The Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against John Fletcher, of New Broad-street, London, Insurer, Dealer and Chapman, intend to meet on the 24th Day of July instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at Guildhall, London, in order to receive the Proof of Debts under the said Commission. And the Creditors who have not already proved their Debts are desired to come prepared to prove the same.

To the Creditors of John Fletcher, late of London, Insurer.
The Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against John Fletcher, of New Broad street, London, Insurer, Dealer and Chapman, having appointed the 24th of July instant, at Ten in the Forenoon, at Guildhall, London, in order to take a Proof of Debts preparatory to the making a Dividend; the Assignees earnestly request that such of the Creditors who have not already had the Losses, Returns, &c. claimed on their several Policies examined and allowed by the Assignees (in Consequence of a former Advertisement) will, previous to the Meeting, be careful to have that done, otherwise such Creditors must not be offended if their Claims are objected to at Guildhall on that Account, because, from the Multiplicity of Proofs to be taken, and other Business, it will not be practicable there. And it is submitted and recommended to those Creditors whose Debts have been liquidated, that it will be greatly for their Ease and Convenience to send immediately the Particulars of their Debts, with their Policies, the Names of all the Persons actually interested in them, and the Name of the Party who is to prove the Debt before the Commissioners, to the Assignees Solicitor, (Mr. Dowling, in Brick-court in the Temple) in order that the necessary Depositions may be previously prepared, so that the Creditors may not be detained at Guildhall, which otherwise cannot be avoided.
