WHEREAS there is great Reason to believe that John Williamson, formerly Purser of the London East Indiaman, Captain Daniel Webb, but afterwards in His Majesty's Service as Secretary to Lieutenant-General Vaughan in the Expedition against the Island of Saint Eustatius, and who died a few Days after its Surrender, was, at the Time of his Death, possessed of or entitled to Monies and Effects to a very considerable Amount, in the Hands or Care of some Person or Persons whom his Executor has not been able to discover: And whereas it is apprehended that the said John Williamson was also, at the Time of his Death, legally entitled to one or more Freehold Estates in the Kingdom of Ireland: The said Executor of the said John Williamson doth therefore hereby offer unto any Person or Persons who shall discover or make known to him the said Executor, in whose Possession or Care any Monies or Effects of the said John Williamson are deposited, so that the same shall be recovered or received by him; or shall discover any Freehold or other Estates which the said John Williamson was at his Decease entitled to, either in Ireland or elsewhere, so that Possession thereof may be obtained by the said Executor, under and by Virtue of the Will of the said John Williamson; a Proportion of all such Monies or Effects, and of the Value of such Estates, at and after the Rate of 25 l. per Cent upon the Money or Effects, and the Value of such Estates which shall be actually received, or of which Possession shall be actually obtained by the said Executor, by Means of the Information and Assistance which shall be given him by such Person or Persons.

All Persons who can give the Information above requested are desired to apply either to Mr. Johnson, of Lawrence-lane, London, Laceman, the Executor; or to Mr. Fol's, of Gough-square, Fleet-street, London, his Solicitor.
