AT the Court at St. James's, the 31st of January, 1783,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 20th Day of December last, to direct, That the several Bounties therein mentioned should continue to be paid to every Able and Ordinary Seamen and Able-bodied Landman, who should voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Navy on or before the 31st Day of March next; and also that the Rewards therein mentioned for discovering Able and Ordinary Seamen who should secrete themselves should likewise continue to be paid to any Person who should discover such Seamen, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service:—His Majesty having this Day taken the said Order into Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to declare, That the said Bounties and Rewards shall from henceforth cease, determine, and be no longer paid or payable, any Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Fawcener.

War-Office, February 4, 1783.

WHEREAS Doubts have arisen with Respect to the Extent and Meaning of His Majesty's Orders, dated War-Office, December 16, 1775, relative to the Terms of Enlistment of Soldiers since that Time in the Marching Regiments of Infantry; His Majesty doth hereby declare, That all Men now serving in any Marching Regiment, or Corps of Infantry, who have been enlisted since the Date of the said Order, shall, on the Ratification of the Definitive Treaty of Peace, be discharged, provided they shall then have served Three Years from the Dates of their Attestations; and all Men enlisted, and serving as above, who have not so completed their full Time of Service, shall be discharged at the Expiration of Three Years from the Dates of their respective Attestations: And that, in the mean Time, no Person enlisted under the Conditions above-mentioned shall be sent on any Foreign Service, unless he shall have been re-enlisted into His Majesty's Service.

By His Majesty's Command,
G E O. Y O N G E.

Admiralty-Office, January 30, 1783.

IT is the Direction of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, That the Recruiting Service for His Majesty's Marine Forces be suspended until further Order.
