AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th of June, 1782,

P R E S E N T,
The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been found necessary, During the present Hostilities with France, Spain and the States General of the United Provinces, by temporary Laws which are now in Force, to suspend in some Degree the Regulations prescribed by an Act of Parliament made in the 12th Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, entitled, An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation; and to permit divers Goods and Commodities to be imported into this Kingdom, and the Kingdom of Ireland, in Foreign Vessels, although such Goods are not shipped and brought directly from the Place or Country of their Growth, Production or Manufacture, or from the Ports or Places from whence such Goods are or usually have been first shipped for Transportation: And whereas it has been represented unto His Majesty, that some of the said Foreign Vessels, laden with such Goods and Commodities, and destined to Great Britain or Ireland, have been seized by some of His Majesty's Ships, or Private Commissioned Ships, and proceeded against in the Courts of Admiralty; and that such of the Goods laden on Board some of the said Foreign Vessels, as have appeared to be the Property of His Majesty's Subjects, have been condemned in the said Courts of Admiralty as lawful Prize, by Reason of their having been laden in the Territories or Dominions of some of His Majesty's Enemies:—His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby declare, that such Goods and Commodities, the Property of His Majesty's Subjects, as shall be laden in Foreign Vessels, and destined to be imported into this Kingdom, or the Kingdom of Ireland, under the Authority and Permission of the aforesaid temporary Laws, shall, from henceforth, be free and protected from Seizure and Detention by any of His Ships of War, or Private Commissioned Ships, in the same Manner as Goods, the Property of Subjects of Foreign States in Amity with His Majesty, which are laden on Board the said Ships. And in Case any of the said Foreign Ships, with their Cargoes, shall hereafter be seized and brought into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of Ireland, by any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or other Commissioned Ships, or Ships or Vessels the Property of any of His Majesty's Subjects, and shall be brought to Adjudication in any Court of Admiralty; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby further order and declare, that such of His Majesty's Subjects as are the lawful Owners of any Goods laden on Board any of the said Foreign Vessels, which shall be so brought in and proceeded against in any Court of Admiralty, shall be at Liberty to claim them in the said Court of Admiralty; and the said Goods shall be decreed to be restored to them, upon Proof made that they are the lawful Owners thereof, notwithstanding that the same were shipped and laden within the Dominions or Territories of any of the Powers with whom His Majesty is at War.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th of June, 1782,

P R E S E N T,
The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Robert Spencer, commonly called Lord Robert Spencer, was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Dublin Castle, May 27.

THE Houses of Lords and Commons having resolved upon humble Addresses to His Majesty, the same, together with Addresses from both Houses to the Lord Lieutenant, were this Day presented to his Excellency, and, with his Excellency's Answers, are as follow:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most unfeigned Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and of our most grateful Sense of your paternal Care, manifested in your your immediate Attention to the Representations of your Majesty's Subjects of this Kingdom.

We cannot sufficiently express the lively Sense we entertain of your Majesty's gracious Intentions towards this Kingdom, the Wisdom and sound Policy of your Majesty's Councils, and the Justice of the British Legislature, in having concurred to remove the Causes of the Discontents and Jealousies expressed in the late Addresses presented to your Majesty; which Measures, we assure your Majesty, have most effectually answered the Purposes intended thereby, and, when accomplished, will gratify the utmost Wishes of your Majesty's faithful Subjects of this Kingdom.

We request your Majesty will accept our warmest Congratulations upon the important and decisive Victory gained by your Majesty's Fleets over those of the common Enemy in the West Indies, and the signal Advantages obtained by your Majesty's Arms in the Island of Ceylon, and upon the Coast of Comorandel; Successes which will teach your Majesty's Enemies, that the Justice of your Cause, supported by the Valour of your People, will defeat those dangerous Combinations which they have formed against the Liberties of Mankind, and will tend to promote that most desirable Object, a permanent and honourable Peace.

We are well convinced that your Majesty, regarding all your Subjects with one and the same paternal Affection, and considering their mutual Interests as inseparably connected and united, will at all Times exercise your Royal Prerogative in such a Manner as may be most conducive to their Welfare.

