Westminster, December 5, 1782.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most Gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

SINCE the Close of the last Sessions, I have employed My whole Time in the Care and Attention which the important and critical Conjunction of Public Affairs required of Me.

I lost no Time in giving the necessary Orders to prohibit the further Prosecution of offensive War upon the Continent of North America. Adopting, as My Inclination will always lead Me to do, with Decision and Effect, whatever I collect to be the Sense of My Parliament and My People; I have pointed all My Views and Measures, as well in Europe as in North America, to an entire and cordial Reconciliation with those Colonies.

Finding it indispensable to the Attainment of this Object, I did not hesitate to go the full Length of the Powers vested in Me, and offered to declare them Free and Independent States, by an Article to be inserted in the Treaty of Peace. Provisional Articles are agreed upon, to take Effect whenever Terms of Peace shall be finally settled with the Court of France.

In thus admitting their Separation from the Crown of these Kingdoms, I have sacrificed every Consideration of My own to the Wishes and Opinion of My People. I make it my humble and earnest Prayer to Almighty God, that Great Britain may not feel the Evils which might result from so great a Dismemberment of the Empire; and, that America may be free from those Calamities, which have formerly proved in the Mother Country how essential Monarchy is to the Enjoyment of Constitutional Liberty. Religion, — Language, — Interest, — Affections may, and I hope will yet prove a Bond of permanent Union between the Two Countries: To this End, neither Attention nor Disposition shall be wanting on My Part.

While I have carefully abstained from all offensive Operations against America, I have directed My whole Force by Land and Sea against the other Powers at War, with as much Vigour as the Situation of that Force, at the Commencement of the Campaign, would permit. I trust that you feel the Advantages resulting from the Safety of the great Branches of Our Trade. You must have seen with Pride and Satisfaction the gallant Defence of the Governor and the Garrison of Gibraltar; and My Fleet, after having effected the Object of their Destination, offering Battle to the Combined Force of France and Spain on their own Coasts; those of My Kingdoms have remained at the same Time perfectly secure, and your domestic Tranquillity uninterrupted. This respectable State, under the Blessing of God, I attribute to the entire Confidence which subsists between Me and My People, and to the Readiness which has been shewn by My Subjects in My City of London, and in other Parts of My Kingdoms, to stand forth in the general Defence. Some Proofs have lately been given of Public Spirit in private Men, which would do Honour to any Age and any Country.

Having manifested to the whole World, by the most lauding Examples, the signal Spirit and Bravery of My People, I conceived it a Moment not unbecoming my Dignity, and thought it a Regard due to the Lives and Fortunes of such brave and gallant Subjects, to shew Myself ready on My Part to embrace fair and honourable Terms of Accommodation with all the Powers at War.

I have the Satisfaction to acquaint you, that Negotiations to this Effect are considerably advanced, the Result of which, as soon as they are brought to a Conclusion, shall be immediately communicated to you.

I have every Reason to hope and believe, that I shall have it in my Power in a very short Time to acquaint you, that they have ended in Terms of Pacification, which, I trust, you will see just Cause to approve. — I rely however with perfect Confidence on the Wisdom of My Parliament and the Spirit of My People, that if any unforeseen Change in the Dispositions of the Belligerent Powers should frustrate My confident Expectations, they will approve of the Preparations I have thought it advisable to make, and be ready to second the most vigorous Efforts in the further Prosecution of the War.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have endeavoured, by every Measure in My Power, to diminish the Burthens of my People. — I lost no Time in taking the most decided Measures for introducing a better Economy into the Expenditure of the Army.

I have carried into strict Execution the several Reductions in My Civil List Expences, directed by an Act of the last Sessions. — I have introduced a further Reform into other Departments, and suppressed several Sine Cure Places in them. I have by this Means so regulated My Establishments, that My Expence shall not in future exceed My Income.

I have ordered the Estimate of the Civil List Debt, laid before you last Sessions, to be completed. The Debt proving somewhat greater than could be then correctly stated, and the proposed Reduction not immediately taking Place, I trust you will provide for the Deficiency, securing, as before, the Repayment out of My annual Income.

I have ordered Enquiry to be made into the Application of the Sum voted in Support of the American rican Sufferers; and I trust that you will agree with Me, that a due and generous Attention ought to be shewn to those who have relinquished their Properties or Professions from Motives of Loyalty to Me, or Attachment to the Mother Country.

