THE following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Middlesex, has been presented to the King by John Wilkes, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Middlesex, desire your Majesty to accept our Thanks for having complied with the Wishes of your People, by removing from your Councils those Men, under whose Administration Calamities, so many and so great, have befallen your Kingdom; and by appointing your Majesty's present Ministers, in whom their Country had and are willing to have the fullest Confidence.

We have seen, with Sentiments of the most lively Gratitude, your Majesty's Solicitude to alleviate the Burthens of your People, by recommending to Parliament a System of Public Economy, which we trust will be carried into Effect; and that the Constitution will be secured by a fair and real Representation of the Commons in Parliament, thereby effectually eradicating every Species of undue Influence.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment, and our full Confidence that the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils will redeem the Honour and restore the Prosperity of all your Dominions.

By Order of the Meeting,

James Townsend, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Kent.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

ATACHED to your Royal Person and Family by every Tie of Loyalty and Affection, we beg Leave to return your Majesty our cordial Thanks for having complied with the Wishes of your People, by making a Change in your Councils, and appointing those Men to the Administration of Affairs, who, from their Abilities and Integrity, and from having pledged themselves to Constitutional Liberty, are deservedly the Favourites of the Public.

We entertain the most grateful Sense of your Majesty's benign Intentions to alleviate the Burdens of your People, by a Reform in your Civil Establishment, and by your Recommendation to Parliament of an effectual Plan of Economy through every Branch of the Public Expenditure; and we feel the most perfect Satisfaction, that your Majesty has no Reserves with your People;—such a Declaration cannot fail to produce in a loyal People an Emulation to convince your Majesty, that your Reliance on their Affections for the true Honor of your Crown and Government is not misplaced.

Permit us, gracious Sire, to congratulate your Majesty on the late signal and important Success of your Arms at a Period so critical to National Welfare; a Success, which when directed to true political Effect by a wise Administration, will, we trust, lead to the only justifiable Object of War,—an honourable Peace.

John Sawbridge, Chairman.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Hereford, has been presented to the King by Francis William Thomas Brydges, Esq; Sheriff, and Sir George Cornwall, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Hereford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Hereford, presume to lay before your Throne the most grateful Sentiments we feel of your Majesty's paternal Care and Regard for your faithful Subjects, in dismissing from your Councils those Ministers, whose pernicious Measures had nearly effectuated the Ruin of your Kingdoms, and in placing your Royal Confidence in those, of whose Abilities we had unquestionable Proofs, and in whose Integrity we rest an unlimited Reliance.

Deeply impressed with Gratitude for your Majesty's Goodness in adverting to the Distresses of your People, we beg Leave also to tender our sincere Thanks to your Majesty for your Solicitude to alleviate their Burthens, by recommending to Parliament a System of Public Economy; and at the same Time we congratulate your Majesty on the late signal Victory obtained by your Arms, we doubt not but by the Wisdom of your Majesty, and the Prudence of your Ministers, the further Operations tions of War against our natural Enemies, will be carried on with such Vigour and Success, as will establish the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, and insure the permanent Happiness and Prosperity of your People.

The following Address of the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Cambridge has been presented to the King by Philip Yorke, Esq; One of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Cambridge, beg Leave to approach your Throne; and we approach it, we presume, with a well grounded Confidence that you will be graciously pleased to accept the Thanks which we thus tender to your Majesty for your paternal Goodness to your People, shewn in confiding your Councils, and the Administration of Public Measures, to Men of approved Integrity, consummate Ability, intelligent Activity, undoubted Loyalty, and firm Attachment to the genuine Constitution of their Country. Under the Auspices of such an Administration, we trust that our Enemies of the House of Bourbon, will yet be humbled; that our ancient Allies will see Cause to regret their new Connections; and that our Brethren in America will not be averse from Peace; and we sincerely congratulate your Majesty on the late important Success of your Arms in the East and West Indies, as probable Means of effectuating these Ends.

