John Boddington.

Custom-house, London, November 21, 1782.

WHEREAS on Monday the 28th Day of October last, a Ship called the Jacinto, John Petrona Master, from Venice, Zant, and Malaga, arrived at Spithead, and being liable to Quarantine, the Master of the said Ship had Notice given him by the proper Officer appointed to superintend the Quarantine Service, that he must proceed with his said Ship to the Motherbank and perform Quarantine; with which the Master immediately complied, and proceeded accordingly: And whereas several Persons having had Communication with and been actually on Board the said Ship whilst under Quarantine, and having had Notice that they were liable to Quarantine (and in particular Joseph Wild) have quitted the said Ship and gone on Shore without any Authority or Licence for so doing.

The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in order to bring to Justice the Persons guilty of so alarming an Offence, by which the Public Health might be endangered, do hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the said Joseph Wild, or any other of the Persons who were actually on Board the said Ship whilst under Quarantine, and quitted the same without any Licence or Authority for so doing, so that he or they may be taken before a Magistrate and prosecuted for the said Offence.—To be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs on Conviction.