As it may be necessary to give Stability to some Regulations by Act of Parliament, I have ordered Accounts of the several Establishments, incidental Expences, Fees, and other Emoluments of Office, to be laid before you. Regulations have already taken Place in some, which it is my Intention to extend to all, and which, besides expecting all Public Business, must produce a very considerable Saving, without taking from that ample Encouragement, which ought to be held forth to Talents, Diligence, and Integrity, wherever they are to be found.

I have directed an Enquiry to be made into whatever regards the landed Revenue of My Crown, as well as the Management of My Woods and Forests, that both may be made as beneficial as possible, and that the latter may furnish a certain Resource for supplying the Navy, Our great National Bulwark, with its first Material.

I have directed an Investigation into the Department of the Mint, that the Purity of the Coin, of so much importance to Commerce, may be always adhered to; that by rendering the Difficulty of counterfeiting greater, the Lives of Numbers may be saved, and every needless Expence in it suppressed.

I must recommend to you an immediate Attention to the great Objects of the Public Receipts and Expenditure; and above all to the State of the Public Debt.—Notwithstanding the great Increase of it during the War, it is to be hoped that such Regulations may still be established—such Savings made—and future Loans so conducted, as to promote the Means of its gradual Redemption by a fixed Course of Payment.—I must, with particular Earnestness, distinguish for your serious Consideration, that Part of the Debt which consists of Navy, Ordnance, and Victualling Bills: The enormous Discount upon some of these Bills shews this Mode of Payment to be a most ruinous Expedient.

I have ordered the several Estimates, made up as correctly as the present Practice would admit, to be laid before you. I hope that such further Corrections as may be necessary, will be made before the next Year. It is My Desire that you should be apprized of every Expence before it is incurred, as far as the Nature of each Service can possibly admit.—Matters of Account can never be made too public.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Scarcity, and consequent high Price of Corn, requires your instant Interposition.

The great Excess to which the Crimes of Theft and Robbery, in many Instances accompanied with personal Violence, particularly in the Neighbourhood of this Metropolis, has called of late for a strict and severe Execution of the Laws. It were much to be wished that these Crimes could be prevented in their Infancy, by correcting the Vices become prevalent in a most alarming Degree.

The liberal Principles adopted by you concerning the Rights and the Commerce of Ireland, have done you the highest Honour; and will, I trust, increase that Harmony, which ought always to subsist between the Two Kingdoms. I am persuaded that a general Increase of Commerce throughout the Empire, will prove the Wisdom of your Measures with regard to that Object. I would recommend to you a Revision of Our whole Trading System upon the same comprehensive Principles, with a View to its utmost possible Extension.

The Regulation of a vast Territory in Asia opens a large Field for your Wisdom, Prudence, and Foresight. I trust that you will be able to frame some fundamental Laws, which may make their Connection with Great Britain a blessing to India; and that you will take therein proper Measures to give all Foreign Nations, in Matters of Foreign Commerce, an entire and perfect Confidence in the Probity, Fidelity, and good Order of Our Government. You may be assured that whatever depends upon Me, shall be executed with a Steadiness, which can alone preserve that Part of My Dominions, or the Commerce which arises from it.

It is the fixed Object of My Heart to make the general Good, and the true Spirit of the Constitution, the invariable Rule of My Conduct, and on all Occasions to advance and reward Merit in every Profession.

To ensure the full Advantage of a Government conducted on such Principles, depends on your Temper, your Wisdom, your Disinterestedness, collectively and individually.

My People expect these Qualifications of you: and I call for them.

St. James's, December 4.

Whitehall, November 30, 1782.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, in the Night between Monday the 21st and Tuesday the 22d of October last, some Person or Persons unknown maliciously set on Fire a Barn, situated on a Farm in the Parish of Melbury Osmond in the County of Dorset, the Property of the Countess Dowager of Ilchester, in the Occupation of Mrs. Susanna Stone, by which the said Barn, together with a considerable Quantity of Corn therein, and also Two Ricks of Corn near adjoining thereto, were entirely consumed; and that in the same Night Two Hay-Ricks on a distant Part of the said Farm were also set on Fire and burnt: And whereas it has been also represented, that, in the Night between Monday the 18th and Tuesday the 19th of this instant November, another Barn, on Melbury Sampford Farm in the said County, also the Property of the said Countess Dowager of Ilchester, and in the Occupation of Farmer John Gill, was likewise maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown, and, together with a considerable Quantity of Corn therein, was also entirely consumed: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Offences above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

T. TOWNSHEND.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Countess Dowager of Ilchester offers a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to any Person making such Discovery as above-mentioned, to be paid by her Steward, Mr. John Field, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
