

Condition of your Majesty's Dominions will soon be restored; and, through the Medium of a successful War, an honourable, solid, and permanent Peace will be insured to your People.

We entertain the most grateful Sense of your Majesty's benign Intentions to alleviate the Burthens of your People by a Reform in your Civil Establishment, and by your Recommendation to Parliament of an effectual Plan of Economy through every Branch of the Public Expⁿature.

Permit us, Sire, to present our warmest Congratulations on the late signal and important Successes of your Majesty's Arms in different Quarters of the Globe. At the same Time we humbly intreat your Majesty's Acceptance of our sincere Professions of inviolable Attachment to your Person and Government. May your Majesty long reign the envied Monarch of a happy People; and may the Liberty of Britain ever flourish inviolate under the Auspices of that Illustrious Family which was invited to protect it.

By the Direction and on the Behalf of the Meeting of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Somerset,

James Ireland, Sheriff.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Portsmouth, has been presented to the King by Sir Harry Featherstonhaugh, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Portsmouth, most firmly attached to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, by the strongest Ties of Gratitude and Constitutional Principles, which join us together by the most endearing Relation of Prince and Subject, beg Leave, with the deepest Sense of your Majesty's Parental Care and Providence for the Good and Happiness of your People, to give your Majesty our most sincere Thanks, for graciously listening to the Petitions of your faithful Subjects, in removing from your Majesty's Councils and Service your late Ministers, (as being found, upon Experience, totally inadequate to your Majesty's gracious Designs of promoting the general Welfare of these Kingdoms) and for employing for that End those best Friends to your Majesty and the Constitution, whose Personal Qualifications, both natural and moral, have gained them universal Respect, and enabled them to accomplish, beyond any others, the Recovery of that Glory and Happiness to your Subjects, which your Majesty always has in View.

We embrace this Opportunity to congratulate your Majesty upon the glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms, under the Divine Providence, in the several Parts of the Globe; and may your Majesty's Negotiations in Ireland and elsewhere become as famous for Justice and Rectitude, as the Operations of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies have been for their Intrepidity and Courage: And may the natural Effect of that Justice, Humanity, and Liberality of Principle, upon which the present Ministry are acting, continue to mark out the Vestiges of your Majesty's Dominions, through every Part of them, from East to West, by the Happiness and Prosperity of your Majesty's Subjects, and their unaffected Love and Loyalty to their Sovereign.

Given under our Common Seal, the 25th Day of June, 1782.

The following Address of the Portreeve, Bailiff, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Honiton, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Sir George Yonge, Bart. and Jacob Wilkinson, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Bailiffs, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Honiton, beg Leave to declare our unfeigned Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person and Illustrious Family; and humbly to express our warmest Thanks for your gracious Compliance with the Wishes of your People, in making a Change in your Majesty's Councils, and taking into your Confidence Persons respectable for their Constitutional Principles and most distinguished Abilities, and whose Exertions for the Welfare of this Country will, we flatter ourselves, restore the Dignity, Honour, and Prosperity of the British Empire, and promote Unanimity amongst all your Majesty's Subjects.

We are happy to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms in different Quarters of the World; and we trust that, under the Divine Providence, the intrepid Valour of your Fleets and Armies, so nobly displayed of late, will be productive of the most important and beneficial Consequences to these Kingdoms.

Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of the said Borough, the 17th Day of June, 1782.

[Signed by 117 Persons.]

The following Address of the Ulster Volunteers has been presented to the King by Colonel William Irvine, Major Francis Dobbs, Captain James Dawson, Captain Francis Evans, and Colonel Thomas Morris Jones, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

ULSTER VOLUNTEERS, IRELAND.

Dungannon, June 21, 1782.

Colonel WILLIAM IRVINE in the Chair.

At a Meeting of Three Hundred and Six Companies of this Province, pursuant to Publick Notice, the following Address was unanimously agreed upon, and ordered to be presented to His Majesty by the Chairman, Major Francis Dobbs, Captain James Dawson, Captain Francis Evans, and Colonel Thomas Morris Jones.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Volunteers of Ulster.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WITH the most unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, we approach your Throne. You are our true and lawful Sovereign; and we trust that every Act of ours will evince, that we are your faithful and loyal Subjects.
