St. James's, May 21.

THE following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Norfolk, has been presented to the King by Sir Edward Ashley, Bart. and Thomas William Coke, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk, at a Meeting held in the Shire-House, on the Sixth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, pursuant to Notice for that Purpose given by the High Sheriff of the said County.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, with the most humble Assurances of Attachment to your Royal Family and Government, and at the same Time to intreat your Majesty to accept our unfeigned Thanks for having graciously complied with the Wishes, and relieved the Apprehensions of your People, by that Change which your Majesty, in your Wisdom, has thought proper to make in your Majesty's Councils.

We acknowledge, with the warmest Gratitude, your Majesty's benevolent Intentions to relieve your Subjects from the Calamities incident to a lingering and disastrous War, by intrusting the Administration of Public Affairs to Men possessed of the Confidence of the People, and who have ever considered a Reconciliation with the revolted Colonies of America as essential to the Welfare and Prosperity of Great Britain.

We cannot but feel truly sensible of the late gracious Instance of your Majesty's benign Attention to the present Distresses of the Nation, in recommending Economy through the several Branches of the Public Expenditure, a most valuable Testimony of your Majesty's Favor, and a Confidence reposed in your faithful Subjects, by which your Majesty must ever reign in the Hearts of your most grateful People.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,
Henry Hobart, Chairman.

The following Address of the Citizens of Peterborough, has been presented to the King by Richard Benyon, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Citizens of Peterborough, in their Town Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Citizens of Peterborough, beg Leave to express our warmest Thanks to your Majesty for having graciously complied with the Wishes of you People.

[Price Seven-Pence.]

We do also thank your Majesty, for recommending to your Parliament, a Plan of Economy through all the Branches of public Expenditure; and for taking into your Royal Consideration, a Reform and Regulation of your Civil List.

Warmed with Gratitude for these your gracious Intentions, we are ready to stand to, maintain and defend, your Royal Person and Family, your Crown and Dignity, to the utmost of our Power; not doubting but the distinguished Abilities of your Majesty's Ministers, will restore Dignity to your Crown, Unity to your People, and promote the Interest and Prosperity of all your Dominions.

[Signed by 295 Names.]

The following Address of the Electors of the Ancient Town and Borough of Southwark, has been presented to the King by Nathaniel Polhill, Esq; and Sir Richard Hotham, Knt. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Electors of the Ancient Town and Borough of Southwark, assembled at a General Meeting in the Town Hall.

S I R E,

WE your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Electors of the Ancient Town and Borough of Southwark, beg Leave to address your Majesty on the present important Occasion, to testify our most sincere and zealous Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government, and humbly to express our warmest Thanks to your Majesty for having complied with the Wishes of your People, in making a Change in your Majesty's Councils, and taking those Persons into your Confidence who are respected by their Country for their Constitutional Principles and distinguished Abilities, and whose Endeavours, we trust, with the Blessings of Providence, will restore Peace to the Empire, Dignity to your Majesty's Crown, Union among your People, and promote the Interest and Prosperity of all your Dominions.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,
Nath. Polhill, Chairman.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Derby, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord John Cavendish, One of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Derby