We receive with Gratitude your Majesty's most gracious Declaration, that you will give your Royal Assent to such Acts as may be necessary to prevent the Suppression of Bills in the Privy Council of this Kingdom, and the Alteration of them any where; and to an Act to limit the Duration of the Act for the better Regulation and Accommodation of your Majesty's Forces in this Kingdom to the Term of Two Years.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are fully sensible of the Magnanimity of your Majesty, and of the Wisdom of your Parliament of Great Britain, in seconding your Majesty's most gracious Intentions to this Kingdom, without any Stipulation or Condition whatsoever; and that your Majesty may have the firmest Reliance upon the Good Faith, Generosity, and Honor of this Nation; that as it is their undoubted Interest, so it is their warmest Wish, to promote and perpetuate the Harmony, Stability, and Glory of the British Empire; and that the same Spirit, which induced them to assert their Right to share the Freedom of Great Britain, will confirm them in a Determination to share her Fate also, standing and falling with the British Nation.

Wm. Watt Gayer, } Cler. Parliament.
Ed. Gayer,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeses, in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Affection to your Royal Person and Government; and that we feel most sensibly the Attention which our Representations have received from the Magnanimity of your Majesty, and the Wisdom of the Parliament of Great Britain.

We assure your Majesty, that we conceive the Resolution for an unqualified, unconditional Repeal of the Sixth of George the First to be a Measure of consummate Wisdom and Justice, suitable to the Dignity and Eminence of both Nations, exalting the Character of both, and furnishing a perpetual Pledge of mutual Amity.

We assure your Majesty, that we are sensibly affected by your virtuous Determination to accede to the Wishes of your faithful People, and to exercise your Royal Prerogative in a Manner most conducive to their Welfare; and accordingly we shall immediately prepare Bills to carry into Execution the Desires of your Majesty's People, and your own most benevolent Purposes.

Gratified in those Particulars, we do assure your Majesty, that no Constitutional Question between the Two Nations will any longer exist, which can interrupt their Harmony; and that Great Britain, as she has approved of our Firmness, so may she rely on our Affection. We do remember, and do repeat our Determination, to stand and fall with the British Nation.

We perceive with Pleasure the Magnanimity of your Majesty disclaiming the little Policy of making a Bargain with your People; and feeling, with Pride, the Confidence your Majesty reposes in the Good Faith, Generosity, and Honor of the Irish Nation, we answer, with all Humility, that your Majesty entertains a just Sense of our Character.— Common Interest, perpetual Connection, the recent Conduct of Great Britain, a Native Affection to the British Name and Nation, together with the Constitution which we have recovered, and the high Reputation which we possess, must ever decide the Wishes as well as the Interest of Ireland, to perpetuate the Harmony, Stability, and Glory of the Empire.

We assure your Majesty that we learn, with singular Satisfaction, the Account of your brilliant Successes in the East and West Indies, gratified at one and the same Instant in our dearest Wishes, the Freedom of Ireland and Glory of Great Britain.

We cannot omit expressing our Gratitude to your Majesty for appointing the Duke of Portland to the Government of this Kingdom; We are convinced his Representations were faithful, vigorous, and beneficial; we are acquainted with his Character; and, relying on his upright and frugal Administration, make no Doubt that a free People and an uncorrupt Parliament, will unite to give a Constitutional Chief Governor decided Support.

We have presumed to lay before your Majesty, our genuine Sentiments on the Change of our Situation; your Majesty will receive them as the voluntary unstipulated Tribute of a Free and Grateful People.

Tho. Ellis, Cler. Parl. Dom. Com.

To his Grace William Henry Cavendish, Duke of Portland, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, return your Grace our most sincere Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

We beg Leave to assure your Grace, that we feel ourselves at this Time particularly called upon to express our Acknowledgments of His Majesty's paternal Care in appointing a Chief Governor, from whose personal Character, illustrious Descent, and well known political Principles, we have every Reason to expect an Upright and Constitutional Administration, and whose Government has commenced by the Establishment of our Liberty; to which glorious Event your Grace's wise and faithful Representations have greatly contributed.

We beg Leave to assure your Grace, that we have a just Sense of your Attention in communicating to us the grateful Intelligence in your Grace's Speech, and in laying before this House the Resolutions of the British Parliament, in Obedience to His Majesty's Direction.

Your Grace may be assured, that the same Spirit, which urged this Country to share the Freedom of Great Britain, will determine us to share her Fate also; and that we shall at all Times be ready to stand and fall with the British Nation.

