St. James's, June 29.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Flint, has been presented to the King by Major Watkin Williams, Representative in Parliament for the Town of Flint, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Flint, most humbly beg Leave to express our inviolable Attachment to your own Sacred Person, and your Illustrious Family; together with the highest Veneration for that noble Constitution of Government, which was established in this Country at the Revolution. With these Sentiments we hope we may be permitted to congratulate your Majesty on our general Deliverance from the late corrupt and rapacious Administration, who could not bear to see your oppressed and faithful Subjects either rich, or happy, or honest.

We feel yet higher Obligations to your Majesty for admitting into your Confidence the honorable Men whose Merit and Character make them to be considered as the sure Friends of the Publick; and who, we doubt not, will call forth the Spirit, the Love, and the Wisdom of the Nation, which are of such essential Consequence to your Majesty's Service; and it is with Delight and Admiration that we behold them supported by your Royal Approbation and Concurrence, in carrying on the great and salutary Work of Economy, which we hope will never stop, till an End is put to useless Places, and exorbitant Salaries; and till the Revenue of the People can no longer be employed to corrupt their Representatives.

May your Majesty long taste the Glory, and enjoy the Benefit of so wise and necessary a Change in your Councils; may the late glorious Success of your Fleets be a Presage of future Victories; and may you live to see your People recover all the Blessings they have lost; and forget all the Disgrace and Misery they have endured.
