The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Somerset, has been presented to the King by Mr. Strode and Mr. Popham, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave most thankfully to acknowledge the Attention that your Majesty has been graciously pleased to pay to the Wishes of your People, by appointing Ministers whose Abilities, Integrity, and Ready Attachment to the Constitution, have secured to them the Confidence of the Nation.

With such Advisers, and by the united Efforts of the Community, we hope the former flourishing Condition

Condition of your Majesty's Dominions will soon be restored; and, through the Medium of a successful War, an honourable, solid, and permanent Peace will be infused to your People.

We entertain the most grateful Sense of your Majesty's benign Intentions to alleviate the Burthens of your People by a Reform in your Civil Establishment, and by your Recommendation to Parliament of an effectual Plan of Economy through every Branch of the Public Expⁿature.

Permit us, Sire, to present our warmest Congratulations on the late signal and important Successes of your Majesty's Arms in different Quarters of the Globe. At the same Time we humbly intreat your Majesty's Acceptance of our sincere Professions of inviolable Attachment to your Person and Government. May your Majesty long reign the envied Monarch of a happy People; and may the Liberty of Britain ever flourish inviolate under the Auspices of that Illustrious Family which was invited to protect it.

We embrace this Opportunity to congratulate your Majesty upon the glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms, under the Divine Providence, in the several Parts of the Globe; and may your Majesty's Negotiations in Ireland and elsewhere become as famous for Justice and Rectitude, as the Operations of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies have been for their Intrepidity and Courage: And may the natural Effect of that Justice, Humanity, and Liberality of Principle, upon which the present Ministry are acting, continue to mark out the Vestiges of your Majesty's Dominions, through every Part of them, from East to West, by the Happiness and Prosperity of your Majesty's Subjects, and

We are happy to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms in different Quarters of the World; and we trust that, under the Divine Providence, the intrepid Valour of your Fleets and Armies, so nobly displayed of late, will be productive of the most important and beneficial Consequences to these Kingdoms.

[Signed by 117 Persons.]

The following Address of the Ulster Volunteers has been presented to the King by Colonel William Irvine, Major Francis Dobbs, Captain James Dawson, Captain Francis Evans, and Colonel Thomas Morris Jones, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

ULSTER VOLUNTEERS, IRELAND.

Dungannon, June 21, 1782.

Colonel WILLIAM IRVINE in the Chair.

At a Meeting of Three Hundred and Six Companies of this Province, pursuant to Publick Notice, the following Address was unanimously agreed upon, and ordered to be presented to His Majesty by the Chairman, Major Francis Dobbs, Captain James Dawson, Captain Francis Evans, and Colonel Thomas Morris Jones.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Volunteers of Ulster.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WITH the most unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, we approach your Throne. You are our true and lawful Sovereign; and we trust that every Act of ours will evince, that we are your faithful and loyal Subjects.

The

The Addresses of the Irish Parliament having disclaimed any Power or Authority, of any Sort whatsoever, in the Parliament of Great Britain over this Realm, we shall consider an unqualified and unconditional Repeal of the Statute the Sixth of George the First, by the British Parliament, made in Pursuance of the said Addresses, a complete Renunciation of a Principle hostile to the Rights of Ireland, and of all the Claims contained in the said Statute; and as such we will accept it and deem it satisfactory. Thus united by the sacred Bond of Freedom, we request our gracious Sovereign to assure our Sister Kingdom, that we will be Sharers in her Fate, standing or falling with the British Empire.

We humbly beg Leave to express our Gratitude for the Appointment of his Grace the Duke of Portland to the Government of Ireland. Prevented by Situation from enjoying the Presence of our benevolent Sovereign, we rejoice in a Viceroy, whose Character assures us that he will faithfully discharge the Duties of his Station.

The Economy and Retrenchment which your Majesty has been graciously pleased both to recommend and practise, will, we humbly hope, be extended to Ireland. Should a more equal Representation of the People be also adopted, our Prosperity would be for ever secured, and your Majesty's Reign most honorably distinguished in the Annals of Mankind.

We rejoice in the great and signal Success of your Majesty's Arms: Every Enemy must yield to the Efforts of a great, a brave, a free, and an united People. Your Majesty's Choice of those whom you have entrusted with the Administration of Public Affairs, gives us the most heart-felt Satisfaction; Public Confidence is revived; and we doubt not but your Majesty's Crown and Empire will speedily be raised to the highest Pinnacle of Human Glory.

We have ever beheld with Admiration your Majesty's domestic Virtues. May your Majesty, and the truly great and amiable Partner of your Throne, long, long live to bless each other: May the Offspring of your happy Union reward your parental Fondness, by a Display of every Grace and every Virtue: And when, at length, the immutable Law of Nature shall demand that Tribute, which even Kings must pay, may your mourning Subjects with one Voice lament, that the great, the benevolent Father of His People is no more.

*William Irvine, Chairman.
James Dawson, Secretary.*