And we cannot conclude without assuring your Grace, that the Impression made upon this Country by your Conduct will be as lasting as her Constitution; and that while the Spirit of Liberty remains in Ireland, your Grace's Name will be remembered.

Wm. Watt Gayer, } Cler. Parliament.
Edw. Gayer,

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Answer:
My Lords,

I Received with singular Satisfaction your kind and affectionate Address. The Zeal which dictated my humble Representations has received the most ample Reward, if they have contributed permanently to reconcile the Interests, and indissolubly to cement the Affections of Great Britain and Ireland. I am confident, that to have secured this happy End is to have secured the Existence and the Prosperity of the Two Countries, and that the Spirit of Freedom, which both equally share, will give Vigor and Efficacy to their united Exertions, and prove no less grateful and auspicious to the Friends, than it must be formidable to the Enemies of the British Empire.

To his Grace William Henry Duke of Portland, Lord Lieutenant General and General Govern-nor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to express our most unfeigned Acknowledgments for your excellent Speech from the Throne; and we do beseech your Grace to be assured, that these are not the trite Expressions of mere formal Duty, but the pure Effusions of a genuine Gratitude from a free People to a Chief Governor, who has announced from the Throne the Ratification of their Freedom. Descended from a Line of Constitutional Ancestors, inheriting their Principles with their Blood, the Appointment of your Grace to the Government of this Country was an Earnest given by a beneficent Prince of those gracious Intentions which he has since so fully manifested to his People; and amidst the entire satisfaction which we experience from the important Information which your Grace has been pleased to communicate, we cannot but rejoice that the Name of Bentinck, so intimately connected with the great Era of British Liberty, will be handed down to the latest Posterity inseparably blended with the full and perfect Establishment of the Constitution of Ireland.

And we have the best-founded Expectations, that a Nobleman, in whose Virtues both Countries have the justest Confidence, will for ever cement those friendly and affectionate Dispositions, which it is her earnest Wish should at all Times mutually continue between the Two Countries.

(Signed) Tho. Ellis, Cler. Parl. Dom. Com.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Answer:
Gentlemen,

I Return you my most sincere Thanks for your kind and affectionate Address, and receive with singular Pleasure your animated and honorable Expressions of Gratitude and entire Satisfaction arising from those Declarations, which the benign Wisdom of His Majesty, and the British Parliament, has enabled me to make from the Throne. I shall think myself fortunate indeed if the Period of my Administration of this Country shall prove the Era of reciprocal and inseparable Affection between Great Britain and Ireland; an Era sacred to every Friend, as it is formidable to every Enemy of the British Empire.

St. James's, June 5.

THIS Day the Right Honourable the Lord-Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household) with the following Address, which was read by James Adair, Esq; the Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, impressed with Sentiments of the warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and Zeal for the Honor of your Crown, and Prosperity of all your Majesty's Dominions, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne with the most hearty Congratulations for the late glorious Successes in which it has pleased the Divine Providence to bless your Majesty's Arms in different Quarters of the World.

We trust, that under the Blessing of the same Providence, the Valor of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, directed by the Wisdom of your Councils, and the good Conduct of those able Commanders you have been pleased to set over them, will pursue the important Advantages already obtained with Vigor and Success.

And we flatter ourselves, that we shall have the heart-felt Satisfaction of seeing the Splendor of your Crown restored, the wonted Superiority of your Royal Navy over all your Enemies re-established, and the General Tranquility and Welfare of the British Dominions completely secured, by terminating a glorious and successful War with a safe and honourable Peace.

Signed, by Order of Court,

William Rix.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most Gracious Answer:

I Return you My hearty Thanks for your loyal and affectionate Congratulations upon the late glorious Successes in different Quarters of the World. The intrepid Valour of My Fleets and Armies, and the Conduct and Courage of My Officers, were never more conspicuous than they have appeared on the late Occasions. It is however to the Blessing of Almighty God that We owe these Victories.

I trust that the vigorous Exertions of a firm and united People, together with the new Resources that have presented themselves to increase My Force both by Sea and Land, and above all the Divine Protection of My just Cause, will enable Me to terminate the War upon fair and honourable Terms.

