From Tuesday October 22, to Saturday October 26, 1782.

St. James's, October 26.

YESTERDAY being the Anniversary of the King's Accession to the Throne, when His Majesty entered into the Twenty-third Year of His Reign, there was a very numerous and splendid Appearance of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment His Majesty upon the Occasion. At One o'Clock the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired; and in the Evening there were Illuminations, and other public Demonstrations of Joy, in London and Westminster.

Extracts of Letters from the Right Honourable General Eliott, Governor of Gibraltar, dated Gibraltar, September 11 and 12, 1782. and received at the Office of the Right Honourable Thomas Townshend, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, October 24.

September 11.

AN Attempt to try the Effect of a heavy Fire from our Batteries with Carcasses, hot Shot, and Shells, upon the Enemy's first established Advanced-Works and Batteries, seemed so very practicable, that the Commanding Officer of Artillery was immediately directed to take the Lieutenant-General's Orders for that Purpose. In consequence the Arrangement was very judiciously made, and completely executed by the Artillery Officers. The Firing having commenced on the 8th Instant, at Seven o'Clock in the Morning, by Ten o'Clock their Mahon Battery, consisting of Six Pieces of Ordnance, and One adjoining of Two Guns, were set on Fire, and by Five o'Clock P. M. were entirely consumed, with Gun-Carriages, Platforms, and Magazines, Bomb Proof. Part of the Communication to the Eastern Parallel, and the Trenches and Parapet for Mufquetry in Front of the Battery, were also destroyed. The Thirteen Gun Battery, next the Bay, was so much damaged, being on Fire in several Places, that the Enemy were put to the Necessity of taking down One-Half of it, which they have now begun to re-establish. The Success not only much exceeded my Expectations, but had the happiest Effects in other Respects, as it provoked the Enemy to open their new Mortar Batteries, and recommence a Fire from their Forts and Lines, for which they seemed by no Means prepared. The Enemy's Loss in our Sight was very considerable, as their Endeavours to stop the Progress of the Flames laid them open to a very severe and well-directed Fire. Notwithstanding the great Number of the Enemy's Shot and Shells, we suffered no material Loss.

The next Morning by Day-break the Enemy opened their new Sixty-four Gun Battery upon us, with all their Mortars, and continued to fire without Intermission from thence, as well as from their Lines, (their whole Artillery amounting to about 100 Pieces of Cannon, and 60 Mortars) seemingly by Way of Retaliation, it being the general Opinion their Preparations were not sufficiently compleat to begin this powerful Attack, which, however formidable in Appearance, I will venture to assure, that the Impression upon our Works as yet is scarcely perceptible.

On the same Day the Enemy's Squadron, consisting of Seven Sail of the Line Spanish, and Two French, with a large Frigate and a Xebecque, taking the Advantage of a Levant Wind, got under Sail from the Orange Grove, and one of them passing very slowly within Random Shot fired many Guns upon the South Ballion and Ragged Staff, continuing his Cannonade until he got beyond Europa. The Squadron then went to the Eastward of the Rock, and formed in a Line, (the Admiral leading) came before the Batteries of Europa, and under a very slow Sail commenced a Fire from all their Guns, until the last Ship had passed. They repeated this Manœuvre at Two o'Clock the following Morning, and again in the Forenoon of the same Day. These successive Cannonades did not any Ways damage the Works. Some of the leading Ships came pretty near the Point the first Attack, but having been frequently struck by our Shot they afterwards kept at a greater Distance. Two of the Spanish Ships went early in that Morning to Algaziras, to repair, as we imagine. All the Batteries at Europa were manned by the Marine Brigade, (incamped there) with a small Proportion of Artillerists. The Guns were extremely well laid and pointed; the Whole under the immediate Command of Brigadier Curtis.

About Five in the Afternoon of the same Day Sixteen of the Enemy's Gun Boats came over from Algaziras, formed in a Line, and fired upon the Garrison. Our Batteries obliged them to retire in less than Half an Hour, not without some of them having suffered, as there is Reason to suppose.

September 12.

The Enemy continues his heavy Fire from the Isthmus; last Night the Gun and Mortar Boats repeated their Attack. Nobody hurt by their Fire.

The Wind having come to the Westward, there is all Probability the Enemy will determine upon his final Attack by Sea in a very short Time.

The Enemy has made no further Approach in his Land Attack since Yesterday.

Whitehall, October 26.

THE following Letter has been written, pursuant to His Majesty's express Command, by the Right Honourable Thomas Townshend, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department:

Whitehall, October 22, 1782.

To the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace for the County of Middlesex.

