St. James's, May 25.

THE following Address of the Electors of the City and Liberty of Westminster has been presented to the King by John Sawbridge, Thomas Wood, and Thomas Byron, Esquires, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

S I R E,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Electors of the City and Liberty of Westminster, beg Leave to address your Majesty on the present important Occasion, to testify our most sincere and zealous Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government, and humbly to express our warmest Thanks to your Majesty, for having complied with the Wishes of your People, in making a Change in your Majesty's Council, and taking those Persons into your Confidence, who are respected by their Country for their Constitutional Principles and distinguished Abilities, and whose Endeavours, we trust, with the Blessing of Providence, will restore Peace to the Empire, Dignity to your Majesty's Crown, Union among your People, and promote the Interest and Prosperity of all your Dominions.

John Sawbridge, Chairman.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Surry, has been presented to the King by Abraham Pitches, Esq; Sheriff, and Sir Joseph Mawbey, Bart. One of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surry, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the most sincere Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and humbly to express our warmest Thanks to your Majesty, for having graciously descended to remove from your Councils those Ministers, who had deluded your Majesty and the Nation into the present calamitous and unfortunate War with our Brethren in America; and for having placed your Confidence in those Men, who are respected by their Country for their Wisdom and Integrity.

From this happy Change in your Majesty's Councils, and from the great Regard you have shewn to the Ease of your Subjects, in recommending to both Houses of Parliament an effectual Reform in your Civil Establishment, we derive the most pleasing Hopes, that the Efforts of your faithful Subjects, guided and directed by your Majesty's present Ministers, will, with the Blessing of Providence, restore the Dignity of your Crown, and promote the Interest and Prosperity of all your Dominions.

Signed, by Order of a General County Meeting, held at Epsom the 20th of May, 1782,

Abraham Pitches, Sheriff.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, has been presented to the King by the Earl of Ludlow, One of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Huntingdon, unanimously approved of at a General Meeting, summoned by the High Sheriff, at Huntingdon, on the 14th Day of May.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, desire your Majesty to accept our Thanks for having graciously complied with the Wishes of your People, by removing from your Councils those Men, under whose Administration Calamities, so many and so great, have befallen your Kingdoms.

The Constitutional Principles and tried Abilities of your Majesty's present Ministers have gained them the Esteem of their Country; and we consider their Appointment as a Proof of your Majesty's paternal Regard for the Welfare of your People.

We have seen, with Sentiments of the most lively Gratitude, your Majesty's Solitude to alleviate the Burthen of your People, by recommending to Parliament a System of Publick Economy; and satisfied that, under your Majesty's auspicious Government, that System will be carried into Effect, and the Constitution secured by eradicating every Species of undue Influence; we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment, and our full Confidence, that the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils will redeem the Honour, and restore the Prosperity, of all your Dominions.

Signed as the unanimous Act of this County Meeting, by

H. P. Standely, High Sheriff.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, has been presented to the King by Benjamin Caldwell, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Gentlemen, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, justly impressed with the warmest Sentiments of Affection, Loyalty and Ready Attachment to your Royal Person, Family and Government, with all Humility and Reverence beg Leave to approach your Throne.

The Right Honourable the Earl of Shelburne, One of your Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by his Letter to the Mayor of this Corporation, has communicated to us your Royal Will and Gracious Desire, that your faithful Subjects in the Principal Towns and Cities of this Kingdom do form themselves into Battalions and Companies of Volunteer Corps, thereby to raise a formidable Force