Persuaded, that by such Ministers our Money will not be misapplied, we will with Cheerfulness submit to every Burthen which may enable your Majesty to convince the Powers of Europe, that you have the singular Felicity of reigning over a free and magnanimous People, impatient of every the most distant Tendency to Despotism, but beyond all others, affectionate to their Prince, and zealous for His Honour.

Convinced that a System of Parliamentary Corruption is derogatory from the Wisdom and Equity of your Majesty's Government, expensive to the State, and ruinous to the Constitution, we beg Leave to express our hearty Approbation of the Measures which your Majesty's Ministers have taken in Parliament to destroy it; and at the same Time to testify our most cordial Thanks to your Majesty, for the Greatness of Mind displayed in your concurring with such salutary Councils. What more remains to be done, we doubt not will be done, with as just a Regard for the Monarchical as for the Democratical Part of the Constitution, for we are not of Those who wish to see the Constitution altered, but restored to its original Purity.

Signed, as the unanimous Act of the County Meeting, by me,

Henry Pointer Standly, High Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AMIDST the Effusions of the Publick Joy, flowing from the Success of your Majesty's Arms in various Parts of the Globe, and particularly from the great and important Victory obtained by that gallant and successful Veteran, Lord Rodney, and your powerful and well directed Fleet in the West Indies, (as well as the Capture of the French Transports destined for the East Indies, by Admiral Barrington) your dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Citizens and Inhabitants of Bristol, in their Guildhall assembled, pray Leave to approach your Throne, to testify their Participation in the general Happiness.

We rejoice in that your Majesty's paternal Goodness has already anticipated the Wishes of your People, by dignifying with the first Rate Honours, those great and illustrious Commanders, by whose persevering Valour and sagacious Skill the haughty Armament of France has been dispersed, her Battle Ships captured, the Security of your Majesty's Possessions established, and the disputed Empire of the Sea vindicated to your triumphant Flag.

Deeply connected in the Commerce of the Islands, we feel more than a common Share of Interest in these great and important Fruits of Victory, and acknowledge to every Individual of that Fleet, whose active and undaunted Courage exerted itself on that Day, the just Tribute of Gratitude and Honour: To your Majesty we tender our sincere Congratulations on an Event, honourable to the Nation, glorious to your Reign, and peculiarly acceptable to a Breast animated with the Royal Wish of rendering to your People a safe, a permanent, and honourable Peace: And to the Sovereign Disposer of all Events we offer Praise and Thanks, imploring Him to multiply these His Blessings, and continue to your Majesty and your latest Posterity, to wear the Crown of these Realms with undiminished Lustre, and rule in the Hearts of a free and united Peoples.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Citizens and Inhabitants of Gloucester, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with the most joyful and heart-felt Congratulations on the late glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms in the East and West Indies, and in other Parts of the Globe.

The Conduct and Bravery of the gallant Admiral who commanded your Majesty's Fleet in the late Battle with the French in the West Indies, and the valiant and unanimous Exertions with which he was so nobly supported by the other Admirals, and all the Officers and Men under his Command, afford us compleat Satisfaction in the happy Event of that Day.

Your Majesty's faithful Subjects have confident Hope that these will be the happy Earnest of further Victories, and sincerely pray, that it may please the Divine Providence to crown your Majesty's Arms with such Success, as may force your Enemies to submit, to a safe, just and honourable Peace.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

By His Majesty's Command,

Admiralty-Office, May 14, 1782.

WHEREAS there are at this Time several Deferters from the different Divisions of His Majesty's Marine Forces, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of Pardon, and that such Instance of Clemency would have due Influence on their future Behaviour; My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, in order to encourage them to return to their Duty, and to remove their Apprehensions of the Punishment due to their Crime, do hereby give Notice, that such of the said Deferters as shall surrender themselves at any of the aforesaid Divisions at Portsmouth, Plymouth, or Chatham, or to any Recruiting Party of the Marines in Great Britain or Ireland, on or before the 30th Day of June next, will receive His Majesty's Free Pardon.