S I R,

HIS Majesty being very much concerned at the frequent Robberies and Disorders of late committed in the Streets of London and Westminster, and and Parts adjacent, and being informed that they are greatly to be imputed to the Encouragement given to Rogues and their Accomplices, by Persons who keep Night-houses and Cellars, which are resorted to by great Numbers of loose and disorderly Persons; and that the Gaming-houses, as also the Places where Strong Liquors are drunk to Excess, contribute much to the Corruption of the Morals of those of an inferior Rank, and to the leading them into these wicked Courses, has commanded me to recommend it, in His Name, in the strongest Manner, to the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, to employ their utmost Care and Vigilance in preventing and suppressing these Disorders, by holding frequent Petty Sessions for this Purpose in their several Parishes, or other Divisions, by calling before them the High Constables and other proper Officers under their Direction, and giving them the strictest Orders and Warrants, from Time to Time, as there shall be Occasion, to search for and apprehend Rogues, Vagabonds, idle and disorderly Persons, in order to their being dealt with according to Law; and likewise to proceed with Rigour as well against all Persons harbouring such Offenders, as against those who keep the said Night-houses or Cellars, Tippling or common Gaming-houses, or who practice or encourage unlawful Gaming.

And His Majesty having very much at Heart the Performance of this Service, wherein the Honor of His Government, the Preservation of the Peace, and the Safety of His Subjects are so much concerned, does further require the said Justices in their respective Sessions to draw up in Writing, from Time to Time, an Account of their Proceedings herein, inserting the Names of the Justices attending such Meetings, and of the Peace Officers whom they shall employ, taking particular Notice of the Zeal and Diligence of each of them in the Performance of his Duty; which Accounts are to be transmitted from the said several Sessions to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before His Majesty; who being informed of their Behaviour may reward such of them as shall distinguish themselves in the faithful and diligent Execution of their Office; His Majesty not doubting but the Justices, on their Part, will take Care to punish with Rigour, as by Law they may, those who shall appear to have been guilty of Corruption or Negligence therein.

You will be pleased to acquaint the Justices of the Peace for the said County, and all others whom it may concern, with His Majesty's Pleasure, that the same may be duly and punctually complied with.

I am, &c.

T. TOWNSHEND.

Letters to the like Effect have also been written to the Lord Mayor of London, to his Grace the High Steward of Westminster, the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Westminster, and likewise for the County of Surry at St. Margaret's Hill.

Navy-Office, October 10, 1782.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That they will be ready to treat, on Tuesday the 19th of November next, with such Persons as are willing to engage for taking up Anchors and Cables left by His Majesty's Ships in Guernsey Road. To be delivered to the Regulating Officer there, or to the Officers of His Majesty's Yard at Portsmouth, as the Parties attending shall agree. No Tenders will be received after One o'Clock, nor taken Notice of, unless the Party, or some Person for him, attends.

WHE whole Names are hereunto set, Commissioners nominated amongst others in His Majesty's Commission, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date at Westminster, the 26th Day of September 1782, pursuant to and for the Execution of an Act of Parliament passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled, "An Act to vest certain Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in Trustees, for the better securing His Majesty's Docks, Ships and Stores at Portsmouth and Chatham", do hereby give Notice, That the Commissioners for that Purpose appointed, or Five or more of them, do intend to meet on Monday the 11th Day of November next, at the Guildhall of the City of Rochester, in the County of Kent, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, for the Purpose of executing the said Commission, and of the several Powers and Authorities to the said Commissioners, or any Five or more of them, given by the said Act of Parliament: And all Person or Persons who have claim to have any Right, Title or Interest to the Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments hereinafter particularly set forth (viz.) "All that Messuage or Tenement in the Parish of Gillingham, in the said County of Kent, and known by the Sign of the Black Lion, with the Out-houses, Yards, Gardens, Close and Appurtenances thereto belonging, containing together, by Admeasurement, One Acre, Two Roods, and Thirty-four Perches, or thereabouts; and also all those Three several Parcels of Meadow or Pasture Land adjoining, together with the Wood or Shaw therunto adjoining, in the said Parish of Gillingham, containing together, by Admeasurement, Twenty Acres and Nineteen Perches, or thereabouts, be the same more or less, commonly called or known by the several Names of Black Lion Meadow, Chestnut Shaw Field, Chestnut Shaw and Home Field, which said last mentioned Messuage or Tenement, Lands and Premises, are the Property of John Fletcher, Esquire, and are now in the several Occupations of Isaac Wildash, Esquire, and William Dann, or their respective Under-Tenants, and abutting as in the said Act is particularly described: And also all those Two Pieces or Parcels of Meadow or Pasture Land adjoining together, and lying and being in the said Parish of Gillingham, containing together, by Admeasurement, Five Acres, and One Perch, or thereabouts, be the same more or less, commonly called or known by the several Names of Gravel Pit Field, and Lower Gravel Pit Field: And also all that Piece or Parcel of Arable Land, lying and being in the said Parish of Gillingham, containing, by Admeasurement, Twelve Acres, and Ten Perches, or thereabouts, commonly called or known by the Name of Marsh Field, which said several Pieces or Parcels of Land are likewise the Property of the said John Fletcher, and now in the Occupation of the said William Dann, or his Under-Tenants, and abut as in the said Act is described: And also all those Four several Tenements lying in the said Parish of Gillingham, with the Gardens, Orchards and Appurtenances thereto belonging, containing, by Admeasurement, One Acre, One Rood, and Twenty-nine Perches, being the Property of William Shairps, Esquire, or his Under-Tenants, abutting as in the said Act is described: And also all those several Pieces or Parcels of Land lying and being in the said Parish of Gillingham, containing, by Admeasurement, Thirty-one Acres, Three Roods, and Seven Perches, or thereabouts, commonly called or known by the Names of Mares Field, Gravel Pit Field, and Upper Marsh Field, and Tom-all-alone's Meadow, being the Property of or belonging to William Green, and now in the Occupation of John

