These Works are in good Condition for making Annually Four Hundred Tons of Oil of Vitriol, situated on the Banks of the Frith of Forth, about Eight Miles East of Edinburgh, near Two Harbours for Shipping. Coal and Labour at moderate Rates. The Works are in a very advantageous Situation for making Alcaline Salts, as great Quantities of Sea Salt are made at Prestonpans, without paying near so much Excise as is paid in England; and the Situation is also very convenient for making Soap. If the Purchaser should be desirous to extend the Trade, there are convenient Buildings near the Works that may be bought or rented very cheap.

The Works will not be shewn, but Inventories of the Houses and Building, mentioning their Extent and Condition, attested by Two ordained and sworn Measurers, and Inventories of the Utensils, mentioning their present Condition and Value, attested by Men of Knowledge, as also Inventories of the Goods on Hand, may be seen, by applying to Walter Hog, Accountant, in Edinburgh; Alexander Baxter, of Odiham in the County of Southampton, Esq; Mr. Nathaniel Nicholls, Attorney at Law, Queen-street, Chesapside, London; or to Mess.