My good City of London may be assured of My constant Attention to their Commerce and Happiness.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Southampton, has been presented to the King by Sir Thomas Miller, Bart. being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Southampton, humbly beg your Majesty's Acceptance of our most grateful Thanks, for having called to your Councils at this important Crisis those Persons, whose Constitutional Principles and Public Conduct have merited the Confidence of your People. And we should be wanting in that Duty we owe to our Sovereign, if we did not express our warmest Gratitude to your Majesty, for your gracious Attention to the Distresses of your People, in recommending to your Parliament a System of Public Economy.

We beg Leave to add our most sincere Congratulations to your Majesty, on the late very signal and important Victories of your Majesty's Arms in different Parts of the Globe.

Permit us, Sire, to assure your Majesty of our most inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Family; and that we will cheerfully support whatever necessary Burthens may be imposed upon us, in order to maintain the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, and to restore Peace and Prosperity to all your Dominions.

Thomas Miller, Chairman.

Whitehall, June 8, 1782.

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant-General Sir Eyre Coote, Knight of the Bath, dated Fort St. George, January 28, 1782, received at the Office of the Earl of Shelburne, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, June 4.

AFTER the Action with Hyder Ally, on the 11th of July, my next Object was to march to the Northward, in order to effect a Junction with the Bengal Detachment, and in the Way to relieve Vandiwash, which was invested by a Detachment under Tippo Saib, who had begun to raise Batteries, and to make other necessary Preparations for a Siege. My Movements had the desired Effect, as Tippo Saib, upon hearing of my Approach, drew off, and took the Route by Gingee, by which Road Hyder was also supposed to have moved towards Arcot.

On the 26th of July I arrived with the Army at the Mount, marched again on the 31st, and on the 3d of August happily effected the Junction with the Bengal Detachment, and returned to the Mount on the 5th, where the Whole encamped.

On the 16th the whole Army marched from the Mount.

On the 20th I laid Siege to Tripaffore, and on the 23d in the Morning it surrendered on Terms of Capitulation. The Acquisition was of Consequence, and happening at the Time it did, was a most fortunate one, as the Advance of Hyder's Army, coming to the Relief of the Besieged, had in that very Moment appeared in Sight, and there only remained in Camp One Day's Rice.

By Means of the Paddy which we found in the Fort, I was enabled to serve out a few Days Subsistence to the Troops; and hearing that Hyder was in full Force, at the Distance of about Sixteen Miles, I resolved to march towards him; but before I could attempt it, I found it necessary to draw some Rice from Pondamalee; which having done, I marched on the 26th, in order to engage the Enemy, as the only Hope that appeared to me left, from whence we might stand a Chance of surmounting our Difficulties.

Hyder, on my advancing, thought proper to fall back a few Miles to the Ground on which he had defeated the Detachment under Colonel Baillie, where he took up a very strong Position; and, influenced from a superstitious Notion of its being a lucky Spot, had determined, as I was informed by my Intelligence, to try his Fortune in a Second Battle. I accordingly marched, on the 27th in the Morning, towards him; and, as reported, about Eight o'Clock we discovered his Army in Order of Battle, and in full Force to receive us, and in Possession of many strong and advantageous Posts, rendered the more formidable by the Nature of the Country lying between, which was intersected by very deep Water-Courses. In short, nothing could be more formidable than the Situation of the Enemy, and nothing more arduous than our Approach. To present a Front to them, I was obliged to form the Line under a very heavy Cannonade from several Batteries, as well as from the Enemy's Line, which galled us exceedingly, and was a very trying Situation for the Troops, who bore it with a Firmness and undaunted Bravery which did them the highest Honour, and shewed a steady Valour, not to be surpassed by the first Veterans of any Nation in Europe. The Conflict lasted from Nine in the Morning till near Sun-set, when we had drove the Enemy from all their strong Posts, and obliged them to retreat with Precipitation, leaving us in full Possession of the Field of Battle. Our Loss on this Occasion was heavier than on the 1st of July, and that of the Enemy less, owing to their having sheltered themselves under Cover of Banks of Tanks, and other Grounds which they possessed favourable for that Purpose. General Stuart had the Misfortune to lose his Leg by a Cannon Shot, whilst bravely conducting the Second Line to the Support of a Post which I had occupied at the Commencement of the Engagement, and on which the Enemy had kept up a very severe Fire. The same Shot also carried away the Leg of Colonel Brown; and, having caused his Death, deprived the Company of a very old and faithful Servant, and the Army of an able and experienced Officer. Captain Hislop, one of my Aid de Camps, a very active and spirited Officer, was killed by a Cannon-Shot.