"John Bell and Thomas White, or their Under-Tenants: And also all that Cottage standing upon and together with the triangular Parcel of Meadow Land, Part used as a Garden, lying in Gillingham, containing Two Acres, One Rod, and Thirty-six Perches, being the Property of the Principal and Scholars of the King's Hall and College of Brazen Nose in Oxford, and now in the Occupation of Christopher Fullegar, — Didham, and William Bradley, or one of them, and which are more particularly described in the said Act;" are then and there respectively to appear and make out their Claim or Title to such Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, otherwise they will be totally barred by the said Act of Parliament. Witness our Hands this 25th Day of October, 1782.

East-India House, October 24, 1782.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies do hereby give Notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall-street, on Thursday next, the 31st Instant, from Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon until Six in the Evening, for the Determination, by Ballot, of the following Question, viz.

'That it appears to this Court from incontestible Evidence, drawn from the Records of the Company, and supported by the unanimous Opinion of the House of Commons, that the War in which we are now engaged with the Marattas, "was evidently founded on the Sentiments of the Court of Directors, conveying Demands on the Maratta Administration, greatly exceeding the Conditions of the Treaty of Poorunder," which Sentiments of the Court of Directors opened the first Design of sending a Detachment from Bengal to the Malabar Coast;" and that consequently it would be the Height of Injustice to lay the Blame of that War, or the Evils which have flowed from it, upon Mr. Hastings; when it appears, That the Dissatisfaction of the Court of Directors, expressed at the Treaty of Poorunder, in their Letters to Bengal of the 5th of February, and to Bombay of the 16th of April, 1777, gave the strongest Encouragement to both Presidencies to seize the slightest Pretence of Provocation from the Ministers of the Maratta States, to renew their Engagements with Ragoba;" neither have the Measures adopted by Mr. Hastings, in Consequence of such Instructions, ever received the slightest Censure from the said Court of Directors. In Consideration whereof, it is now recommended to the Court of Directors to rescind their late Resolution respecting the Removal of Warren Hastings, Esq; Governor-General of Bengal, more especially as it appears to this Court, that according to the last official Dispatches from Bengal, dated the 8th of April, 1782, the Prospect of Peace with the Marattas was then propitious, because, cause it seemed to be wished for by all the Maratta States, because Hostilities with them had ceased for many Months, and that a Peace had actually been concluded with Mahdajee Scindia, one of the principal Chiefs of that Confederacy; and, further, that the Government-General of Bengal were using every Means in their Power to effect a general Pacification; and that the Conduct of the said Government-General, tending to produce a general Pacification, or to unite and support, by powerful Resources; a general Confederacy of the Country Powers to defeat the Combination of Hyder Ally and the French, (supposing the said Hyder Ally shall not accept of the reasonable Terms of Accommodation, which have been offered to him in Consequence of his Proposals for Peace,) merits the warmest Approbation of this Court; and that therefore it would be evidently injurious to the Interests of the Company, and the Nation, to remove any of those principal Servants of the Company, now discharging their Duty with such uncommon Exertions, Ability, and Unanimity, or to shake the Authority reposed in them by the Legislature and the Company, at a Period so critical, when the Prosperity of the British Interests in India will depend, in a great Measure, on the Confidence which the native Princes of the Country may place in the Government-General of Bengal.

Admiralty-Office, September 17, 1782.

Notice is hereby given, That a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held on Wednesday the 30th of October next, at Justice-Hall in the Old Bailey, London, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning.
