St. James's, February 26, 1783.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household) with the following Address, which was read by James Adair, Esq; the Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, desire your Royal Permission to express our just Sense of your Majesty's Goodness and final Attention to the Petitions of your most faithful Citizens and People, in procuring to this Nation the inestimable Blessings of Peace.

We hope and trust, that the Stipulations of the Treaty are such as will revive our injured Trade, and restore our Commercial Intercourse with our American Brethren; and we beg Leave to declare it to be our firm Persuasion, that the great Commercial Interests of this Country and of North America, are inseparably united.

Permit us to assure your Majesty of our most perfect Gratitude; and that it shall be our constant Prayer, that your Majesty, the Restorer of Peace to the suffering and desolated Quarters of the World, may long enjoy the glorious Satisfaction of seeing your People prosper, and your Family beloved.

Signed by Order of Court,
WILLIAM RIX.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most Gracious Answer.

I RETURN you My Thanks for this dutiful and loyal Address.

It is with great Satisfaction to Myself, that I see an End to the Calamities of War, and a reasonable Prospect of all the Advantages to be expected from a permanent Peace.

I receive, therefore, with Pleasure, these Expressions of the Satisfaction of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in the Measures I have taken.

You may be at all Times assured of every Exertion of Mine to protect and extend the Trade and Commerce of My Dominions, of which that of the City of London forms so capital a Part.

I concur with you entirely in thinking that the Commercial Interests of this Country and America are the same. Nothing on My Part shall be wanting to restore, without Delay, and establish such a friendly Intercourse in future, as ought to result from mutual Interest and returning Affection.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

After which His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honor of Knighthood on Robert Taylor, Esq; one of the Sheriffs.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, has been presented to the King by George Gipps and Charles Robinson, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said City; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the ancient City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled, beg Leave to congratulate and most humbly to thank your Majesty for having procured to the Nation the Blessings of Peace.

To stop the Effusion of Blood, to ease the Burthen of your People, and terminate the Calamities that affected so large a Part of the Globe, we are persuaded were your Motives to effect the present Pacification: Motives so just in themselves, so full of Benevolence and Humanity, demand our united and cordial Approbation.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that it shall be our constant Prayer that your Majesty may long continue to reign easy and happy over a loyal and grateful People, enjoying the glorious Satisfaction of seeing your Kingdoms prosper, and your Family beloved.

Given under our Common Seal; the Twenty-fifth Day of February, in the Twenty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.