On the 27th of September, near Sholingur, I discovered Hyder's Encampment, and, from the Disposition which I could perceive he had made of his Troops, I was satisfied that he meant to give Battle. It was about Noon when I gave the Orders for striking our Encampment, and for the Army to march: My Orders were obeyed with a Degree of Expedition and Alacrity beyond all Expectation; for although the Enemy were posted at least Five Miles off, from whence they did not advance nearer, the Armies were engaged before Four o'Clock, and by Evening Hyder was completely routed.

Our Loss on this Occasion was very trifling, whilst the Enemy's was very considerable both in Cavalry and Infantry. We had but One Subaltern Officer killed, none wounded, and about 100 Rank and File killed, wounded and missing.

After relieving Vellore on the 4th of November, which in Four or Five Days more must either have been evacuated or given up to the Enemy, I proceeded to Chittor, to which I laid Siege on the 8th, and it capitulated on the 10th.

Vellore being once more in Distress for Provisions, it was necessary that the Army should again march to its Relief.

Having made our Arrangements, the Army marched on the 2d Instant towards Vellore. The Enemy had assembled in Force on the Western Banks of the Poni River, but on our approaching near, which was on the Evening of the 9th, they decamped, and retreated with Precipitation towards Lallapet; and left us to take up their Ground in Quiet, distant about 12 Miles from our Place of Destination. On the following Morning, at Ten o'Clock, when the Army was crossing a deep Morass, our Rear and Left Flank were attacked by a distant Cannonade from the Enemy, whose different Manœuvres were evidently with a View to impede our Progress to Vellore, and to attack our Baggage and Convoy. Having been completely foiled in all their Attempts to that End, they thought proper to retire about Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, after having kept up a heavy Fire for about Four Hours. Our Loss on this Occasion was killed 1 Lieutenant, 19 Native Non-Commissioned Rank and File, and Four Horses—Wounded, 2 Lieutenants, 2 European Rank and File, 1 Souhedan, and 35 Non-Commissioned Native Rank and File—Missing, 1 European Rank and File, 4 Natives, and 1 Horse.

After the Enemy had retired, I prosecuted my March, and encamped for the Night within about Four Miles of Vellore. We arrived there the following Morning, being the 11th, the very Day to which I had been pre-advised by the Commanding Officer of the Garrison the Provisions would last. A Halting Day had become absolutely necessary for the Refreshment of the Troops, and Draught and Carriage Cattle, having come upwards of Seventy Miles in Five Days, so that I did not commence my March back until the 13th, on which Day Hyder appeared in full Force, and chose again to make an Attack by a distant Cannonade, when our Army was crossing the same marshy Ground where he attacked us on the 10th in going. About Four o'Clock in the Afternoon the Whole had got clear over the Swamp, and, having posted the Baggage with a proper Guard, I formed the Line, and advanced upon the Enemy with all the Expedition the Nature of the Ground would admit of; upon which the Enemy gave Way, and retreated with Precipitation. We pursued them till dark, and not without Execution, as we kept up an advancing Fire upon upon them. It being impossible to do more, we returned to our Ground of Encampment, where we arrived about Midnight. Our Loss on this Occasion was very trifling, only 1 Officer wounded, and about 60 Rank and File killed, wounded and missing.

Colonel Crawford, of His Majesty's 73d Regiment, having had my Leave to return to Europe, will have the Honour of delivering your Lordship this Letter,

I should do Injustice to the high Sense I entertain of Colonel Crawford's Merit as an Officer, did I omit on this Occasion mentioning how much he has acquitted himself to my Satisfaction, and with Honour and Credit to himself, in the whole Course of a most trying Campaign. He was next in Command to me at the Battle of Sholingur, on which Occasion his Conduct was deserving of the highest Applause.

I have had Occasion to make favourable Mention of Lieutenant-Colonel Owen for distinguished Conduct in resisting, with a small Detachment, the united Efforts of the Whole of Hyder's Army. Permit me the Liberty of once more recurring to him as an Officer of great Military Abilities; he has acquitted himself to my highest Satisfaction, and has rendered essential Services to the Public in the Course of the Campaign.
