Whitehall, October 26.

THE following Letter has been written, pursuant to His Majesty's express Command, by the Right Honourable Thomas Townshend, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department:

Whitehall, October 22, 1782.

To the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace for the County of Middlesex.

S I R,

HIS Majesty being very much concerned at the frequent Robberies and Disorders of late committed in the Streets of London and Westminster, and Parts adjacent, and being informed that they are greatly to be imputed to the Encouragement given to Rogues and their Accomplices, by Persons who keep Night-houses and Cellars, which are resorted to by great Numbers of loose and disorderly Persons; and that the Gaming-houses, as also the Places where Strong Liquors are drunk to Excess, contribute much to the Corruption of the Morals of those of an inferior Rank, and to the leading them into these wicked Courses, has commanded me to recommend it, in His Name, in the strongest Manner, to the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, to employ their utmost Care and Vigilance in preventing and suppressing these Disorders, by holding frequent Petty Sessions for this Purpose in their several Parishes, or other Divisions, by calling before them the High Constables and other proper Officers under their Direction, and giving them the strictest Orders and Warrants, from Time to Time, as there shall be Occasion, to search for and apprehend Rogues, Vagabonds, idle and disorderly Persons, in order to their being dealt with according to Law; and likewise to proceed with Rigour as well against all Persons harbouring such Offenders, as against those who keep the said Night-houses or Cellars, Tippling or common Gaming-houses, or who practice or encourage unlawful Gaming.

And His Majesty having very much at Heart the Performance of this Service, wherein the Honour of His Government, the Preservation of the Peace, and the Safety of His Subjects are so much concerned, does further require the said Justices in their respective Sessions to draw up in Writing, from Time to Time, an Account of their Proceedings herein, inserting the Names of the Justices attending such Meetings, and of the Peace Officers whom they shall employ, taking particular Notice of the Zeal and Diligence of each of them in the Performance of his Duty; which Accounts are to be transmitted from the said several Sessions to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before His Majesty; who being informed of their Behaviour may reward such of them as shall distinguish themselves in the faithful and diligent Execution of their Office; His Majesty not doubting but the Justices, on their Part, will take Care to punish with Rigour, as by Law they may, those who shall appear to have been guilty of Corruption or Negligence therein.

You will be pleased to acquaint the Justices of the Peace for the said County, and all others whom it may concern, with His Majesty's Pleasure, that the same may be duly and punctually complied with.

I am, &c.

T. TOWNSHEND.

East-India House, October 24, 1782.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies do hereby give Notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall Street, on Thursday next, the 31st Instant, from Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon until Six in the Evening, for the Determination, by Ballot, of the following Question, viz.

That it appears to this Court from incontestible Evidence, drawn from the Records of the Company, and supported by the unanimous Opinion of the House of Commons, that the War in which we are now engaged with the Mahrattas, "was evidently founded on the Sentiments of the Court of Directors, conveying Demands on the Mahratta Administration, greatly exceeding the Conditions of the Treaty of Poorunder, which Sentiments of the Court of Directors opened the first Design of sending a Detachment from Bengal to the Malabar Coast;" and that consequently it would be the Height of Injustice to lay the Blame of that War, or the Evils which have flowed from it, upon Mr. Hastings; when it appears, "That the Dissatisfaction of the Court of Directors, expressed at the Treaty of Poorunder, in their Letters to Bengal of the 5th of February, and to Bombay of the 16th of April, 1777, gave the strongest Encouragement to both Presidencies to seize the slightest Pretence of Provocation from the Ministers of the Mahratta States, to renew their Engagements with Ragoba;" neither have the Measures adopted by Mr. Hastings, in Consequence of such Instructions, ever received the slightest Censure from the said Court of Directors. In Consideration whereof, it is now recommended to the Court of Directors to rescind their late Resolution respecting the Removal of Warren Hastings, Esq; Governor-General of Bengal, more especially as it appears to this Court, that according to the last official Dispatches from Bengal, dated the 8th of April, 1782, the Prospect of Peace with the Mahrattas was then propitious, because it seemed to be wished for by all the Mahratta States, because Hostilities with them had ceased for many Months, and that a Peace had actually been concluded with Mahdajee Scindia, one of the principal Chiefs of that Confederacy; and, further, that the Government-General of Bengal were using every Means in their Power to effect a general Pacification; and that the Conduct of the said Government-General, tending to produce a general Pacification, or to unite and support, by powerful Resources, a general Confederacy of the Country Powers to defeat the Combination of Hyder Ally and the French, (supposing the said Hyder Ally shall not accept of the reasonable Terms of Accommodation, which have been offered to him in Consequence of his Proposals for Peace,) merits the warmest Approbation of this Court; and that therefore it would be evidently injurious to the Interests of the Company, and the Nation, to remove any of those principal Servants of the Company, now discharging their Duty with such uncommon Exertions, Ability, and Unanimity, or to shake the Authority reposed in them by the Legislature and the Company, at a Period so critical, when the Prosperity of the British Interests in India will depend, in a great Measure, on the Confidence which the native Princes of the Country may place in the Government-General of Bengal.
