From Saturday November 2, to Tuesday November 5, 1782.

Whitehall, October 26.

THE following Letter has been written, pursuant to His Majesty's express Command, by the Right Honourable Thomas Townshend, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department:

Whitehall, October 22, 1782.

To the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace for the County of Middlesex.

S I R,

HIS Majesty being very much concerned at the frequent Robberies and Disorders of late committed in the Streets of London and Westminster, and Parts adjacent, and being informed that they are greatly to be imputed to the Encouragement given to Rogues and their Accomplices, by Persons who keep Night-houses and Cellars, which are resorted to by great Numbers of loose and disorderly Persons; and that the Gaming-houses, as also the Places where Strong Liquors are drunk to Excess, contribute much to the Corruption of the Morals of those of an inferior Rank, and to the leading them into these wicked Courses, has commanded me to recommend it, in His Name, in the strongest Manner, to the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, to employ their utmost Care and Vigilance in preventing and suppressing these Disorders, by holding frequent Petty Sessions for this Purpose in their several Parishes, or other Divisions, by calling before them the High Constables and other proper Officers under their Direction, and giving them the strictest Orders and Warrants, from Time to Time, as there shall be Occasion, to search for and apprehend Rogues, Vagabonds, idle and disorderly Persons, in order to their being dealt with according to Law; and likewise to proceed with Rigour as well against all Persons harbouring such Offenders, as against those who keep the said Night-houses or Cellars, Tippling or common Gaming-houses, or who practice or encourage unlawful Gaming.

And His Majesty having very much at Heart the Performance of this Service, wherein the Honour of His Government, the Preservation of the Peace, and the Safety of His Subjects are so much concerned, does further require the said Justices in their respective Sessions to draw up in Writing, from Time to Time, an Account of their Proceedings herein, inserting the Names of the Justices attending such Meetings, and of the Peace Officers whom they shall employ, taking particular Notice of the Zeal and Diligence of each of them in the Performance of his Duty; which Accounts are to be transmitted from the said several Sessions to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before His Majesty; who being informed of their Behaviour may reward such of them as shall distinguish themselves in the faithful and diligent Execution of their Office; His Majesty not doubting but the Justices, on their Part, will take Care to punish with Rigour, as by Law they may, those who shall appear to have been guilty of Corruption or Negligence therein.

You will be pleased to acquaint the Justices of the Peace for the said County, and all others whom it may concern, with His Majesty's Pleasure, that the same may be duly and punctually complied with.

I am, &c.

T. TOWNSHEND.

Letters to the like Effect have also been written to the Lord Mayor of London, to his Grace the High Steward of Westminster, the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Westminster, for the Tower Hamlets, and likewise for the County of Surrey at St. Margaret's Hill.

St. James's, November 2.

George Arnold, of Hill-House in the County of Northampton, Esq; was this Day sworn one of the Gentlemen of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Chamber.

Whitehall, November 2, 1782.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Monday the 28th Day of October last, about Nine o'Clock in the Morning, John Newman, Collector of the Tolls at the Turnpike at Hutton, in the Road from Brentwood to Billericay in the County of Essex, was found in the Toll-House most inhumanly wounded and bruised, quite speechless, and seemingly insensible, in which Situation he languished until the Wednesday following, when he died; and that the Money collected at the said Turnpike, as well as the private Property of the Deceased, with his Silver Watch (said to be marked "Jenkins, London, 1744") were stolen by some Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Murder and Robbery above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices complices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And as a further Encouragement, His Majesty is also pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as before is excepted) to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

T. TOWNSHEND.
