

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 11, to Saturday June 15, 1782.

St. James's, June 15.

THE following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Middlesex, has been presented to the King by John Wilkes, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Middlesex, desire your Majesty to accept our Thanks for having complied with the Wishes of your People, by removing from your Councils those Men, under whose Administration Calamities, so many and so great, have befallen your Kingdom; and by appointing your Majesty's present Ministers, in whom their Country had and are willing to have the fullest Confidence.

We have seen, with Sentiments of the most lively Gratitude, your Majesty's Solitude to alleviate the Burthens of your People, by recommending to Parliament a System of Public Economy, which we trust will be carried into Effect; and that the Constitution will be secured by a fair and real Representation of the Commons in Parliament, thereby effectually eradicating every Species of undue Influence.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment, and our full Confidence that the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils will redeem the Honour and restore the Prosperity of all your Dominions.

By Order of the Meeting,

James Townsend, Chairman.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Kent, has been presented to the King by Colonel John Sawbridge, attended by the Honourable Major Charles Marham, and Filmer Honeywood, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County, Sir John Honeywood and Sir Horace Mann, Barons, and Mr. Beckingham, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Kent.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

ATACHED to your Royal Person and Family by every Tie of Loyalty and Affection, we beg Leave to return your Majesty our cordial Thanks for having complied with the Wishes of your People, by making a Change in your Councils, and appointing those Men to the Administration of Affairs, who, from their Abilities and Integrity, and from having pledged themselves to Constitutional Liberty, are deservedly the Favourites of the Public.

We entertain the most grateful Sense of your Majesty's benign Intentions to alleviate the Burdens of your People, by a Reform in your Civil Establishment, and by your Recommendation to Parliament of an effectual Plan of Economy through every Branch of the Public Expenditure; and we feel the most perfect Satisfaction, that your Majesty has no Reserves with your People;—such a Declaration cannot fail to produce in a loyal People an Emulation to convince your Majesty, that your Reliance on their Affections for the true Honor of your Crown and Government is not misplaced.

Permit us, gracious Sire, to congratulate your Majesty on the late signal and important Success of your Arms at a Period so critical to National Welfare; a Success, which when directed to true political Effect by a wise Administration, will, we trust, lead to the only justifiable Object of War,—an honourable Peace.

John Sawbridge, Chairman.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Hereford, has been presented to the King by Francis William Thomas Brydges, Esq; Sheriff, and Sir George Cornwall, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Hereford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Hereford, presume to lay before your Throne the most grateful Sentiments we feel of your Majesty's paternal Care and Regard for your faithful Subjects, in dismissing from your Councils those Ministers, whose pernicious Measures had nearly effectuated the Ruin of your Kingdoms, and in placing your Royal Confidence in those, of whose Abilities we had unquestionable Proofs, and in whose Integrity we rest an unlimited Reliance.

Deeply impressed with Gratitude for your Majesty's Goodness in adverting to the Distresses of your People, we beg Leave also to tender our sincere Thanks to your Majesty for your Solitude to alleviate their Burthens, by recommending to Parliament a System of Public Economy; and at the same Time we congratulate your Majesty on the late signal Victory obtained by your Arms, we doubt not but by the Wisdom of your Majesty, and the Prudence of your Ministers, the further Operations