N. B. The Amphion, Villa Nova, and Keyser, together with their Cargoes, being claimed by Neutrals, are not comprized in this Advertisement.

HIS Majesty has been pleased to grant unto Philip Atley, Riding-master, Westminster-bridge, His Royal Letters Patent for his most ingenious and approved Method of rendering Horses tractable and degile in a very short Time, as also familiarizing them to the Scound and Recoil of Ordnance, beating of Drums, and all Sorts of Music; likewise rendering them so steady in all their Actions, that every Sort of Manly Agility and War Exercise may most easily be performed upon them without the least Danger. The said Patent also authorises Philip Atley, his Heirs, &c. to use and exercise his said Invention, at his or their Discretion solely.

Officers in the Army, and the Public in General, may have restive Horses very soon reduced to proper Obedience by Mr. Atley's new Invention, at the Amphitheatre Riding-school, Westminster-bridge, and no where else.

Officers, Non-commission Officers of Dragoons, and Light Dragoons, actually in the Service of His Majesty, and during such Service only, may have Privilege and Instruction gratis, for the more effectually teaching unsteady Horses to stand Fire, &c.

THE Partnership of Lloyd, Moody, and Thackeray, of Blue-ball-yard, St. James's-street, Wine-merchants, is mutually agreed upon to be dissolved on the 15th of December next ensuing. All Demands upon them will be paid either by Lloyd and Thackeray, at their Counting-house in Blue-ball-yard, St. James's-street; or by Charles Moody, at Carbonell, Moody, and Walker's Counting-house, King-street, Golden-square.

Jof. Thackeray.

December 2, 1782.

AS the Advertisement of Lloyd and Thackeray in the Gazettes of the 26th and 30th of November last, respecting the Dissolution of the Partnership of Lloyd, Moody, and Thackeray, of Blue-ball-yard, St. James's-street, Wine-merchants, may be misconstrued, and tend to prevent Charles Moody's Friends from favouring him with their Commands as usual, he thinks it necessary to declare, that he has made a Partnership with Mess. Carbonell and Walker, of King-street, Golden-square, Wine-merchants; where their Orders, after the 15th of December next, will be gratefully received, and he flatters himself executed to their entire Satisfaction.

Cba. Moody.

THE Copartnership between William Tidy and Sawyer Spence, Lead-merchants, Shot-makers, and Plumbers, near Gun-dock, Wapping, expiring the 30th of September last, when Mr. Tidy declined Trade; they request future Favours to Mr. Spence, who continues the Business at the same Premises on his own Account.—Either Party will settle any Partnership Account.

Sawyer Spence.
Wm. Tidy.

Leeds, November 16, 1782.

THE Partnership between Philemon and Joseph Myers, of Leeds in the County of York, Distillers and Wine-merchants, is, by mutual Consent, this Day dissolved; and the Trade will in future be carried on by Philemon Myers only, who is authorized to receive all Debts, and discharge all Demands on said Partnership. Philemon and Joseph Myers return their sincere Thanks to their Friends and Customers, and request the Continuance of their Favours to the said Philemon Myers.

Philemon Myers.
