

Honourable George Rodney, One of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeffes and Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, actuated by an inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, beg Leave to offer our hearty Congratulations on the late important Advantages gained by your Majesty's Arms, and more particularly on the glorious Victory obtained by that gallant and experienced Officer Sir George Bridges Rodney, in the West Indies.

Surrounded as we are by Enemies, we have the utmost Confidence, that, by your Majesty's paternal Care, the Wisdom of Government, the Unanimity of your People at Home, and by the determined Resolution and Bravery of your Fleets and Armies Abroad, your Majesty, with the Assistance of Divine Providence, will be at length enabled to accomplish the well-known benevolent Wish of your Heart, a just and honourable Peace.

The following Address of the Chief Magistrates and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Lewes, has been presented to the King by Henry Blackman, Esq; One of the Chief Magistrates, and Thomas Kemp, Esq; One of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chief Magistrates and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Lewes in the County of Suffex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chief Magistrates and Inhabitants of the Borough of Lewes, in our Town-Hall assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, and humbly to express our most grateful Thanks for your having taken into Consideration and graciously complied with the Wishes of your People, by proposing a Plan of Reformation in the Publick Expenditure, and by removing your late Ministers, and taking those Persons into your Royal Confidence, who are respected by their Country for their Constitutional Principles, Integrity, Zeal, and distinguished Abilities; and whose Endeavours, we hope, will restore Dignity to your Majesty's Crown, Unanimity among your People, and promote the true Interest and Prosperity of all your Dominions; and to assure your Majesty, that there are not, in all your Majesty's Dominions, any Subjects more sincerely attached to your Royal Person and Family, or more ready to maintain the true Honor and Dignity of your Crown.

The following Address of the Free Burgeffes and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Colchester, has been presented to the King by Sir Robert Smyth, Bart. One of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Free Burgeffes and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Colchester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH great Concern for the present Situation of our Country, and with a high Veneration for it's Constitution, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Free Burgeffes and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Colchester, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmest Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, to offer our most thankful Acknowledgements for that Instance of paternal Affection your Majesty has shewn to your People, in gratifying their Wishes, and removing their Apprehensions, in this Time of Trial and Danger, by an Alteration in your Majesty's Councils, and the Servents of the Crown.

We gratefully own the Goodness which influenced your Majesty to adopt a Measure, that inspires us with the sanguine Hope of it's retrieving our Misfortunes, increasing our Resources, and contributing to the general Safety and Liberty of the Empire.

We cannot but express our heart-felt Satisfaction in the Choice your Majesty has been pleased to make of Persons who have inflexibly adhered to the Principles of our excellent Constitution, who are possessed of those Abilities, and directed by that disinterested Zeal and Love for their Country, which, we trust, with the Blessing of Divine Providence, will restore Peace and Prosperity to all your Dominions.

Upon this Occasion we are particularly bound to acknowledge the Attention and Regard your Majesty has manifested to the Expenditure of the Publick Money, by so graciously recommending, both by Advice and Example, that Plan of Oeconomy and Reform, which cannot fail to alleviate the Burthens, and to excite the Applause and Confidence of all your Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the Borough of Ripon, has been presented to the King by the Honourable Frederick Robinson, and William Laurance, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the Borough of Ripon in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, and of the Gentlemen and Clergy residing in the said Borough.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the Borough of Ripon, in Common Council assembled, and the Gentlemen and Clergy residing in the said Borough, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most heart-felt Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government; and to testify our most grateful Acknowledgements to your Majesty for having graciously received into your Confidence and Councils, those Men, whose Constitutional Principles and Integrity fully entitle them to your Royal Approbation; and whose distinguished Abilities qualify them in every Respect to render most essential Services to their Country, at this awful Moment of Difficulty and Danger.

Your Majesty's most gracious Recommendation to Parliament, of an effectual Plan of Oeconomy through all the Branches of Publick Expenditure, and your unreserved Reliance on your People, as the best Support of the true Honour and Dignity of your Crown and Government, fill our Minds with the warmest Gratitude; and cannot fail to secure to your Majesty the united Strength and Affections of all your faithful Subjects.

We embrace with Pleasure, the earliest Opportunity of laying before your Majesty, our most unfeigned Congratulations for the late important Successes of your Majesty's Naval Forces in the West and East Indies; and we humbly hope, that the signal Victory obtained over the French by Admiral Sir George Bridges Rodney, Baronet, and the Fleet under his Command, will, in its Consequences,
