

among Ministers, but a new Æra dawns upon us; and should the Extermination of Corruption, united with a more equal Representation of the People, crown the Blessings received under your Majesty's Reign, it will be the most splendid that ever adorned the Annals of this Country; an Emulation of independent Support will then preclude the alledged Necessity of undue Influence; your Ministers, composed of tried Friends of the Public, will stand unshaken by Opposition, while they remain uncontaminated by Corruption; and your Majesty, enthroned in our Hearts, and surrounded with Acclamations, will receive the unbounded Effusions of the Gratitude of a free, affectionate and loyal People. / Signed by Order,

Dennis Kelly, Chairman.

At a Meeting of the High Sheriff and Inhabitants of the County of Wicklow, July 16, 1782, pursuant to publick Notice, Hopton Scott, Esq; High Sheriff, in the Chair.

The following Address was unanimously agreed to.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Inhabitants of the County of Wicklow.

ACCCEPT, most gracious Sovereign, the Assurances of the warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, from your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the County of Wicklow; and permit us to express our most grateful Acknowledgements for your Majesty's parental Regard to this Kingdom, already manifested by the gracious Expression of your wishes to the British Parliament to remove the Grievances of your faithful Subjects of Ireland; who, on the Emancipation from those Restrictions, which this Kingdom has laboured under, will consider themselves bound to support your Majesty's Crown and Dignity with their Lives and Fortunes.

Hopton Scott, Chairman.

Dublin Castle, July 27.
