but their Lordships do also think fit to declare, that all Persons under the above-mentioned Circumstances, who do not make a proper Use of the Indulgence hereby offered them, will be strictly sought after, and, (in case they are apprehended) brought to a Court Martial, and treated as the Law directs.

Pb. Stephens.

Admiralty-Office, May 14, 1782.

WHEREAS there are at this Time several Deserters from the different Divisions of His Majesty's Marine Forces, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of Pardon, and that such Instance of Clemency would have due Influence on their future Behaviour; My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, in order to encourage them to return to their Duty, and to remove their Apprehensions of the Punishment due to their Crime, do hereby give Notice, that such of the said Deserters as shall surrender themselves at any of the aforesaid Divisions at Portsmouth, Plymouth, or Chatham, or to any Recruiting Party of the Marines in Great Britain or Ireland, on or before the 30th Day of June next, will receive His Majesty's Free Pardon.

And whereas several of the said Deserters have been apprehended and are now in Goal or Military Custody, their Lordships do hereby further give Notice, that His Majesty's Free Pardon will be extended to them also, of which they are to have the Benefit upon their Arrival at any of the Marine Head-Quarters.

And any Marine who may desert after this Public

Notice of His Majesty's most gracious Intentions, will not be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost Severity.

Pb. Stephens.

War-Office, April 29, 1782.

HIS Majesty has been pleased to order, that over and above the usual Bounty Money of THREE GUINEAS allowed to Recruits at the Time of Inlisting, every Man who, on or after the 13th Day of May next, shall enlist with any Regular Corps of Infantry, shall receive, on his Arrival at the Quarters of the Regiment, and on being approved by the Commanding Officer thereof, the further Sum of THREE GUINEAS: And each Soldier, so hereafter enlisted and approved, shall receive another GUINEA at the End of Twelve Months from the Time of his being approved; and One more GUINEA at the End of the Second Twelve Months, if he continue so long in the Service without deserting.

The Men who shall enlist with the Recruiting Parties of Regiments on Foreign Stations, or with any of the Independent Companies, are to be entitled to receive the First additional Bounty of THREE GUINEAS on their Arrival at Chatham, or such other Place in Great Britain as they shall be ordered to; and on their being approved there by the Inspector-General of the Recruiting Service, or such other Officer as may be appointed for that Purpose.

By His Majesty's Command,
THO. TOWNSHEND.

War-Office, May 4, 1782.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the King, That there are at this Time many DESERTERS from the Regular Corps in His Majesty's Land Service, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of His Majesty's Gracious PARDON; and that such an Instance of His Royal Clemency would have a due Influence on their future Behaviour: His Majesty is pleased to grant His Free PARDON to all DESERTERS from His Regular Land Forces, who shall surrender themselves before the 17th Day of June next, either to the Regiments to which they belong, or to some other Regular Corps in His Majesty's Land Service, or to any Additional Company or Recruiting Party thereof in Great-Britain or Ireland.

Such Deserters, if able-bodied Men and fit for Service, shall be attested in the Corps to which they surrender; and not be liable to be claimed by any other Corps to which they may formerly have belonged.

And whereas many of the said Deserters have enlisted in other Corps, and are now serving therein; His Majesty is graciously pleased to extend to such Deserters the Benefit of this Pardon, and to direct that they shall continue to serve in the Corps wherein they now are, not being Militia; and they shall not be liable to be claimed by that in which they formerly served.

And whereas several of the said Deserters have been apprehended, and are now in Goal, or in Regimental Custody; His Majesty is likewise pleased to grant them His Free Pardon, of which they are to have the Benefit upon their Arrival at their respective Regiments, or upon their being attested in some other Regular Corps or Recruiting Party.

Any Soldier who may desert, after these His Majesty's most Gracious Intentions are made Public, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost Severity.

By His Majesty's Command,
THO. TOWNSHEND.

War-Office, May 8, 1782.

IT is His Majesty's Pleasure, That all absent Officers belonging to Regiments in England, do immediately join their respective Corps; those excepted cepted who are employed on the Recruiting Service.

By His Majesty's Command,

T H O. T O W N S H E N D.
